IN GROTON, New York, home of one of the world's largest typewriter factories, a pair of famous literary hands tap out a comfortable living on one of the products of the village's chief industry.

The major share of the typewriter output of George Saphyrge Brooks goes to the Saturday Evening Post.

Dr. Thomas M. Tryniski
309 South 4th Street
Fulton New York
13069
www.fultonhistory.com