LAST ACT IN CONGRESS.

Easy, easy, and I'll take time to let you know.
This is the most easy thing in the world.
If it does not suit you, please call at H. A. Wells's Hair Dressing Emporium in the basement of London's Hotel, where a shampoo and shave can be had at any time. Shampooing and cutting Ladies and Gentlemen's Hair done at all times and with dispatch.

Wells's new Improved Wax, which is scarcely to be detected from the Natural Hair, and which resists and all kinds of ornamental Hair-work constantly on hand and made to order.
Mr. W. has an excellent article of fluid for the hair, called the Electrolytic Magnetic Fluid. It restores the hair to its natural growth, and by its use the hair becomes soft and luxuriant, and the scalp will positively bring in new hair on bald heads.
Call and get a bottle.
Lyons, May 20, 1851. E. A. WELLS.

DAGUERREOTYPES BY SKY LIGHT.

J. P. VAN DYK, expects to be in town a short time only. Those who desire pictures by him, would do well to call immediately, as he does not expect to return to Lyons in the Daguerria business.
He keeps constantly on hand, a good assortment of cases, frames &c., and is confident that with his long experience in the profession, and a room as well lighted, and as well adapted to the business, as Western N. Y. affords, he will be able to give the satisfaction to all who may favor him with their patronage.
Lyons, Aug. 27, 1851.

GODDARD AT HOME AGAIN!

M. J. GODDARD having returned from his tour, is fully prepared to execute Daguerreotypes, of the first class, and would say to those who are willing to give him a trial, that if he cannot please them, so one can.
Mr. G. returns thanks to the public for the very liberal patronage he has received, and still desires a continuance of the same.
P. B.—Those wishing Daguerreotypes would do well to call soon, as he may not remain in town long.

NOTICE.

THE SIGNATED PHYSICIAN would respectfully announce to the public, that he has in his dwelling house, a few doors below Beane's Exchange, a good and well disposed STEAM BATH. This Bath has the reputation of being the best in removing disease from the body. I have cured a great many complaints with this Steaming Bath, such as Scrofula, Salt-Rheum, Trem, Rheumatism, Hemorrhoids, Lamebacks, &c. &c. These will be given every morning from 7 till 9 o'clock, and in the evening, from 5 till 7 o'clock. I also prescribe in all Medical and Surgical Illnesses which I can pay particular attention. I also flatter myself that I can cure stiff-neck disease.

A Tight Fit.

Dick Corneraker was a restless, mischievous boy, whose prying curiosity led him into a hundred scrapes every year; but the hardest one of all was that in which his ears were nearly scraped off his head in the following manner:
