LONDON DRAMA.

Mr. Matthew's Unconventionally Entertaining Play.

Mr. Matthew's new play at the Cranston is a farce, which has in it more than a little of the spirit of an evening's social fun. It is a comical study of eccentric genius and genial manner which make a delightful evening's entertainment. The play is a great success and has been produced in London with a hilarious success. Massachusetts Republicans Put Up Old Ticket—President Insured.

The Massachusetts Republicans have nominated Gov. Rhode Island for the presidency. The nomination was made at a meeting of the state Republican convention held at Boston. The convention was attended by a large number of delegates and was presided over by the governor. The nomination was made by a large majority and is expected to be ratified by the state legislature. The governor is a popular candidate and is expected to win the election.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

Life and Health Insurance.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Smith, 123 Main St., New York, write—

"Life and Health Insurance is essential to those who have families, and I can recommend the Metropolitan Life and Accident Insurance Company as the best place to obtain such insurance. They have a wide network of agents throughout the country, and their rates are very reasonable. I have been a customer for many years, and have found them to be reliable and honest."
