Last Will and Testament of

John Eno

DECEASED.

Be it Remembered, That heretofore, to wit: on the 4th day of June in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and Sixty
Robert J. Shields
Executor named in the Last Will and Testament and Codicil of John Eno late of the ~~Town of~~ City of Oswego in the County of Oswego deceased, appeared in open Court, before the Surrogate of the County of Oswego and made application to have the said Last Will and Testament and Codicil which relates to both Real and Personal Estate, proved: and on such application the said Surrogate did ascertain, by satisfactory evidence, who were the children heirs at law and next of kin of the said testator, and their respective residences.

and said Surrogate did thereupon issue a Citation, in due form of law, directed to the children heirs at law and next of kin by their respective names, stating their respective places of residence, requiring them to appear before said Surrogate at his office in the Village of Pulaski in said County, on the 30 day of July A. D. 1860, to attend the Probate of said Will.

The heirs were duly appointed from time to time & times

And afterwards, to wit: on the 26th day of October A. D. 1861, satisfactory evidence by affidavit was produced and presented to said Surrogate, of the due service of said Citation in the mode prescribed by law, and on that day, no one appearing to oppose the Probate of such Will and proceedings were thereupon had in said Court, afterwards, that the said Surrogate took the proofs of said Will hereinafter set forth, upon this 26th day of Oct A. D. 1861, and he thereupon adjudged the said Will and Codicil to be a valid Will and Codicil of Real and Personal Estate, and the proofs thereof to be sufficient, which said Last Will and Testament and Codicil, and proofs, are as follows, that is to say:

WILL.

I John Eno of the City and County of Oswego and State of New York do hereby make ordain and declare this my last Will and Testament.

First I give and bequeath unto my beloved wife Mary Ann Eno all my Real Estate situate in the City and County of Oswego together with all the rents issues and profits thereof to have
