The people of the State of New York

To all to whom these presents shall come or may concern, send greeting:

Whereas, there is a surrogate in the county of Oswego, authorized to issue letters of administration, and Orlando H. Wheeler is a county judge of said county, the last will and testament of George Hamilton deceased, was proved and allowed by us, and the said testator, at the time of his death, being an inhabitant of, or having left assets which then were, or have since come within the said county of Oswego, we granted unto you, the said Charles Hamilton, and Charles Hamilton, the executors therein named, letters of administration of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said testator, and we, the undersigned, having made and finally allowed the accounts thereof as being with the county judge of the said county, the administration of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, not in any way concerning his will, is granted unto Lyman H. Hamilton and Charles Hamilton, the executors therein named, they having first taken and subscribed an oath or affirmation, faithfully and honestly to discharge the duties of such trust, and duly required you to make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said testator, within a reasonable time, and return it, or a duplicate thereof, to our county judge of the county of Oswego, within three months from the date of these presents, and of further personal property or assets of any kind not mentioned in any inventory, that shall have come to your possession or knowledge, to make or cause to be made, in like manner, a true and perfect inventory thereof, within two months after discovery thereof, and also to render a just and true account of the administration when thereunto required.

In testimony whereof, we have caused the seal of the Surrogate's Court of our said county of Oswego to be hereunto affixed.

Witness, Orlando H. Wheeler, County judge of our said County of Oswego, at Mexico, the 23rd day of February, A.D. 1849.

O. H. Wheeler
County judge of Oswego County.

The people of the State of New York: To Charity Wheeler, send greeting:

Whereas, Henry Osborne late of Mexico, in the county of Oswego, and State of New York, an inhabitant of, or having left assets which then were, or have since come within the county of Oswego, died by means whereof the granting and granting administration for and singular the goods, chattels and credits of which the said intestate died possessed, and also the auditing, allowing and final discharging the accounts thereof as being with our county judge of the county of Oswego, have been duly rendered, that the goods, chattels and credits of the said intestate should be wisely and faithfully administered, applied and disposed of, we do grant unto you, the said Charity Osborne, full power by these presents, to administer and faithfully dispose of all and singular the said goods, chattels, rights, credits, and effects, which were the said intestate's, whether owing, owned, possessed and received by the said intestate, at the time of his death, and belonging and to pay the debts of the said intestate, so far as such goods, chattels and credits will extend, and the law requires; hereby requiring you to make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said intestate, within a reasonable time, and return or deliver a duplicate thereof, to our county judge of the county of Oswego, within three months from the date of these presents, and of further personal property or assets of any kind not mentioned in any inventory, that shall have come to your possession or knowledge, to make or cause to be made, in like manner, a true and perfect inventory thereof, within two months after discovery thereof.

And we do by these presents, appoint, constitute and appoint you, the said Charity Osborne, administratrix of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits which were of the said Henry Osborne, deceased.

In testimony whereof, we have caused the seal of the Surrogate's Court of our said county of Oswego, to be hereunto affixed.

L. S.

Witness, Orlando H. Wheeler, County judge of our said County of Oswego, at Mexico, in said county, the 26th day of March, A.D. 1849.

O. H. Wheeler,
County judge of Oswego County.
