

A Weekly Feature

A Chance "To Talk"

A new, weekly feature in the Community Newspapers, the "Town Talk" camera will travel to communities throughout our circulation area.

This week "Town Talk" is in the Jamesville-DeWitt School District. The question: "What special plans do you have for St. Patrick's Day?"

Over the course of the next few weeks, "Town Talk" will travel to every community in our circulation area... Skaneateles, Cazenovia, Marcellus, Chittenango, Minoa. Sooner or later, you'll see us.

Over the course of the next few weeks, "Town Talk" will travel to every community in our circulation area... Skaneateles, Cazenovia, Marcellus, Chittenango, Minoa. Sooner or later, you'll see us.

We've got lots of super questions: "Do you think our religious holidays have become too commercial?" Or: "Do you think the school district spends enough money on extra-curricular activities?" Give us your ideas.

"Town Talk" editors Bridget Colabello and Tim Sinnenberg look forward to your comments and suggestions. When it comes to "Town Talk," we're all ears!

TOWN TALK

QUESTION: "What are your special plans for St. Patrick's Day?"

The following students were interviewed at Jamesville-DeWitt High School:

Alex Vojta
Junior

"I plan to go to the parade and drink green shamrock shakes at McDonalds."

Adrienne Strache
Senior

"I'm leaving for the Florida Keys on St. Patrick's Day. I'm not Irish, but I'll wear green on my flight."

Matt Camp
Junior

"I'm going to take my mom to dinner since we're both 100% Irish. I'd also like to taste green beer."

Michelle Veazey
Freshman

"I'll dress up in green and go out with my friends."

Tom Comerford
Senior

"I'd like to go back to Ireland and celebrate. Unfortunately, the plane ticket is pretty steep so I'll have dinner at Coleman's with my family."

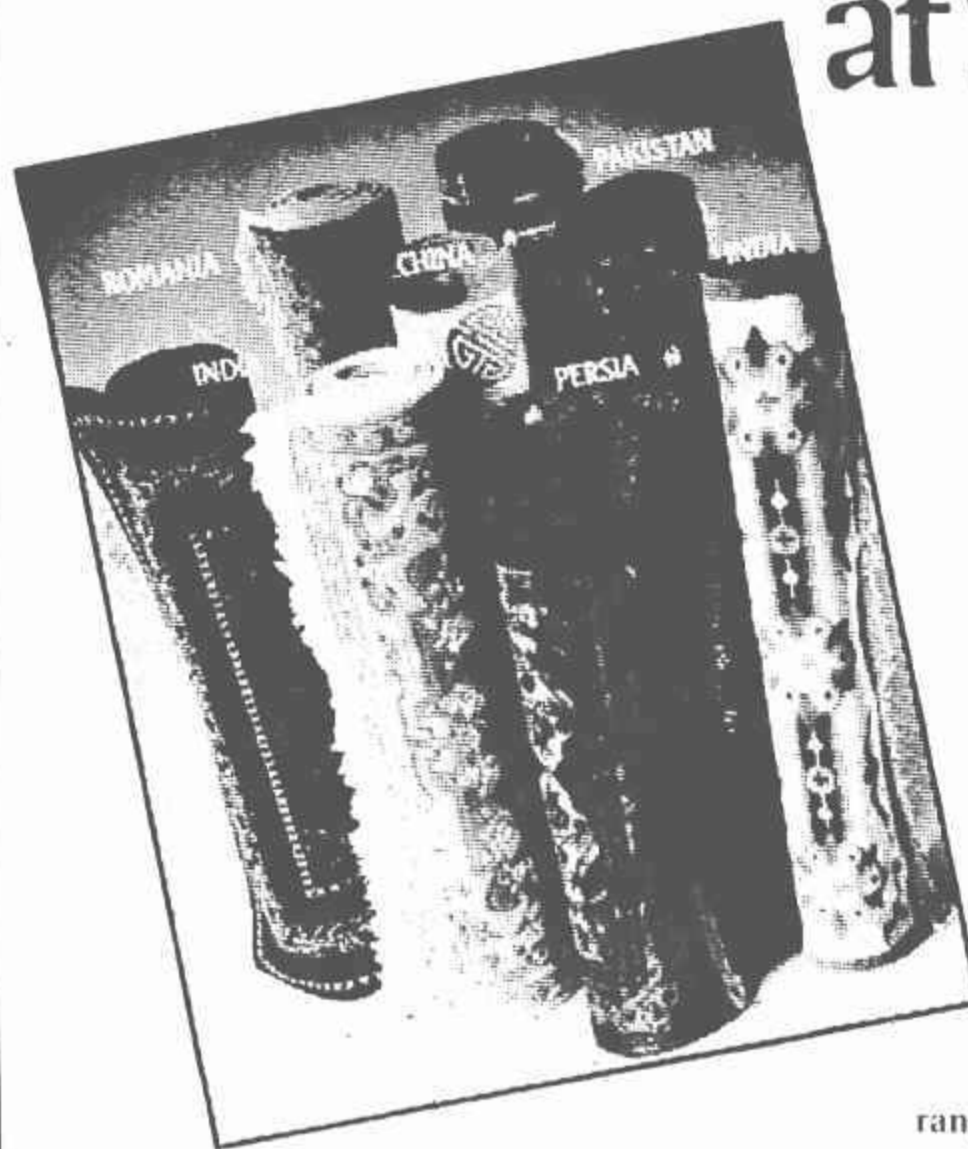

Mr. Robert Daley
Earth Science Teacher

"I'll spend St. Patrick's Day at a Science Olympiad at LeMoyne College with 15 of our students who have entered the competition."

NEXT WEEK: Town Talk travels to Skaneateles. The question: "Do you think religious holidays have become too commercial?"
