[illegible] on the fifth day of April 184[illegible] by Amelia Green [illegible] of the Executors or the persons named in the last will & testament of Jedediah Green late of the Town of Volney in the county of Oswego deceased, appeared in open court before the Surrogate of said County of Oswego county and made affidavit that the said will and testament of said deceased & which states he [illegible] and [illegible] and [illegible] to the best of his knowledge, information & belief, the said testator died seized and possessed of the real estate described in said will, and that the said testator left surviving him the said widow, sons and heirs of him the said testator and their respective residences, and some of them appearing to be minors having no general guardian residing in the State of New York, [illegible] to be the case of their interests in the matter of proving the said will by an order entered for that purpose by the said County Judge, and said Judge did thereupon issue a citation in the form of law, directed to the said widow, sons and heirs of him and special guardian by their respective names, stating their respective places of residence, requiring them to appear before our said County Judge at his office in the Town of [illegible] on the second day of July then next to attend the probate of the said will, and afterwards to wit on the said second day of July the executor appeared and the matter standing for [illegible] adjourned to the twelfth day of November then next, and on that day satisfactory evidence being produced and presented to said Judge of the service of the said citation in the mode prescribed by law, and on that day no one appearing to oppose the probate of said will, such proceedings were thereupon had, afterwards that the said Judge took the proofs of the said will hereinafter set forth, upon this twelfth day of November A.D. 1849, and he adjudged the said will to be a valid will of real and personal estate and he proofs thereof to be sufficient, which said said will and testament and the proofs are as follows, that is to say:

In the Name of God Amen! I Jedediah Green of the Town of Volney in the County of Oswego and State of New York, of the age of fifty two years and being of sound mind and memory do make publish and declare this my last will and testament in manner following that is to say:

First. I give and bequeath to my son Jedediah Green and my son Jeremiah Green my farm of land consisting of [illegible] in Swamp [illegible] Containing by estimation thirty