In the name of God Amen, I Amasa Stowell of Otsego do hereby make this my last will and testament as follows, viz. — First I direct that my executors shall give to my wife Susan all the household furniture which belonged to her at our marriage, & whatever any articles different in quality to make the same good to her in value, also to her one hundred dollars as soon as they enter upon the execution of this will —

I also direct that after my death my executors collect all debts due me, sell & dispose of all my personal property, & all my real estate, houses, lands & tenements & to give good and sufficient conveyances of the same, and after paying all my debts & charges against my estate, to divide the proceeds thereof in seven equal portions to be paid as follows, one to my daughter Nancy Stowell, one to my son Lewis, one to my son Rodman, one to my son Roderick M. two to my daughter Linda Johnson wife of Josiah Johnson, & one to my wife Susan, the portion to my said wife to be over & above what is above given to her, deducting from the portion of the said Nancy fifty dollars, & from that of the said Roderick M. the sum of twenty four dollars —

And it is further my will that in case my wife shall be unwilling in lieu of her claim of dower on my real estate, that the executors shall place on interest for her benefit the avails of one third of said real estate on the sale thereof, the income to be given to her during her life, & after her death the amount to be divided among the children above named in the proportions above specified.

I do hereby constitute & appoint John Grant & Samuel Stanley and Isaac Fisher executors of this my will — Dated this 6 of Decbr 1833 —

State of New York, County of Otsego, ss. — Be it remembered, that on the 18th day of March 1837, I, Nathan Sage, being of sound disposing mind and memory, do make and ordain this my last will and testament, in manner and form following, viz.

1st I will that all the real and personal estate of my deceased wife Polly Sage, wherever situate, shall be charged with the payment of any legal debts and my funeral & testamentary expenses, & which I direct my executors & executrix to pay, and distribute as soon as conveniently may be after my decease as hereinafter mentioned.

2d I will and direct that my wife Polly Sage, shall have all the property that belonged to her previous to her marriage with me, & also all that she has purchased since.

3d I have, in contemplating of some, my property, & wishes, my property & effects, in the disposal of my wife Polly Sage, to be divided and distributed by her as she may think proper among my friends.

4th I will and direct that all my real and personal estate, whenever it may be found, by what has been above received, shall be sold by my executors & executrix within three years after my decease, & upon such terms as it may regard credit for sale, as they in their discretion may deem best, & proceed to the division & distribution, and the avails thereof be divided by my executors & executrix between my daughter Harriet, wife of Alfred Morris of Hartford, Connecticut, & Polly Sage my wife, in the following manner, that is to say, the share of the former shall be given to my daughter Harriet aforesaid, and the remaining one third to my wife Polly Sage.

5th If any estate, both real and personal, after my debts paid and working out with such proceeds, shall remain in my hands, & not be disposed of in the manner
