Oswego Surrogate Court
In the matter of proving the last will and testament of Jedediah Green deceased

Oswego County ss: George B. Markham of the town of Volney in the County of Oswego being duly sworn and examined before Orlando F. Whitney County Judge of Oswego County doth depose and say that he this deponent was well acquainted with Jedediah Green late of the town of Palermo in the County of Oswego, now deceased. That this deponent was present as a witness, and did see the said Jedediah Green subscribe at the end thereof the instrument now produced and shown to this deponent purporting to be a last will and testament of the said deceased bearing date the 26th. day of December in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight. That the said testator at the same time declared the instrument so subscribed by him to be his last will and testament. That thereupon this deponent and Horace A. Esquires subscribed their names at the end thereof as witnesses thereto at the request of the testator in his presence and that the said testator at the time of executing and publishing the said last will and testament was a citizen of the United States of full age and ~~of sound mind and memory and under no restraint~~ and was in all respects competent to make a last will and testament. And this deponent further says that he received the said will from the deceased immediately after it was signed and witnessed and retained it in my possession until he [illegible] by me delivered to Lucretia Green the widow of the deceased to hand over for probate and that since the will has been and remains in the same state without alteration or change and another says not.
