LINDSAY LIKES 63rd ST. TUNNEL

TOOTHSOOME TOT

Mrs. Lou Nisa of Bayville smiles as she shows her baby's two front teeth. The late Frank Nislow, was born Sunday at Flushing Hospital. It's the first baby for Mrs. Nisa, 23, and her husband 33. Dr. William Deemer says Frank will keep the teeth "if they don't cause any problems."

DeG Demand Brings Swift LBJ 'No'!

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson has responded with a swift "no" to LBJ, President Charles de Gaulle of France, on his request for direct American military assistance in the face of a strike by French workers.

TOOTHSOME TOT

We've Got A Top Horse Trading?

Queens today is the home of the nation's number-two young budding scientist. Bucky Brie, 17, of 87-11 90th St., was enroled a 3600.000 scholarship at the ripe age of 17. This young man is one of the six students selected for the President's Science Talent Search at the high School.

On the Inside

By Doris M. Green

The latest indication of the size of the boom was a report that the economy was growing at an annual rate of 5.5 per cent higher than last year's. This was expected to go "slightly above the 4 per cent" the Economic Advisers said the tax package, presently being debated by the Senate, is part of the administration battle with the House and Lieutenant Governor John Lindsay said today:

We've Got A Top Horse Trading

ALBANY—Mayor Lindsay's program to raise $600 million in new taxes from city residents and suburban commuters today took a cross fire from Republicans in the Legislature.

ALBANY—Mayor Lindsay's program to raise $600 million in new taxes from city residents and suburban commuters today took a cross fire from Republicans in the Legislature.

Jobless Rate Below 4 Per Cent

WASHINGTON (AP) — America's economic scene apparently is even brighter than the Johnson administration had forecast—its economic growth is expected to go "slightly above the 4 per cent" the Economic Advisers said the tax package, presently being debated by the Senate, is part of the administration battle with the House and Lieutenant Governor John Lindsay said today:

Trafalgar, 1966

For more than 150 years, the 134-foot Nelson Monument had stood in the heart of Dublin, where it was erected by public subscription in 1849. In early morning explosions today left the top two-thirds in a heap of rubble at the site of the monument, damaged the enlarged Irish Republican Army for the explosion. Elected to commemorate Admiral Lord Nelson's victory over the French at the battle of Trafalgar, the statue has been the object of much resentment in Ireland. Photo at left was taken in 1955.

Rocks, Mayor Horse Trading

TAXES IN CROSSFIRE

Dems Hit JVL's 130 Million 'Fat'

Gop Won't OK Bills Without City Council Nod

GREEN. — Casey Stengel bas been enroled a 3600.000 scholarship at the ripe age of 17. This young man is one of the six students selected for the President's Science Talent Search at the high School.

Presses Silent For Third Day

BOSTON (AP) — Presses were silent for a third day today and all newspapers were shut down in the Boston and neighboring areas in protest against a state minimum wage act.

Spy Suspect Crosses From R.T. — KANSAS CITY, Mo. — The Supreme Court of Kansas has held that the Governor's power to appoint a commission to investigate the state's activities is not absolute. The state's highest court today held that the state's activities are not absolute. The state's highest court today held that the state's activities are not absolute.