TODAY'S PUZZLE

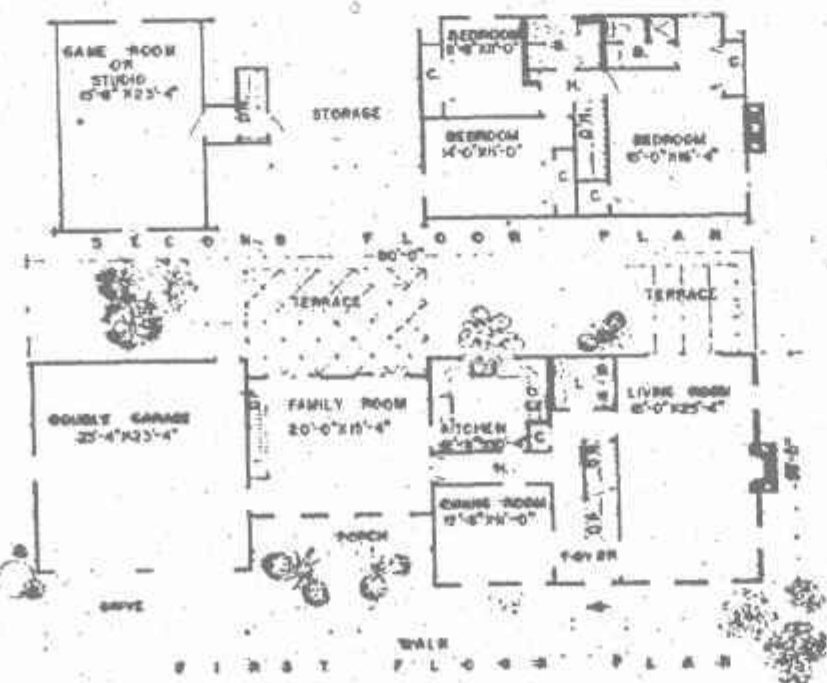

The main section of the first floor is a center hall plan, with a massive living room which opens onto a terrace. In winter, the fireplace recreates that warmth of Grandmother's farm home.

The dining area is to the left of the foyer and across the hall from a U-shaped kitchen, bordered by combination laundry and a half bath.

The second story of the main section shows three bedrooms, with a bath and shower included in the master bedroom. A separate bath serves the other bedrooms.

The center portion of the home houses the family room -- separated from the sleeping area to diminish party noise -- which has its own porch, access to the basement, and a large rear terrace.

Storage area is provided above the family room. The double garage and basement provide additional storage.
