Residents of “Broadway Canyon” Conquer a Mountain

This striking picture of the Czarina, seated, and her four beautiful daughters was taken recently. From left to right they are: Grand Duchess Olga, born November 15, 1895; Grand Duchess Tatiana, born June 10, 1897; Grand Duchess Anastasia, born June 18, 1901, and Grand Duchess Maria, born June 26, 1899.

New Fields of Endeavor for the Self-Supporting Woman

S

PEND by the high cost of living, the young woman today is developing fresh versatility in methods of earning her livelihood. New fields of endeavor are opening up, and a woman enjoys an advantage over many men in her ability to make the best use of her time and energy.

A trained nurse writes newspaper and magazine articles, as well as contributing to the literature of her profession. She finds a ready market for her services in treating the sick and infirm, and her work is frequently translated into foreign languages.

A stenographer, whose working hours are flexible, can meet the demands of a busy schedule. She is able to work from home, and her services are in great demand. She finds a ready market for her work in the publishing industry, and her earnings are often sufficient to support her family.

A writer finds a ready market for her work in the literary world. She is able to write on a wide variety of topics, and her work is frequently published in magazines and newspapers. She finds a ready market for her work in the publishing industry, and her earnings are often sufficient to support her family.

A photographer finds a ready market for her work in the photographic field. She is able to work on a wide variety of projects, and her work is frequently published in magazines and newspapers. She finds a ready market for her work in the publishing industry, and her earnings are often sufficient to support her family.

A musician finds a ready market for her work in the musical field. She is able to perform in a variety of settings, and her work is frequently published in magazines and newspapers. She finds a ready market for her work in the publishing industry, and her earnings are often sufficient to support her family.

A painter finds a ready market for her work in the art field. She is able to work on a wide variety of projects, and her work is frequently published in magazines and newspapers. She finds a ready market for her work in the publishing industry, and her earnings are often sufficient to support her family.

When the mosquitoes bite, don’t seek relief in VELOGEN.

Vanity Bags de Luxe

In All Shades, 8¢ 12¢

Bridge Prizes

At your drug store.