Police pluck rose tattoo

By MAGGIE RAYNER

Linda Mastrian, 24, was convicted Thursday afternoon of her fifth larceny in the Bronx. The theft occurred in Cozy's Restaurant on 167th Street between St. Lawrence Avenue and Malcolm X Boulevard. She was out on bail when she burgled Cozy's, the 7th Precinct said. The restaurant was closed at the time of the theft and no one was injured.

Under the terms of the plea bargain, she will have to pay $2000 in restitution and serve 1 year in jail at the Manhattan House of Correction. The maximum sentence could be up to 12 months in jail and a fine of $500, the State Department of Correction said. The plea bargain was reached after a 3-month trial.

Funding coup creates hundreds of new jobs

The economic forecast for a large manufacturing firm in W. 39th Ave. area, where the company's facilities are located, is bright. The company is planning a major expansion, which will include the construction of a new plant and the hiring of additional workers. The expansion will be completed by the end of the year, the company said.

CSB 10 OKs 20% budget as layoffs looming

Community School Board 10 has unanimously approved the budget for the 1980-81 school year. The board voted 10-0 to approve a 20% reduction in the district's budget, which was proposed by the chancellor of the New York City Board of Education.

Local schools prepare to open as immigration drive nears end

Public school registration will begin next week. Parents and guardians are urged to register their children as soon as possible to ensure a smooth transition to the new school year. The registration process will be available at all public schools in the district.

Inside you'll find:

- Old problems still plague Conrail riders
- Stadiums of Baroque at last
- Good transportation
- Detailed downzoning approved
- Storey and Halbur
- Summer in the City

To some they're creepy, but to local store owners they're beautiful. This is the first time in the city that a company has offered a 20% discount on all school supplies. The company is hoping to increase sales by offering this special discount.

An innovative dance teacher, an unusual program, what the well-dressed little boy will wear are just some of the articles this week's issue of the Riverdale Press will cover. The newspaper will be available at all major stores in the area.