REPUBLICAN NOMINATIONS.

For Governor—JOHN A. DIX.
For Lieut. Governor—John C. Robinson.
For Canal Commissioner—Alexander Barkley.
For State Prison Inspector—Thomas Kirk[illegible].
For Associate Justice, Court of Appeals—[illegible]
[illegible]

New York must do her part toward backing up the Republican victory in Ohio and [illegible] congressional delegation.

[illegible], of Delaware County, has been nominated for Congress by the Republicans of the [illegible] district. [illegible]

[illegible]

The Republicans might have lost the State of New York, through over-confidence, if it were not for the warnings which Ohio and Indiana have given them. This danger will now be avoided. The two weeks between this and the election, will be so well improved in the necessary work of organization, to the end that a full vote will be got out, that a handsome Republican victory will be assured. Get out the Republican vote, and the State is safe.

The changes in Congress resulting from the elections so far held this year may be estimated as follows: Indiana will be represented in the XLIVth Congress by 6 Republicans and 7 Democrats, the latter being a gain of 5; North Carolina, 1 Republican, 7 Democrats, the latter gaining [illegible]; Ohio, 7 Republicans, 13 Democrats, the latter gaining 6. Oregon will have a Republican in place of her present Democratic Representative. Total net gain of the Democrats, 12. There is no change of the representation of Iowa, Maine, Nebraska, Vermont and West Virginia.

OUR CANDIDATES FOR THE ASSEMBLY—MESSRS. PECK AND YOST.

[illegible]

We believe the Republicans, whether they are farmers or mechanics, or neither, will [illegible] by their [illegible], and that Jefferson county will send two honest Republican Assemblymen to Albany, to act their part in the continuance of a wise administration of the affairs of the State.

In the First District the electors have an opportunity of voting for Jesse F. Peck of [illegible], one of the most upright farmers in the district, a man against whom not one [illegible] can be truthfully said—and one who [illegible] the high expectations of his people. [illegible] and both men are good party representatives. In addition to this, Mr. Yost is personally known, and popular throughout the district as an enterprising, honest, and capable young man, full of life and energy, and with a keen eye upon the needs of his district. He represented Theresa in the last Board of Supervisors, and was unanimously re-chosen this spring. His record on the Board is one of recognized ability, and will be found acceptable to every voter in his District. He is not only a prompt and successful business man, but he is also a farmer and understands well the varied claims of that large class of our citizens. His record speaks for itself and the Republicans in that portion of the county should secure his election by a large majority.

The views of both these gentlemen on the vital questions of the hour, have been made public in letters which we have already published [illegible] satisfactory.

Republicans see to it that Jefferson county is represented in the next Assembly by Messrs. Peck and Yost.

RESUMPTION.

What an [illegible] opportunity this year presents for the resumption of specie payments! Business is dull the world over, and consequently money is easy the world over. Now all great changes of financial condition or policy can be made most easily upon an easy money market. The bank of France knows this, and is utilizing this opportunity to the extent of her power. It is steadily accumulating a great stock of gold with which to resume specie payments. The ease with which this is done is worth noticing. In a time of general business activity, it took the German government two years and a half to amass $150,000,000 of gold, and even with such care the money market of the world became at times painfully stringent. But within the past nine months the bank of France has drawn no less than $90,000,000 of gold from the world supply, without creating any sensible disturbance. The London rate of discount remains at 3, when otherwise it might drop to 2, but the process is hardly felt in any other way. The bank of France is now nearly ready to call in the $100,000,000 of 20-franc notes in circulation and to replace them with the shining Napoleons. About next year, or 1876, when we get ready to resume, the business of the world will not be so gracious.

A telegram from New Orleans gives evidence of a well-disposed and efficient grand jury in the neighboring parish of Concordia, and that too where the body consists of all colored men save two. The dispatch says that the jury found a true bill against Dave Young, a colored member of the legislature, for embezzling $30,000 belonging to the parish, and also a true bill against Owen Stewart, sheriff, for obtaining money under false pretenses. It may be added that that grand jury might find business at some places at the North that is now left undone from lack of diligence or pluck.

