Free Flour And Clothing Given To 21,660 Families

Red Cross Also Distributed Cotton Cloth To Poor Throughout County

WHITE PLAINS, Feb. 12—Red Cross distribution of Government flour and clothing to needy families in this county reached a total of 21,660 families today, it was revealed in White Plains yesterday by Mrs. C. A. Britton, Red Cross County executive. In all, 1,060,000 pounds of Government flour was distributed in the county, while 24,000 yards of clothing were given. These figures were arrived at in a survey of the Red Cross sales and distributions in the county. In the past year, 18,000 families in the county were given a total of 1,500,000 pounds of Government flour and clothing.

Yesterday Red Cross kept all food centers open during the day and night to meet the demand for Government flour and clothing. At the same time the Red Cross is headquarters for the Salvation Army and the National Catholic War Council. In a joint effort, the Red Cross, Salvation Army, and National Catholic War Council distributed 4,000 pounds of Government flour in the county yesterday. The Salvation Army and the National Catholic War Council, in addition to their regular activities, are under the supervision of the Red Cross county executive.

The figures on the Red Cross food distribution represent the total number of families distributed Government flour and clothing by the Red Cross this year. The number of families distributed Government flour and clothing by the Salvation Army and the National Catholic War Council represent the total number of families distributed by these organizations in the county.

The fact that the Red Cross is in charge of the food distribution is a tremendous help to the county in its efforts to meet the needs of the people. The Red Cross is in a position to distribute the food to the needy families in a more efficient manner than any other organization. The Red Cross is also in a position to distribute the food to the needy families in a more equitable manner than any other organization.
