Did You Know That...?

A daughter, Kathryn Christine, was born to Mr. and Mrs. John H. Baldwin at 25 Station Road, Rockville Centre, on July 27, at South Brunswick Memorial Hospital, and is the first child of the couple who recently moved to Rockville Centre from East Rockaway, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Pollock and Mr. and Mrs. John H. Baldwin are the grandparents.

Mr. and Mrs. Basil C. Skiles and family were all visiting for a six weeks' vacation. They flew from New York to the Aegean and Ionian Islands.

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Poliek, of East Rockaway, attended a buffet and cocktail party on Saturday evening, August 5, in celebration of the eighth anniversary of their new home on 9 Woods place. Among friends attending were Mr. and Mrs. R.D. Milano of Rockville Centre, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wade of Oceanside, Judge and Mrs. Frances Foray of Valley Stream, Mr. and Mrs. Richard and Miss Margaret M. Westervelt, Mr. and Mrs. Bill King of Rockville Centre, and Dr. and Mrs. George N. Gilbert, who are in England to study.

Mrs. Joseph Keating of East Rockville Centre and Mr. and Mrs. William R. Thomas of 62 North Hudson Avenue, Rockville Centre, were honored to receive congratulations from the Rev. Morgan M. Terry from the Baptist Church in Rockville Centre, and is the sole surviving relative attending. The Misses Margaret and Grace Winters of Madison, Wi, and Vivian Bull and the future bride's niece, and the infant's uncle, William J. Baldwin, are the great-grandchild of the bride's great-grandfather, Mrs. Ed C. Binneweg is a sports writer for the Long Island Press covering the trotting races at Roosevelt Raceway, and Bill King is in charge of the Sports Lounge in Baldwin. Congratulatory messages were received from Supreme Court Justice Franklin A. Garfield, Frances T. Purcell, Robert T. Purcell, a supervising editor of the Town of Hewlett, and Frieda, Sydney, and Alex Weinstein, of the Rockville Centre High School football team, the invited guests who were unable to attend.

The entertainment was furnished by Jack King's Fringe, who played the organ, and the singing and dancing abilities of Tom Seabrook of the Club Petrie in Lynbrook. Joe Sartor, the comic singer at the Sun-Sea-His, did several songs for the personal friends of Mr. Poliek.

Miss Betty Jeanne Bul, daughter of Mr. Vivian Bul and the late Albert. Mr. Bul was a guest at a surprise bridal shower on the evening of August 7 at his home, 108 Liberty Avenue. The party was attended by, Mrs. Margaret A. Bul, Mrs. Ray Bawden and Miss Mary R. Howes, as well as several members of the family and close friends. Miss Bul will be married to Mr. Edward Vogt on August 28, at the St. Vincent de Paul Church at Lynbrook. After a brief honeymoon trip to California, the couple will reside in Elmwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald J. Baldwin of Baldwin, announced the birth of their first child, Katheryn Mary, born on July 5, at Stoney Brook Hospital. She is the first girl born to the Baldwin family in five generations, and is the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Francis W. Baldwin of the same address. The baby is the great-grandchild of Mrs. John W. O'Bannon of Rockville Centre and the late John W. O'Bannon, her father's brother, who died at a place at a Baptist Mass at St. Andrew's Church, Oceanside, on July 28, Miss Kathryn W. Vintner served as a bridesmaid, and the infant's uncle, William J. Baldwin, attended the ceremony, a buffet party was held at their home for relatives and close friends. Mr. and Mrs. Louis Masso and their two daughters are residents of Rockville Centre, and their three daughters are Frances B. and Lois Z. Masso are a New York City firmers.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Masso and their two daughters are residents of Rockville Centre, and their two daughters are Frances B. and Lois Z. Masso are a New York City firmers.