Vatican Paper Hits Charges Against Archbishop Beran

Vatican City, July 27—(AP)—Osservatore Romano, Vatican City, today charged against Archbishop Beran of Czechoslovakia with having been plotting against the church in his country, which has been dominated by the Communists since 1948. The charge was made in the newspaper run by the Vatican Press Office.

The charge was made amidst growing concern over the threat of a Communist coup in Czechoslovakia, which is a member of the Warsaw Pact. The outbreak of violence in Prague in May of this year was followed by the secession of the new government of Czechoslovakia, which was backed by the Soviet Union.

The charge was made in the newspaper run by the Vatican Press Office.

Vatican Paper Hits Charges Against Archbishop Beran

Vatican City, July 27—(AP)—Osservatore Romano, Vatican City, today charged against Archbishop Beran of Czechoslovakia with having been plotting against the church in his country, which has been dominated by the Communists since 1948. The charge was made in the newspaper run by the Vatican Press Office.

The charge was made amidst growing concern over the threat of a Communist coup in Czechoslovakia, which is a member of the Warsaw Pact. The outbreak of violence in Prague in May of this year was followed by the secession of the new government of Czechoslovakia, which was backed by the Soviet Union.

The charge was made in the newspaper run by the Vatican Press Office.

Vatican Paper Hits Charges Against Archbishop Beran

Vatican City, July 27—(AP)—Osservatore Romano, Vatican City, today charged against Archbishop Beran of Czechoslovakia with having been plotting against the church in his country, which has been dominated by the Communists since 1948. The charge was made in the newspaper run by the Vatican Press Office.

The charge was made amidst growing concern over the threat of a Communist coup in Czechoslovakia, which is a member of the Warsaw Pact. The outbreak of violence in Prague in May of this year was followed by the secession of the new government of Czechoslovakia, which was backed by the Soviet Union.

The charge was made in the newspaper run by the Vatican Press Office.

Vatican Paper Hits Charges Against Archbishop Beran

Vatican City, July 27—(AP)—Osservatore Romano, Vatican City, today charged against Archbishop Beran of Czechoslovakia with having been plotting against the church in his country, which has been dominated by the Communists since 1948. The charge was made in the newspaper run by the Vatican Press Office.

The charge was made amidst growing concern over the threat of a Communist coup in Czechoslovakia, which is a member of the Warsaw Pact. The outbreak of violence in Prague in May of this year was followed by the secession of the new government of Czechoslovakia, which was backed by the Soviet Union.

The charge was made in the newspaper run by the Vatican Press Office.