Tribe Hurlers All in Fold as Wynn Comes to Terms

Avila, Philley Still On Holdout List; Nats' Vernon Signs

By SHELDON SAKOWITZ
The Associated Press

Since pitching usually is the predominant factor in the success of a pennant-winner, the Cleveland Indians had good reason today to sit back and survey their mound outlook for the coming season.

All the Tribe hurlers were in the fold as veteran Early Wynn, a perennial holdout, came to terms Sunday. The hard-working righthander signed a contract for about $40,000.

Terms were not disclosed by General Manager Hank Greenberg, who still has two recalcitrants to contend with—second baseman Bobby Avila and outfielder Dave Philley.

Wynn said, "You can say it ended in a draw. He (Greenberg) gave in a little and so did I."

The Indians, the American League flag winners last season, received some great work from their "Big Four" and the club again seems to abound in pitching potential for the 1955 campaign.

Wynn and Bob Lemon were the mainstays last season, winning 23 apiece, while Mike Garcia accounted for 19 victories and Art Houtteman contributed 15. The quartet combined for 80 of Cleveland's 111 triumphs.

Veterans Bob Feller (13) and Hal Newhouser (7) and rookie relievers Don Mossi (6) and Ray Narleski (3) also will be back on the scene, hoping to duplicate their 1954 success.

But Cleveland also is expecting another pitcher, who wasn't even with the Indians last season, to be a big asset to the club. He is Herb Score, a 21-year-old, strapping lefthander who compiled a 22-5 record for Indianapolis. He also was voted the American Assn.'s Most Valuable Player.

Other happenings around the spring training circuit:

Mickey Vernon of the Washington Senators terminated his holdout by signing for a reported $26,500. Manager Chuck Dressen, however, indicated that he may alternate the 36-year-old Vernon with Roy Sievers at first base . . . General Manager Herold (Muddy) Ruel of the Detroit Tigers disclosed he was on the prowl for a second baseman. The Tigers have only two second sackers in camp — Fred Hatfield and Reno Bertoia . . . With Ted Kluszewski of the Cincinnati Redlegs pinch-hitting safely for both sides, big Klu's team edged the Gus Bells 3-1 in an intra-squad game.

Rookies Bob Zick and Joe Stanka and veteran Bubba Church pitched shutout ball as the Blades blanked the Leonards 5-0 in a Chicago Cub intra-squad game . . . Walt Dropo, hoping to plug the Chicago White Sox' first base gap, hit a homer and two singles in the Sox intra-squad contest. . . . Manager Mike (Pinky) Higgins of the Boston Red Sox was impressed with the pitching of young Dick Brodowski, who served in the Army last season. . . . Outfielder Harry Elliott was being counted on by St. Louis Cardinal Manager Eddie Stanky for some extra hitting punch to make up for the loss of Ray Jablonski's bat.

Third baseman Jim Finigan delivered three hits and rookie southpaw Carl Duser allowed just one hit in three scoreless innings to highlight the Kansas City Athletics' first intra-squad game. . . . Branch Rickey, an old hand at switching players around, has four first basemen on the Pittsburgh Pirates' roster and three of them have been used in the outfield. Army returnee Tony Bartirome is the exception.

Home runs by Willie Mays and Whitey Lockman sparked the New York Giants regulars to a 9-8 victory over the rookies. . . . Bill Bruton belted an inside-the-park homer with two men on base as the regulars tied the scrubs 4-4 in an intra-squad game at the Milwaukee Braves' camp.

Comets Lose Final Game To Baltimore

By ED ATWATER
(Hockey Writer for the Baltimore Sun)

BALTIMORE — The hockey season for the Clinton Comets ended as they bowed 5-1 to the Baltimore Clippers last night at Carlin's Iceland, dropping their Eastern League semi-final play-off series, three games to one.

Baltimore, which finished fourth in the league standings while Clinton won the pennant, will now face the winner of the Washington-New Haven series.

Last night's game was the 74th for the Clinton sextet which won 35, lost 35 and tied four. Ed Stanley, manager of the Clinton Arena, said last night that the team would return to Clinton and disband. The final hockey activity will be the completion of the "Beat the Chill" campaign at the opening night of the annual ice show, Mar. 25.

Gerry Sullivan, who scored two goals for Baltimore in each of the first two games of the series in Clinton, was the scoring ace for the Clippers again last night, as he potted three tallies. The lone Clinton marker came in the third period and was scored by Angie Defelice.

The Clinton squad was augmented for the final game by Greg Batt whose Hamilton College team was in action Saturday night. Batt flew to Baltimore yesterday to take his place in the starting lineup.

The largest Baltimore crowd of the season, 2,214, applauded Sullivan for his three-goal hat trick.

The rampaging Clippers rolled up a 3-0 lead before the visitors came through with their lone goal early in the third period.

A key score that appeared to break Clinton's back came in the second period. With two Comets and a Clipper in the penalty box, the local club, moving to the attack in slow, deliberate fashion came through with the goal just three seconds before the sides were even.

It was one of the few times this season that the Clippers were able to take advantage of an extra man situation. Bibber O'Hearn, Saturday's star with three goals, bore down fast on Goalie Doug Coxon, faked a shot and flipped the puck to Sullivan on the left side and he stuck it into the net.

That made it 2 to 0 and Clinton then seemed to slack off a little although there were some anxious moments for local fans.

Just after the third period opened, Bob Taylor and Defelice combined to make it 2-1 in a play that looked amazingly easy. Taylor passed across the ice to Defelice, who faked Goal Grant Butler out and slipped the puck past the goalie's sitting form. But Hervie LaLonde got that one right back for the Clippers as he stole the puck from a defenseman directly in front of the Comets net. Coxon had no chance to make a move for LaLonde's hard shot that went over his right shoulder.

