Watertown Daily Times

WATERTOWN, JUNE 4, 1870.

The President has signed the bill to insure the rights of citizens of the United States to vote in the several States of the Union, known as the Fifteenth Amendment bill. It is a two edged sword, protecting the white men of the North as well as the black voters of the South.

The Washington letter writers are indulging in all sorts of speculation relative to anticipated changes in the federal offices in New York city. We presume that little is definitely known on the subject, but we do not yet believe that Thomas Murphy is to be collector of that port. If we were to designate an individual it would be Gen. Merritt of St. Lawrence. He is the best man for the place we can think of.

President Grant promised the country two things when he was inaugurated. First, to collect the revenue; and second, to reduce the debt. How this policy is being carried out may be gathered from two Washington dispatches. One tells us that the internal revenue receipts for the present fiscal year will amount to $175,000,000 and the other that the reduction of the debt for May was $14,301,962, with $106,769,781 of coin, and $14,243,816 of currency in the Treasury.

Naturalization

Senator Conkling, on the 26th ult., reported a bill which provides that in the future no proceedings in any way relating to the naturalization of aliens shall be had or taken by or before any court or tribunal, except the Circuit or District Courts of the United States and registers in bankruptcy, who are made ex-officio commissioners of naturalization. An alien, wishing to become a citizen, must file a sworn statement, setting forth, among other things, that he has resided four years and six months in the United States, and one year in the State or Territory where application is made, and the statement must be sustained by at least one witness.

The bill also provides that no certificate issued since July 4, 1868, "in any city whose population exceeds 100,000," shall pass as evidence of naturalization; until it shall have been presented by the person named therein to the court or commissioner of his district, and endorsed "approved," with the proper seal and signature. It further enacts that in every city of 50,000 inhabitants or upwards, the United States Judge having jurisdiction shall appoint for each election district or voting precinct two residents, one from each political party, "who shall be authorized to attend at all times and places fixed for the registration of voters, who, being registered, would be entitled to vote for representatives in Congress, and at all times and places for holding elections of representatives in Congress, and for counting the votes cast at said elections, and to challenge any name proposed to be registered and any vote offered, and to be present and witness throughout the counting of all votes, and to remain where the ballot boxes are kept at all times while they are open until the votes are finally counted."

We cannot blame our friends at the Federal Capital for desiring to do something to put a stop to the issuing of fraudulent naturalization papers in New York and elsewhere, and to cancel and destroy any that may have been given out, and after all, we have not much faith that they will be able to do it. We are sorry to believe there are persons in the great cities wicked enough to desire the defeat of the majority by voting on fraudulent naturalization papers and on other names than their own; and while such exist, we doubt the efficacy of statutes to effect a reform. So long as there are people disposed to cheat at elections, so long there will be cheating.

It is painful to think there are individuals in this country so short-sighted and inconsiderate as to be willing that the rule of the majority should be overthrown. They cannot be very numerous before "the best government on which the sun has ever shone" will be destroyed, and we shall have in its place Heaven knows what!

Congressional.

The Senate on the 1st considered and passed the judicial circuit bill. It constitutes the various circuits as follows: First, Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts, Rhode Island and Connecticut; Second, New York; Third, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland and Virginia; Fourth, Mississippi, Louisiana, Texas and Arkansas; Fifth, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Alabama and Tennessee; Sixth, Ohio, Michigan, Kentucky and West Virginia; Seventh, Illinois, Indiana and Wisconsin; Eighth, Minnesota, Iowa, Nebraska, Kansas and Missouri; Ninth, California, Oregon and Nevada.

The Supreme Court justices, except the Chief Justice, are required to reside on their respective circuits, and the Chief Justice is to be known as the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States.

The Sandwich Islands treaty was taken up in executive session, and after protracted debate, rejected: yeas 30, nays 19; not two-thirds.

The House was engaged on the bill to reduce internal taxes, but adjourned without completing it.

Personal.

—Miss Jeanette Fenton, daughter of Ex-Gov. Fenton, was married at her father's residence in Jamestown, on the evening of the 1st, to J. N. Hegeman, of New York.

—Weston, the pedestrian, undertakes the feat of walking fifty miles in ten and a quarter hours, or less.

—Miss Alice Cary, whose long and severe illness has been so frequently alluded to in the public journals, is now so much better as to encourage a hope of her ultimate recovery.

—There is no truth whatever in the statement published concerning the ill health of Gen. Hancock. He is now in as [illegible] has been for months past.

The Moving World

—The President on the 1st, nominated E. Peshine Smith, of Rochester, to be examiner of claims, for the State Department.

—The Boston excursion train arrived in San Francisco on the 1st inst., at 12.40 p. m., and had an enthusiastic reception by the Californians.

Notes of the Day.

—The following almost prophecy is quoted from Disraeli's "Lothair:" "There is no real business in the Fenians. Their treason is a fairy tale, and their sedition a child talking in its sleep."

—From Philadelphia, south, as far as Fortress Monroe, it rained on the 1st inst. It also rained in New York. We shall get it here after a while.

—Louis Napoleon having ordered the importation from Kentucky of a few barrels of old Bourbon for use in the imperial household, a Parisian wit remarks that it is only the "spirit of that name" that the Emperor likes.

—A cow in Rochester has produced in the past two months 1,660 quarts of milk, which at six cents per quart would bring $110.60. Twenty-one pounds of butter were made from her milk in one week, and one hundred pounds in the two months named. The cow is a cross of the Devon and Durham varieties.

