Millions for Slavery—Nothing for Freedom.

The editor of the Philadelphia Eagle has been looking into the cost of Slavery, a "Domestic Institution" that has one way and another required large expenditures.

As the Domain which belonged to the "Old Thirteen States" was not adapted to Slavery, it became necessary to purchase such as was, with a view to that Political Supremacy which the South has enjoyed. Hence the purchase, in 1803, of Louisiana, at a cost, in principal and interest, of over $23,000,000, out of which four Slave States viz: Louisiana, Mississippi, Missouri and Arkansas, were carved.

Seventeen years afterwards Florida was purchased at an expense of over $6,000,000 and admitted, with its handful of inhabitants, as a State, whose two Senators neutralized the vote of New York!

Soon the planters of Georgia demanded the removal of the Seminole Indians from the swamps of Florida, so that their runaway slaves could not find a refuge there. This involved us in a war which cost over $28,000,000.

Then, came Texas, with it twelve thousand inhabitants, claiming, and fraudulently obtaining admittance as a Sovereign State! Here again, was our Senate representation neutralized by a State whose population fell below that of the county of Fulton or Putnam, of Rockland!

The Annexation of Texas plunged us into a war with Mexico, in which millions of treasure and rivers of blood were expended. Here, however, as an indemnity, we secured one FREE State, but not without a struggle which threatened to dismember the Union, and only then by submitting to a Fugitive Slave Law which posterity will blush to find among our Statutes.

We have since, paid to Texas, under various pretexts, large sums of money—not large enough, however, to extinguish the "claims" of that rapacious Sister.

The Eagle thus recapitulates and aggregates the expense of the maintaining a Slave Supremacy in our Government:

Purchasing Louisiana, in 1803	$23,500,000
Florida from Spain, in 1812	5,000,000
Florida War with the Indians, in 1836-'38	22,344,000
Mississippi from Georgia	5,252,000
War to obtain Texas, in 1846-'47	217,174,000
Paid to Texas for claim claims, in 1850-'54	10,000,000
Mesilla Valley, to Santa Anna, 1853	10,000,000
Total	$318,270,000

But on the other hand, when appropriations are required for the Hudson River or the St. Clair Flats, to facilite a Commerce far more extensive and valuable than the entire business of the whole South, they encounter the fierce opposition of the Slave States, and with a Slave or Dough-face President, are stopped by a Veto!—Ex. Journal.

A Bold and Humane Indian.

The following facts of a young chief of the Pawnee nation, and son of Old Knife, one of the Indians who visited the city of Washington, a few years ago, from the foot of the Rocky Mountains, are highly creditable to his generosity and benevolence. This young warrior when these events occurred was about twenty-five years old.—At the age of twenty one, his heroic deeds had acquired for him among the people the rank of "Bravest of the brave."

The savage practice of torturing and burning to death their prisoners existed in this nation. An unfortunate female, taken in war with the Paduca nation, was destined to this horrible death. The fatal hour had arrived; the trembling victim far from home and her friends, was fastened to the stake; the whole tribe had assembled on the surrounding plain to witness the awful scene. Just as the wood was about to be kindled, and the spectators were on the tiptoe, of expectation, this young warrior, who sat composedly among the chiefs, having before provided two fleet horses, and the necessary provisions, sprang from his seat, dashed through the crowd, loosed the victim, seized her in his arms, placed her on one of the horses, and mounted the other himself, and made the utmost speed towards the nation and friends of the captive.

The multitude, dumb and nerveless with amazement at the daring deed, made no effort to rescue the victim from her deliverer. They viewed it as an act of the deity, submitted to it without a murmur, and quietly returned to their village. The released was accompanied through the wilderness towards her home, where she was out of danger.

He then gave her the horse on which she rode, with the necessary provisions for the remainder of her journey, and parted from her. On his return to the village such was the respect entertained for him, that no inquiry was passed on it, and since the transaction, no human sacrifice has been offered in this or any of the Pawnee tribes. Of what influence is one bold act in a good cause.

