CONGRESS HURRYING
TO ADJOURN TODAY

Members Too Eager to Go Home to Complete Action on Housing—Decrease Speeds End of Barren Session.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21 (U. P.).—An administration drive to complete action on the housing measure in the special session collapsed today as the movement of Congress by sightseers appeared possible.

Labor Opposition: The House Labor Committee, which reported the measure this morning, adjourned without making a final vote on the bill to attempt a conference with the Senate to reconcile the differences between the two houses.
