AT A DISTANCE—Officials of the Queens County Aquarium Society watch Hall in Astoria. The male Siamese fish are never together because they would people attended.

CITATION—Vincent E. Stanzione, president of the Flushing Community Am­

This view into a model CD shelter shows two important things: A good stock ATTACK—Worried by the police, the man Shipman之路 by his horse on a long ride.

water are 'Musts'

By LEONARD VICTOR

be a feature of the new Astoria Park. The board set Oct. 13 as the date for public hearings on acquisition of 200 acres and the widening of the Grand Central parkway for public hearings on acquisition of 200 acres and the widening of the Grand Central parkway.

LONG ISLAND STAR-JOURNAL

LONG ISLAND, N. Y., SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 23, 1961

Board OK Given More Fair Projects

The Board of Estimate has given approval to nine projects dealing with the 1961-65 World's Fair in Flushing Park. In addition, there were eight projects approved in connection with the widening of the Grand Central parkway. The board approved the following projects:

- Construction of a 20-inch transmission line at an estimated cost of $100,000. The project will be undertaken by the New York City Water Supply Department.
- The expansion of Flushing Meadow Park, including improvements to the Queens area, which will require an estimated $55,000. The project will be undertaken by the New York City Parks Department.
- The construction of a new public school in the Glendale area, which will require an estimated $20,000. The project will be undertaken by the New York City Board of Education.
- The construction of a new public housing project in the Flushing area, which will require an estimated $20,000. The project will be undertaken by the New York City Housing Authority.
- The construction of a new public park in the Flushing area, which will require an estimated $20,000. The project will be undertaken by the New York City Parks Department.
- The construction of a new public school in the Flushing area, which will require an estimated $20,000. The project will be undertaken by the New York City Board of Education.
- The construction of a new public housing project in the Flushing area, which will require an estimated $20,000. The project will be undertaken by the New York City Housing Authority.
- The construction of a new public park in the Flushing area, which will require an estimated $20,000. The project will be undertaken by the New York City Parks Department.
- The construction of a new public school in the Flushing area, which will require an estimated $20,000. The project will be undertaken by the New York City Board of Education.

SHELTER CHECKLIST

The "Shepherd's delight" is a shelter that will accommodate up to 20 people. It is a small, portable shelter that can be set up quickly and easily. The shelter is made of lightweight materials and can be set up in just a few minutes. It is designed to provide protection from the elements and can be used in a variety of situations. The "Shepherd's delight" is a great choice for people who need a simple, convenient shelter that can be set up quickly and easily. It is lightweight and easy to transport, making it a great choice for situations where space and weight are a concern.