The transfer of Porto Rico from Spanish to German domain has been the subject of much speculation and repeated denial of late. In the latest allusion to this subject by reference to another proposition of purchase, a Washington special of yesterday to the N. Y. Herald, says that the German government positively disclaims the intention of purchasing a naval station at Costa Rica, and gives an additional assurance, that the German government not only respects the Monroe doctrine, but most cordially approves it, and that, like the United States, whose ships-of-war traverse every sea, Germany has no need of naval stations in distant countries.

THIS MORNING'S NEWS.

The Woman's Congress in Chicago.

In the Woman's Congress at Chicago, on Friday, Mrs. Ellen Mitchell read an interesting paper on "Fallen Women," and Mrs. Julia Ward Howe, of Boston, a paper on "The Influence of Literature on Crime." Both ladies were listened to with close attention by a large audience, composed mainly of women. At the evening session a paper was read by Mrs. Dr. Enslie, of Orange, N. J., on dentistry. Mrs. Julia Ward Howe, Mrs. Churchill and others discussed the subject.

Beauty Threatening Old Columbia.

The class of young ladies that have made application for admission to Columbia College at the last three examinations for admission, have renewed their application this fall. They threaten to apply to the Supreme Court for a mandamus in case they are again refused.—N. Y. Sun.

The Jersey City Church Scandal.

At the trial of the Rev. Mr. Glendenning Friday, before the Jersey City Presbytery, Mr. Miller was cross-examined at great length, and the whole ground of the church scandal [illegible]. There was scarcely anything elicited, however, that has not been published already. The circumstances of the arrest of Mr. Glendenning, the employment of counsel, Miss Pomeroy's confessions, and the account which she gave of the pistol-scene were all described. The counsel for the defense asked that a commission should be appointed to take the testimony of a witness that could not stay any longer, and the Moderator made the appointment. The commission met after the adjournment, and took the testimony of the witness, who is about to leave the city for Europe. The testimony will not be made public until it is used in the ordinary course of the trial. The case was continued Saturday.

Row with Desperado Texan Herders.

Omaha, Neb., Oct. 18.—For several days past Kearney Junction has been overrun by a lot of Texan herders, who have committed many depredations. The citizens were afraid to attempt their capture. Matters, however, culminated, last night, in a row, in which two citizens were killed. The herders then retreated to an island in the Platte river and have fortified themselves. The citizens then telegraphed to Gov. Furnas for arms and ammunition, and he ordered them forward from Lincoln without delay. They will do all in their power to confine the desperadoes to the island.

Bold Street Murder.

Terre Haute, Ind., Oct. 18.—This evening at eight o'clock, Picard, a well known citizen, was walking with his wife on North Sixth street, when two men rushed upon them and one of the men held Mrs. Picard while the [illegible]

[illegible] in the morning, [illegible] was waylaid and shot, to prevent him from speaking at the meeting. None of the [illegible] assaulted [illegible] Gair, hence the [illegible]. Colored people in groups of ten and twelve are patrolling the streets on horse back with guns. United States Superintendent, Capt. J. H. Jenks has been consulted, and it is probable he will call for United States troops. Great excitement prevails. Webber and Breaux have just arrived from Bayou Sara and brought with them some [illegible] rifles for the rioters.

ANOTHER ACCOUNT.

Clinton, La., Oct. [illegible] The feud between Breaux, Webber and [illegible] republican factions, culminated to-day in an attempt between Bayou Sara and Jackson, La., to assassinate John Gair, independent republican candidate for the Senate, by parties unknown. Gair was wounded, but not dangerously.

Railroad Accidents.

ENGINEER AND FIREMAN KILLED.

Cincinnati, O., Oct. 17. The Baltimore express train met with an accident at Albany, on the bridge east of Lovilands, wrecking the locomotive and tender both of which went through the bridge. The engineer Daniel Pardoru, and fireman, Joseph Parent both of Chillicothe, were killed instantly. They might have saved themselves by jumping, as the train was not running over twelve miles per hour, but they died at their posts and thereby saved the passengers, not one of whom was hurt.

