AN EDITORIAL

Look at Long Island
It's a Great Picture

WE HAVE received the state of Long Island's information and have found it amusing.
You'll find the results of this survey in a special section of your newspaper. We're sure you will read it, for it is a fascinating story of a truly fabulous and amazing island.
When we talk about Long Island, we mean that island which is a part of the great New York City area. It is the largest island in New York State and the tenth largest island in the United States.

OUR population (3,000,000 in the three Long Island counties) is larger than that of 32 of the 48 states. If Long Island were a separate state, it would be the 34th largest state in the United States.

Taxes—The average homeowner on Long Island is now paying less than $6,600 in taxes. Our Long Island residents are among the lowest tax-paying residents in the nation.

Business and Industry—Long Island is a center of commerce and industry. We have over 1,000 businesses on Long Island and they employ more than 50,000 people. We have over 500 factories on Long Island and they employ more than 25,000 people. We have over 1,000 markets on Long Island and they employ more than 10,000 people.

Education—We have over 1,000 schools on Long Island and they employ more than 50,000 people. We have over 1,000 teachers on Long Island and they employ more than 25,000 people.

Health Care—We have over 1,000 hospitals on Long Island and they employ more than 50,000
people. We have over 1,000 doctors on Long Island and they employ more than 25,000 people.

Our story—We tell the story of Long Island as it becomes a truly amazing and wonderful island.

Look at Long Island, you'll be amazed.