$500,000 Francis Lewis HS Athletic Field Delayed

Court action initiated by disqualified contractors is causing delay in progress of 23 school projects, among them the completion of the half-million dollar Francis Lewis High School athletic field. The field, at North Hempstead Tpk. and Fresh Meadows Ln., is a wide-open lot which is being used for dumping. Besides, the athletic facilities are badly needed by the school teams.

The restraining orders were issued by Judge Louis L. Friedman upon the petition of Caristo Construction Corp., Mars Associations, Inc., and Norman Construction Corp., and by Judge Thomas E. Morrissey at the request of H. Norman Co., Inc.

A resolution has been offered to the Board of Education by Dr. John J. Theobald, superintendent of schools, to abandon fee-supported recreational and educational activities in the city schools. It failed, these self-sustaining projects will be dropped in 1968.

The resolution is being opposed by many groups, including the Clearview Gardens Community Council, which sponsors a camp at 78 St. and Mrs. Shuster Weisberger, head of the Day Camp Advisory Council at 78 St. Construction on the playground adjoining 78 St. is expected to start the end of this month and be completed in the spring. The Board of Education and Park Department will share supervision.

Theodore Langbaum, principal of HS 188, has been associated with a committee of principals which has produced the first edition of a desk calendar calculated to simplify procedures and forms and coordinate administrative responsibilities.