On the publication of this anecdote at Washington, the young ladies in a female seminary in that city, presented the brave and humane Indian, with a handsome silver medal, on which was engraved an appropriate inscription, accompanied by an address of which the following is the close:

"Brother, accept this token of our esteem and when you again have the power to save a poor woman from torture, think of this, and of us, and fly to her rescue."—Albany Atlas.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.—No mode of self-destruction seems too horrible for the desperate mind, and disappointed affection appears to be especially revolting in the choice of the means of suicide. On Friday an attempt was made to commit suicide under the desperation excited by love betrayed which surpasses any instance in our recollection. It appears that a young man named John Monigle, residing in a small court running out of Washington Avenue, in the 19th Ward, was much attached to a female living in the same neighborhood, who pretended to entertain a reciprocal affection. But the lady seems to have been an adept in deceit; for on Thursday she was married to another man. When informed of the event, Monilge was driven to desperation, and under the influence of the fearful shock he determined to destroy himself. The mode of death chosen on Friday, was the horrible one of swallowing a quantity of molten lead. The lead was actually taken into the mouth, but it was suffered to run out again, without having been swallowed. The mouth and breast were so dreadfully injured, that it was thought he could not live. The sister of the young man, hearing him groan, entered the room, and found the brother in agony, and the ladle of molten lead laying near the fire. Medical aid was immediately summoned. The unfortunate young man expressed a wish that he should not recover. He lingers in the greatest agony.—Phila. American.

SIXTY FEET OF DAUGHTERS.—In the Half Century Sermon of Rev. Dr. Bracen, of Newington, Conn., we find a curious fact respecting the Edwards family.—Speaking of Mr. Backus, one of his predecessors he says: "His wife was one of ten daughters, every one of whom has been said to be six feet tall—making sixty feet of daughters, and all of them strong in mind, children of the Rev. Timothy Edwards."

Local Matters.

☞ The steamer Champion, Capt. MILLOY, came in yesterday morning with about 100 passengers, and a full freight from Toronto. The Mayflower is in this morning with a full freight.

☞ The steamer Canada, Capt. WILLOUGHBY, arrived in good time this morning, and will leave on the arrival of the cars at half past 7 o'clock this evening, for Toronto and Hamilton.

☞ The stars for the City Police have been received, and each M. P. will now be designated by a bright spot on the left breast. The design of these planetary badges are tasteful and pretty.

Strawberry and Floral Festival.

The ladies of the Church of the Evangelists will hold a Stawberry and Floral Festival in the Doolittle Hall, on Friday evening, July 6th. Admittance 12 1-2 cts. Children half price.

☞ A large number of citizens availed themselves of the opportunity of snuffing the Lake breeze yesterday, on board the steamer Champion, Capt. MILLOY. She made two excursions into the Lake, both times carrying out immense loads.

☞ PALMER'S Great National Show has been liberally patronized, we understand, since it has opened in this city, and the management have concluded to complete the week here. Their Tent is on West Oneida Street, between Fourth and Fifth Streets, with ample accommodations for visitors, and an attractive performance.

NEW DRUG STORE.—Messrs. MEAD & AMES have opened a large assortment of drugs, medicines, &c., at the store in the Bennet Block, next north of Hart's Palace, on East Bridge Street, and respectfully solicit a share of the public patronage. They also have a Soda Fountain, whose discharges are decidedly palatable for summer time.—See their advertisement.

SIGNIFICANT.—The first of the regular toasts at the United States Hotel dinner yesterday was "The President of the United States"—drank sitting and in profound silence. Next came "The Memory of Washington"—upon which the Company all rose. The company doubtless felt what was due to the office of President of the United States, but not a solitary cheer could be raised for the present occupant by the inspiration of sparkling champagne.

☞ A pleasant feature in the Procession yesterday, was MARSH'S Miniature Troupe of Comedians, all in sailor's costume, drawn in a large open carriage, with the stars and stripes floating over their heads. They attracted considerable attention in the Park, by their youthful appearance, and three times three went up from their young voices in response to the national airs by the Sax Horn Band. To-night by-the-by, is the last opportunity our citizens will have of witnessing the performances of this talented little company, and the occasion should be improved.

A good Bill is presented for this, their last appearance, viz: "Day after the Wedding," "Loan of a Lover," and by particular request, "Rough Diamond."