Southern Items.

—Crop reports from Arkansas, North Mississippi and North Alabama represent the coming corn crop as unusually good.

MONUMENT TO STEUBEN.—The corner stone of a monument to be erected to the memory of Frederick William Von Steuben was yesterday laid at Steuben, Oneida Co. The people of Utica, Remsen and Steuben turned out in great numbers and the occasion is described as having been one of great interest and pleasure. Addresses were delivered by Sixtus Karl Kapff of New York, Hon. Horatio Seymour and Gen. Sigel.

The ceremony of laying the Corner Stone was performed by Gov. Seymour, who said:

In behalf of our German fellow-citizens, in behalf of the citizens of the State of New York, in behalf of the whole American people, who desire that the memory of this great man shall never pass away, since his revolutionary acts were instrumental in laying the corner-stone of our liberties, I now deposit the corner-stone of this monument erected in honor of the memory of Frederick William Baron Von Steuben. May God grant that it will ever serve to remind the American people of the great service which he adopted as his own. May God grant that it may always be treasured as sacredly as we treasure his memory to-day.

The Herald says: The simple beauty of the ceremony, as it was performed, was equaled only by its perfect appropriateness.

Disorganized State of Things in Kentucky—Southern Chivalry Burning School Houses.

We give below an extract from a letter just received from the South, giving a statement concerning the destruction of a school house by the "Southern Chivalry." The writer was formerly from this county, who, with her husband, passed through the rebellion retaining her Northern ideas. We give portions of the letter.

BELLEVIEW, Christian Co., Ky., May 16, 1870.

My husband left for Louisville, not apprehending the danger that turned about our surroundings. We were prosperous at home, and peace and quiet seemed enthroned, when the darkness of night shut us out from the outer world, in our woodland home. My school for the freemen was also prosperous, and they were happy in gaining some intelligence day by day. We had finished the house for them, with the exception of lathing and plastering, which we intended doing in the Fall. I had been teaching two weeks, and closed as usual Friday evening.

The colored people held worship there a few Sabbaths, and they rejoiced in their privilege, but this was giving the poor African too much aid to elevate themselves from their long borne bondage of slavish ignorance, and so at an early hour Friday night the torch was set to the school house, the wind blowing strong and in the direction of our dwelling and other out buildings, but before the school house fell the wind changed, and drove the flames in an easterly direction, and thereby saved our dwelling.

What does this say for Southern philanthropy? What for Southern Chivalry? What for the first Congressional District in Kentucky? What does it say for the neighborhood? What does it say for the spirit of christianity? Admit that the freedmen are degraded. Who degraded them? From their many hued skins the tale is told and admits of no denial. Who debased them? Supposing we admit they are degraded, depraved, debauched, and without virtue. Who made them so? Did not Christ leave His Father's courts above to save such? Is the band who fired their house and thus ruthlessly took from them the first ray of hope that had beamed athwart their mental pathway to aid them to an improved oppressed race, anything but a degraded band? Shame on their chivalry! Shame on their christianity! This is the State of things here in this First Congressional District of Kentucky.

MRS. M. N. ROACH.

Distressing Railway Accident.

A frightful railway disaster occurred on the 1st inst. near Paterson, N. J., on the Lackawanna and Western Railroad. A construction train with a large force of laborers and other employes of the road was precipitated thirty feet from a trestle bridge. The train had passed along the road making repairs when necessary. Several places had been attended to, and the train was passing over the trestle bridge at the point where the Newark road intersects the railway, when the bridge gave way, and the entire train was precipitated to the depths below.

The master carpenter, Mr. Campbell, and six other carpenters were instantly killed. Thirty or forty workmen were shockingly injured, being bruised and crushed by the descending masses of iron, timber and debris. The scene baffles description. Many of the workmen were buried in the ruins and shockingly mangled.

Henry Ward Beecher on Interest.

No blister draws sharper than the interest does. Of all industries none is comparable to that of interest. It works all day and night, in fair weather and foul. It has no sounds in its footsteps but travels fast. It gnaws at a man's substance with invisible teeth. It binds industry with its film, as a fly is bound upon a spider's web. Debts roll a man over and over, binding hand and foot, and letting him hang upon the fatal mesh until the long legged interest devours him. There is but one thing on a farm like it, and that is the Canada thistle, which swarms new plants every time you break its roots, whose blossoms are prolific, and every flower the father of a million seeds. Every leaf is an awl, every branch a spear, and every plant like a platoon of bayonets, and a field of them like an armed host. The whole plant is a torment and vegetable curse. And yet a farmer had better make his bed of Canada thistles than attempt to be at ease upon interest.

—When a Scotch minister told his neighbor that he had preached two hours and a half the day before, the neighbor said: "Why, minister, were you not tired to death?" "Aw, nae," said he, "I was fresh as a rose; but it would have done your heart good to see how tired the congregation was."

—"I am afraid you don't like babies when they cry," said a matron to a gentleman, as she tried to soothe the darling in her arms. "Oh, yes," said he. "I like them best when they cry, because I've always observed that then they are invariably carried out of the room."

Died.

MILLS—In Sterlingville, Sunday, May 29, of scarlet fever, James D., son of Mr. L. H. and Mrs. Julia A. Sterling Mills, aged two months.

"Of such is the Kingdom of Heaven."
