In the name of God. Amen. I, Simon B. Bunham of the village of Pulaski in the county of Oswego and state of New York being of sound mind and memory and considering the uncertainty of this frail and transitory life do therefore make ordain publish and declare this my last Will and Testament. That is to say:

First After all my lawful debts are paid and discharged I give and bequeath unto my wife Margaret Bunham all my household goods beds bedding bedsteads and all other furniture and all of my personal property and estate of whatsoever name or nature of which I shall be possessed or entitled to give or bequeath at the time of my death.

Second I give and devise all the real estate and property of which I shall be possessed or entitled to devise at the time of my death to my said wife Margaret Bunham together with all the hereditaments and appurtenances thereto belonging or in anywise appertaining to have and to hold the said real estate and property above referred to, to the said Margaret Bunham her heirs and assigns forever.

Likewise I make constitute and appoint my said wife Margaret Bunham to be executrix of this my last Will and Testament hereby revoking all former wills by me made.

In witness whereof I have hereunto subscribed my name and affixed my seal this 11th day of April in the year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and sixty five.

Simon B. Bunham (L.S.)

The above and foregoing instrument was subscribed by said Simon B. Bunham in our presence and acknowledged by him each for me and he at the same time declared the above instrument to be his last will and testament and we at his request have signed our names as witnesses hereto and we believe the said testator was at the time of making the same of sound mind and memory.
