Testament & Codicil of the real estate of John L. Barnhard deceased

Horace Hitchcock and Samuel Sedgwick both of Constantia in said county of Oswego, and Harry Bartlett of the Town of Fulton in the county of Oswego being duly sworn, deposeth and saith, that they each of them saw John L. Barnhard, now deceased, further testator on the 12th the instrument now shown to them & heard him acknowledge the same to be his hand and seal, and the paper to be his last will and Testament. The said instrument bearing date October Twenty fifth, one thousand eight hundred and thirty three and the said testator and they in the presence of each other did subscribe their names to the same instrument as witnesses thereto at the request of the said John L. Barnhard & in the presence of each other, and further that at the time the testator John L. Barnhard was of sound mind and memory, and of full age and under no restraint, and the deponents severally deposed

Horace Hitchcock
Harry Bartlett
Samuel Sedgwick

Subscribed and sworn this third day of March 1834 before me
Hordey Scrugatt

County of Oswego } ss.
Surrogate's Court }

In matter of proving the Codicil of the last Will & Testament of John L. Barnhard, deceased.

Samuel Sedgwick, Horace Hitchcock and Harry Bartlett all of Constantia, in said County of Oswego, being duly sworn do depose and say, that they each of them saw John L. Barnhard sign his name to the instrument now shown to them & heard the said John L. Barnhard acknowledge it to be a Codicil to his last will and Testament, which said instrument is dated the twenty sixth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and thirty three, and that the deponents did at the request of the said John L. Barnhard sign their names thereto as witnesses, and in the presence of each other. And further these deponents say that at the time there of the said John L. Barnhard was of sound mind and memory, and of full age, and under no restraint, and further these deponents say

Horace Hitchcock
Harry Bartlett
Samuel Sedgwick

Subscribed and sworn this third day of March 1834 before me
Hordey Scrugatt

First I resign my soul into the hands of Almighty God, hoping and believing in the remission of my sins by the merits and atonement of Jesus Christ, and my body I commit to the earth, to be buried at the discretion of my Executrix hereinafter named, and my worldly ~~estate~~ goods and devise as follows

First I give and devise unto my beloved wife Lucy all my real estate, consisting of Twenty one and a half acres of land, being the residue of lot number one hundred and fifty, in the tenth Town Scriba's Patent, as described in a Deed from George Parish to me bearing date 29th day of May 1828. the said real estate I devise her during the term of her natural life, or until a favorable opportunity occurs to sell the same to support my children during their minority

I also give and bequeath unto my eldest son Rufus R. one hundred Dollars out of my personal estate after paying my just and lawful debts, and the remainder of my personal estate should there be any, I give and bequeath unto my beloved wife Lucy. if there should not be sufficient of my personal estate to pay my debts, after deducting the hundred dollars, which I have bequeathed to my son Rufus R. then the deficiency I order and direct to be paid out of the avails of my real estate

And I do hereby constitute and appoint my said wife Lucy Turner Sole Executrix of this my last will and testament

In Witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal the twelfth day of December in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty three

William Turner L. S.

Signed sealed published and declared by the said Testator as and for his last will and Testament, in presence of us, who at his request, in his presence, and in presence of each other have subscribed our names as witnesses thereto

Nathan S. Palmer
John C. Nottage
Charles Pardusson

County of Oswego }
Surrogate's Court }

In the matter of proving the will of the real estate of William C. Turner Deceased

Nathan S. Palmer, John C. Nottage and Charles Pardusson