I, Edward Crawdell, aged eighty three years and upwards, being desirous to discharge the duty which my station requires of me faithfully by making such provision for the distribution of my property as shall be just and equitable, do make, publish and declare this my last Will and Testament as follows.

First I direct that the expenses of my last sickness and of my funeral shall be paid out of my estate.

Second I give and bequeath unto my son John Crawdell (out of my estate) the sum of [illegible] dollars, with Edward, Josephine, Caroline Crawdell, Maria Crawdell, Manet Crawdell, Martha Ann Crawdell and Sarah Crawdell, with each of them the sum of forty dollars, and to Edward Crawdell the sum of eighty dollars, to be paid to them respectively as they attain the age of twenty one years, with interest on the same from one year after the first day of July next ensuing the date hereof.

And I order, direct and at my will that my Executor pay the same to them respectively out of my estate. If any one of them should die before they attain the age of twenty one years, then and in that case I order and direct that the legacy so made to the legatee so dying shall be divided share and share alike amongst the others of my said children, who may survive, but in case that there be none who may die and shall have attained full age, then and in that case I order and direct that the same be paid to such person, or to the guardian or other legal representative to be lawfully for the use and benefit of such person or persons entitled as aforesaid respectively.

Third The residue of the rest and every part of my estate to be used and [illegible] (if any there be) I give and bequeath unto my son John Crawdell, to be paid to him in his proper person, and for his sole use and benefit.

If he should not survive me I order and direct that my Will shall be deemed and taken to be in full force and effect as to the said Sons, share and share alike as they may attain the age of twenty one years.

Lastly I nominate and appoint my friend [illegible] Executor of this my last Will & Testament.