☞ THE BALM OF THOUSAND FLOWERS is the greatest luxury a lady or gentleman could wish, for the improvement of health, for comfort and personal embellishment and for its delicate, soothing sensation, and the delightful softness it imparts to the skin. It remedies every defect of the complexion; it promotes the growth and increase of the hair; it is unsurpassed as a dentrifice. For the suffering—for bathing—for suffering infants and for adults—to promote sweetness of body, cleanliness, health and strength, and to prevent eruptions, etc., there is no article more suitable than this Balm. It may be used in cold, warm, hard or soft water.

THE CANADIAN COUNCILS ON THE OSWEGO INVITATION.—The very handsome proceedings of the Toronto Council on the Oswego invitation to visit this City on the Fourth have been published in our paper. We have before, in the official proceedings of the Councils of Hamilton and Kingston on the invitation. The Hamilton Council adopted the following resolution.

Resolved, That this Council acknowledge the polite invitation sent to them by the Corporation of Oswego, requesting the attendance of the Members of this Council at the ensuing celebration on the 4th of July in that city. That while this Council feel that they cannot accept the invitation as a Corporation, that those Members of the Council, who are able, to attend on the said occasion, will have much pleasure in doing so, that a copy of this resolution be forwarded by the City Clerk to the Clerk of the Council of Oswego.

The proceedings of the Kingston Council are of a similar tenor, and somewhat different from what has been represented in the papers. The Kingston Council adopted the following resolution.

Ordered.—That the Mayor be authorized to acknowledge the courteous invitation of the Mayor and Common Council of the city of Oswego to partake of their hospitality on their national anniversary, and to inform the Common Council of Oswego that so many of the members of this Council as can avail themselves of their kind offer, will be happy to accept of their proffered kindness.

The Oswego Celebration.

The City Council of Oswego has invited the City Council of Kingston to a Dinner on the 4th of July, and otherwise to participate in the Festivities of the Anniversary of the glorious day of Independence, and the Kingston Corporation is said to have accepted the invitation. We are no great sticklers for that bugbear loyalty, having existed long enough to know what that means in Canada, but surely some deference should be paid to appearances. Subjects of her Majesty Queen Victoria should scarcely have been asked to celebrate the successful Rebellion of a former Colony. Washington with the Americans may be justly termed the "Father of his Country," but with Canadians his true appellation is Rebel and Traitor; for he foreswore his allegiance to the British Crown and fought and beat the soldiers of his King!

It is hard to say this sort of thing now-a-days, but why do the Americans provoke it, by such untoward Invitations? Canadians entertain the very best feelings towards their brother Anglo-Saxons on the other side of the lakes, and on any other occasion, save that of Independence Day, should be both proud and happy to accept and reciprocate acts of kindness. The day will come, and may come soon, when Canada will be independent of the British Crown, but while it is in subjection, let common decency, to say nothing of respect, be preserved towards its Sovereign.—Kingston Whig.

☞ On Saturday, a Mr. Hustic, of Lawrenceburgh, Indiana, stepped into a drug store in Cincinnati, requesting permission to lie down, as he was ill and could go no farther. It was found that he had the cholera, from which he died in a few hours.

CLEVELAND, July 3.

The schooner Rialto was capsized on Tuesday, off Long Point, and the mate drowned. The captain and remainder of the crew were saved. The captain's wife was in the cabin at the time of the disaster, and remained there for two hours, when the vessel was partially righted, and she was providentially rescued, just as the crew were on the point of abandoning the wreck.

THE WILD MAN AT THE WEST.—The Chicago papers mentioned some days since that a man—wild and fleet of foot—had been seen in the woods near Belvidere, and that all efforts to capture him had proved unavailing. A young gentleman residing at the West, but formerly a resident here, writes to his father under date of the 24th to the effect that the greatest excitement prevails near Belvidere in relation to this "man of the woods." He has been frequently seen in the woods south and west of that place, in a perfectly nude state, and wild as a deer. He adds: "The whole village almost had been out a number of times, and last night there arrived about two hundred men from Chicago and I should think there were five hundred in the woods to-day, but they have found nothing of the man as yet. He is supposed to be a Mr. Melin from Chicago, who left that place about three months ago. His wife is here, and has been for the last week. There is a reward of five hundred dollars offered for the man, if it proves to be Mr. Melin. There is a large expanse of forest along the river—thick with underwood, and difficult to search.