Sullivan got his third counter with less than three minutes left in the game. He took the puck over the blue line, slipped to Gordie Warner on the right side and then took Warner's return pass at the left corner and jammed it into the nets before Coxon could shift over.

It looked like O'Hearn was at it again when he opened the scoring in the first period. He got around the defense on the right and then angled a shot into the left corner.

In the second period, three players went to the box at the same time. Ed St. Louis and Marv Thomson were sent off for roughing while Jack Timmins left for cross checking which had no relation to the other battle.

Sullivan's persistence paid off to put the Clippers into a 2-0 lead with 57 seconds to play in the second period. He kept hammering at the puck at Coxon's feet and finally it trickled in.

SHOOTING FROM CHAIR—Don Kennedy of the Bulova Watchmakers lets go with a shot in a bid for two points in yesterday's wheelchair game at UFA against the Jersey Wheelers. Converging on the play are a trio of Wheelers, from the left, Vince Wagner, Jack Gerhardt and Earl Skinner.

Wheelers Down Bulova In DAV-Sponsored Tilt

By BOB McNALLY

Basketball, in wheelchairs, as exhibited by the Bulova Watchmakers and the Jersey Wheelers before a disappointing crowd of about 500 fans at the UFA gym yesterday, proved to be as exciting and interesting as any performed by the more fortunate players who have the use of their limbs.

The Jersey Wheelers after being behind most of the contest came through in the last quarter to edge the Watchmakers 31-27. Pete Yorkus, Jersey paraplegia, led the winners with 14 markers although the hero of the contest was Jack Gerhardt, who played with the original paraplegia team at Halloran Hospital, as he brought his mates from a 27-28 deficit in the final seven minutes of play scoring five points to ice the game for the Wheelers. Billy Kennedy, Bulova speedster, garnered 12 for the losers.

The paraplegia veterans amazed the fans with their unusual accuracy in shooting and the execution of their plays. Each team set up defenses with the chairs that often proved hard to penetrate.

The Kennedy's, Billy and Don, gave the Watchmakers a 5-0 lead in the first two minutes. Bill made good on two set shots while Don added a free throw. The Wheelers found the Bulova defense quite tight as time and again their chances of scoring were thwarted by the Watchmakers. Yorkus managed to get two goals for the winners in the first period but that was all and at the end of the canto Bulova lead 12-4.

The Watchmakers were unable to do any scoring in the second quarter's first eight minutes as the Wheelers with Yorkus and Vince Wagner, who lost his left leg due to shrapnel wounds, doing the brunt of the point making. At the 8:00 mark Maurice Brooks put the Watchmakers back in command as he swished the cords with a set shot. Bill Kennedy and Tom Davis increased the margin and at the half Pete Toakim dunked one as the horn sounded, making the count read 17-14 Bulova.

The program was sponsored by the Disabled American Veterans under capable handling of Mike Marrone, commander, and Peter Reglan, who served as chairman. Proceeds will be used to further rehabilitation and services of the physically handicapped. A donation also was made to the Mohawk Valley Workshop for the Handicapped and accepted by its chairman, Edward Nagel. Ralph Allinger served as announcer and introduced Ben Lipton, Watchmaker mentor, and Bob Plump, Wheelers guiding hand. Mayor Golder threw up the first ball.

In the last period the lead changed hands twice before Gerhardt tossed in a two pointer to give the Wheelers a lead which they never relinquished. The performance of all the players was loudly applauded as the plucky cagers fought right down to the last whistle as the paraplegics asked no quarter and gave none [illegible] proved to be well worth the viewing.

Western Title Is Clinched By Ft. Wayne

By The Associated Press

Rookie Coach Charley Eckman, who jumped out of the frying pan and into the fire when he gave up refereeing to become a National Basketball Assn. coach at Fort Wayne, has scored in his first season.

Eckman came home with the bacon Sunday when his Pistons clinched the Western Division championship, even though they lost to Boston 108-104.

While his old pals among the referees and rival coaches around the league whispered "wait and see," Eckman held loose reins on his club and watched them win.

The Pistons, a third place outfit last season, dethroned the powerful Minneapolis Lakers, who were eliminated Sunday when they lost to Milwaukee 100-96 on their home floor.

Syracuse, which has already grabbed the Eastern Division crown, ran up its seventh straight victory with a 107-101 verdict over Philadelphia. The largest crowd of the season at Syracuse — 7,114 — saw the game.

Boston broke a three-game losing streak to upset the Pistons and improve their playoff chances which were in decline.

The New York Knicks, fighting to hold second place in the East, lagged 16 points behind Rochester before they turned it on and rode past the Royals for a 101-96 triumph.

How much is STOP-and-GO driving hurting your engine?

Stop-and-Go! One of today's biggest troublemakers! Changing engine temperatures cause water, acid, and sludge to form. These by-products produce rust, pit metals, gum up valves and valve lifters. Two symptoms are sluggishness and motor knocking. If you're a stop-and-go driver, you need Alemite CD-2.

Alemite CD-2
Backed by one of the most famous names in lubrication

Alemite CD-2 improves motor operation as soon as you add it to your motor. Your car runs smoother, quieter. Your engine has new power, longer life. And CD-2 does other special jobs, too—preventing rust, dissolving sludge, improving lubrication. In effect, Alemite CD-2 gives your engine a complete on-the-road tune-up.

Try CD-2 without risking a penny! See how it smooths out the sound—and power in your motor. Then, next time you drain your oil, watch thick sludge wash out. If you're not satisfied that CD-2 does all we promise, your money will be refunded.