ANOTHER. SEVERAL PASSENGERS IN[illegible]

Chicago, Oct. 18.—Last evening on the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne & Chicago railroad a passenger train running at full speed near Pierceton, Ind., struck a cow which was standing on the track. The engine ran over the cow, but the emigrant and two passenger cars were thrown from the track down an embankment about twenty-five feet. None of the passengers were killed, but a large number were wounded. Benj. F. Howard, commercial editor of the Inter Ocean, received a dangerous wound in the head. Mrs. Shay and two children, Catharine Bonne, Conductor Brown, and others were seriously hurt. There were 350 passengers on the train.

FOREIGN.

The French minister of foreign affairs has communicated documents to the Spanish ambassador which exonerate France from the accusations recently made by Spain.

It is now said Bismarck was dissatisfied with the course pursued by Count Von Arnim while ambassador at France, and wrote letters which he hoped would induce the count to resign.

The Earthquake at Guatemala.

LATER NEWS—TWO HUNDRED LIVES LOST—ANOTHER TOWN DESTROYED.

Panama, Oct. 18.—A Guatemala paper says the victims of the earthquake of September 3d number two hundred. The losses suffered in the department are estimated at $250,000. Many dead bodies remain buried under a stream of mud, which descended from the Cerro del Tigre, and was one hundred feet deep in some places. The town of Duenos is entirely ruined, and Cindal Vieja and Amatitan suffered severely. The government has ordered supplies of flour from Salvador and California.

India.

DESTRUCTIVE CYCLONE IN BENGAL.

Bombay, Oct. 17.—The Presidency of Bengal has been visited by a frightful cyclone, which caused great havoc. The telegraph line between this city and Calcutta was prostrated and communication suspended. A train of cars on the Bombay and Calcutta Railroad was blown from the track.

W. F. Shanks, of the Tribune, was on Saturday adjudged in contempt of court, for refusing to reveal the name of the writer of an article in that paper reflecting on Judge McCue, of Brooklyn.

Patton's motion of appeal to the synod was made the first order of the day for Monday, 19th.

A Little Rock dispatch of Saturday says of the recent Arkansas election, that Jefferson county gives 1,700 majority against, instead of for the constitution, and Phillips and Lincoln counties small majorities against. These are the only counties, so far as heard from, that give majorities against the constitution. The majority for the constitution will reach 75,000.

Mysterious Poisoning Case.

Troy, Oct. 19.

The family of Thomas Quinlan, of Cohoes, was suddenly attacked with symptoms of poisoning. Mrs. Quinlan and her three children all suffered from vomiting and purging as if they had taken some irritant poison in large doses. The physician relieved the mother and two children, but James, a lad of 9 years, remains in a precarious condition. The facts were made public to-day by an investigation as to the cause of the sudden prostration of the family, but the matter remains a mystery. Mrs. Quinlan asserts that they partook of nothing but bread and butter for breakfast, both of which were purchased in Cohoes from a reputable tradesman, and it is almost a certainty that they were not the cause of the poisoning, although there is a bare possibility that after the purchase of the food some one may have tampered with it. A determined effort is being made to fathom the mystery. Hopes are expressed that the life of the lad still acutely suffering may be saved.

Medeoni and Chiris, the Republican candidates were elected.

More Boat Racing.

New York, Oct. 19.

Biglin has accepted Mealy's challenge and race drawn for an early day at Springfield, Mass.

Peculiarities of the Arkansas Election.

The New York Times thus remarks on the big Democratic majority claimed in the late State election in Arkansas:

Perhaps the Arkansas Democrats were a little excited when they announced the result of the recent election in that State. They claim that 105,000 votes were cast, and that the Democratic State ticket was elected and the new constitution ratified by 75,000 majority. Inasmuch as the Republicans in the State do not recognize the new constitution, and did not vote for it or for State officers the other day, and inasmuch as the total vote of the State in the last Presidential election was hardly 80,000, this statement is even more inexplicable than most other features of politics in Arkansas.

Some heavy failures are reported in the grain business. While of course all due sympathy should be extended to unfortunate merchants, it is more difficult to apply it in cases where the unsuccessful operators have been endeavoring to corner the market, and raise prices above their natural point.

Reject all the fiery "Tonics" and "Appetizers," and cling to that remedy. There is no medicine that compares with it. oct13-4w