MAIL BETWEEN OSWEGO AND TORONTO.—A contract was concluded yesterday between Mr. Postmaster BEARDSLEY, and an Agent of the Canadian Mail Department, by which a daily mail is to be carried between Oswego and Toronto by the Collingwood line of steamers. This will be a great accommodation to Oswego and Toronto, as well as to all the upper ports on the north shore of Lake Ontario. Toronto will receive the Oswego and New York mails from 12 to 24 hours earlier than now, by this arrangement. The expense of carrying this mail is borne equally by the respective Post Office Departments of the two Governments. The first mail bag, under the arrangement, will be taken by the Mayflower this evening.

☞ The through freight brought down by the Northern route from Chicago and other ports on Lake Michigan and Huron, during the month of June, was, considering that the route is new, a very favorable promise for the future. In flour alone, there was 21,574 bbls shipped from Toronto—pork, 2618 bbls—wheat, 2312 bags—corn, 1774 bags—butter, 422 firkins. The greater part of this freight was intended for New York and Montreal.

There were 8240 bbls of flour, and 8070 bushels of wheat, delivered to buyers in Toronto from way stations on the Northern R. R. during the month.

☞ The Key Stone State arrived on Sunday, at Collingwood, with 200 passengers, and the following through freight:—For Montreal, 407 bbls flour, 41 do tallow, 20 bales wool, 40 bags corn, 8 bbls. pork—for New York, 16 bbls. pork, 24 do beef, 22 bbls fish—for Troy 131 bbls hogs tongues—for Ogdensburgh, 32 bbls flour.

☞ A slave woman in Fulton, Missouri, killed her master and burned his body to ashes so completely, that nothing could have been discovered had she not herself confessed the deed, and pointed out the ash heap in which a few bones, were found unconsumed.

☞ The Glens Falls, (N. Y.) Republican, states that a young man named John Spooner, in stooping to pick up something, fell on the carriage of a circular saw, and before he could recover himself, was drawn against the saw and instantly cut in two from shoulders to the hips.

The Crops.

Our agent, Mr. Enos, has been into most of the counties in Northern Ohio within a few days and reports that with every species of crop save corn, the prospect is that of a most abundant harvest. Of course there is time for corn yet. Appearances could not be better for a heavy yield to the farmer. Mr. E. heard of the weevil as constantly a little ahead of him, but he never caught up with the animal, and does not believe its ravages are worth mentioning.

We have been shown by Mr. Peachey "bald wheat" from Columbia township Ionia county, which is badly infected with the weevil, and there are pieces in that town which will yield but half a crop. It would seem to be generally conceded that the bearded or Mediterranean wheat escapes the weevil, either, as we have before remarked, because the wheat gets somewhat hard before the advent of this pest, or because the berry is better protected by the beard and covering.—Cleveland Herald, July 3.

THE BLUE BONNET.—This new steamer intended to run between Montreal and Cornwall, touching at intermediate ports, is about to commence her trips. She is a fine model of naval architecture, and will be a formidable rival for the Fashion, which has hitherto had a monopoly of this line. The Blue Bonnet was built at Sorel by M'Carthy, measures 102 feet over all in length, with 25 foot beam, and draws 3 1 2 feet water light. Her engines are 60 horse power, 34 inch cylinder and 10 feet stroke, and are on a novel construction, making 22 revolutions in a minute. She made the run from Sorel in four hours. Her interior fittings are very tasty, and her general arrangements second to nothing on the river. She has accommodation for 104 cabin passengers. The fittings are by Shearer, and the engine by Milne & Mitn. She is commanded by Capt. Stickler, and consigned to Campbell & Williamson.—Montreal Commercial Advertiser.

THE LAKE ON A BENDER.—The Tribune notices the remarkable phenomenon of sudden rise and fall which old Michigan is wont to indulge in, commencing at 7 o'clock; at 11 A. M. the fall was three feet two below medium height; and at 11:20, there was a rise of three feet ten inches; it then alternately fell and rose about ten inches,
