ATHLETIC EVENTS TO BORROW.

Of the 5,400 students of the Academy, about 5,000 will be in attendance. The games will be played on the school grounds.

TRIP AROUND THE WORLD.

The trip will be made by air and sea, with stops at various points around the world. The trip will cover a distance of approximately 25,000 miles.

GOVERNMENT CLAIMS POINT?

Officials visit the Beach and make preliminary surveys.

P.O.S.E, IS A SECRET.

It reveals that the Department of War on the 6th of December will hold an examination for officers in the Army, with a view to filling the vacancies created by the resignation of the late Lieut. Col. A. C. T. Wood.

SEASIDE PARK BEING URGED.

Charitable Societies Again Ask City to Acquire Site.

The New York Association for the Improvement of the Condition of the Poor has been reorganized, and the new organization has issued a call for funds to be used in the purchase of the former Seaside Park, which has been vacated by the City of New York.

CRADLES FOR INFANTS.

The Cradles for Infants Committee has purchased the property of the former Seaside Park, and has given it to the Department of Health for the purpose of establishing a Cradle and Hospital for Infants.

CRADLES FOR INFANTS.

The Cradles for Infants Committee has purchased the property of the former Seaside Park, and has given it to the Department of Health for the purpose of establishing a Cradle and Hospital for Infants.

CRADLES FOR INFANTS.

The Cradles for Infants Committee has purchased the property of the former Seaside Park, and has given it to the Department of Health for the purpose of establishing a Cradle and Hospital for Infants.

CRADLES FOR INFANTS.

The Cradles for Infants Committee has purchased the property of the former Seaside Park, and has given it to the Department of Health for the purpose of establishing a Cradle and Hospital for Infants.

CRADLES FOR INFANTS.

The Cradles for Infants Committee has purchased the property of the former Seaside Park, and has given it to the Department of Health for the purpose of establishing a Cradle and Hospital for Infants.