requiring me to remain a single girl by the maids and maidens of Jesus Christ; and my body should still be entitled to the discretion of my Executrix hereinafter mentioned; And my worldly Estate I give and devise as follows.

First I give and devise all my Real Estate being part of the Family farm (85) Eighty and Five acres as the same is laid out on the 85 Acres of the farm (12) Twelve acres of which I have received the appurtenances and conditions, and Still remains according to a survey made by Mr Samuel Gardiner Surveyor 32 rod near to my Dwelling house. I give and bequeath all my personal property consisting of Stock, Crops, Implements and all my farming utensils; I give and bequeath unto Philip Rice and my household furniture and lastly all the rest of my personal property, goods and Chattels, Money, Bills, Bonds & obligations, Plate or other Securities of whatsoever nature or kind soever (after my funeral expenses) I hereby give and bequeath and my executor hereinafter named unto Philip Rice and for no other benefit, absolutely forever, upon the trust hereinafter mentioned, I hereby revoking all former Wills by me made.

In Witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal the Eighteenth day of April

June Twelfth 1819. Rebecca Woodward

This instrument or Will consisting of one Sheet is signed, sealed published and declared by the Testatrix named & stated, as and for her last Will and Testament, in our presence who at her request, in her presence and in the presence of each other have subscribed our names as witnesses thereto.

Philip Rice West Monroe Orange County N.Y.

William Mills West Monroe Orange County N.Y.