EGYPT MOVES TO RULE GAZA

March Here, But Not Playground

Protests UN Firing On Rioters

Cairo announced today that President Gamal Abdul Nasser would take over the Gaza strip, the last area of the British Mandate that Egypt had not seized. After the United Nations Security Council met in emergency session last night, the United States, Canada, India and Turkey were reported continuing today. A source close to Secretay General Dag Hammarskjold said the council was expected to resume sending Fedayeen and U.N. forces to the area early tomorrow.
