HUNDREDS INQUIRE AS TO ROOSEVELT

INTENSE INTEREST MANIFESTED IN HIS CONDITION

NOT BELIEVED AT FIRST

News First Reached Watertown at 10:10 Monday Night and Report Soon Spread All Over the City.

First intimation that Col. Roosevelt had been shot by an assassin came to the Times Monday night at 10:09 in the form of a telegram from the Chicago office of the Associated Press. At first the news seemed unbelievable. As soon as it became noised about the city that Col. Roosevelt had been shot, all sorts of wild rumors spread. Telephone calls came pouring into the Times office soon after 10:15 and for more than an hour anxious persons about town called in to verify the report.

With the opening of the Associated Press wires running into this city at 8 this morning, full details of the shooting became available. Quieting reports of the condition of Col. Roosevelt came in at noon, but later in the afternoon the news was flashed over the wire that his condition was serious, after the discovery that the wound inflicted was not a flesh wound, but a serious wound of the chest.

The Times' bulletin in the Paddock arcade was surrounded during the course of the day as the continuous bulletins of Col. Roosevelt's condition reached The Times. Continuous telephone calls came pouring into the office during the morning and in the course of the afternoon. At times the office force seemed unable to answer the calls which poured in.

In the midst of the excitement this morning, a rumor circulated that Police Lieut. Becker, now on trial for his life in special session before Justice Goff, had been shot as he sat in the court room. At once the telephone began to ring in The Times office and the office force was kept busy denying the rumor. As soon as it became known in The Times that the rumor was in circulation, a denial of the report was obtained from the New York office of the Associated Press. At the same time a running story of the Becker trial was coming in over the Associated Press dire direct from the court room so that any such reported shooting would have been known in The Times office instantly.

PRESENT-DAY CLUB IS ORGANIZED

TO PROMOTE BETTERMENT OF SOCIAL CONDITIONS.

MISS JOHNSON, PRESIDENT

Will "Encourage All Worthy Objects Promoted for the Benefit of the Community."

The Present-Day club, the membership of which is made up of Watertown women, was formally organized Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Stanley E. Hunting at 271 Paddock street. Its president is Miss Helen Louise Johnson of 231 Paddock street, associate editor of Good Housekeeping. Its officers are selected from among the leading women of the city. Its constitution, adopted section by section at the meeting held Monday, clearly defines the object of the club. The object of the organization as defined by its constitution is to "unite the women of Watertown in an organized effort to promote the betterment of social conditions and to encourage all worthy objects promoted for the benefit of the community."

It is non-suffrage, a majority of the members being against granting the franchise to women. One specific objection formally discussed at the meeting of the club, is to endeavor to secure the appointment of two women as members of the board of education. The members of the club maintain that they should be allowed some representation on this board, which has to do with the education of their children.

The officers of the club are as follows: Miss Helen L. Johnson, president; Mrs. Stanley E. Hunting, first vice-president; Mrs. E. S. Willard, second vice-president; Miss Eunice Remington, third vice-president; Mrs. Mark S. Wilder, treasurer; Miss Clara Massey, recording secretary; Mrs. Harold Remington, corresponding secretary. The advisory board is composed of the following ladies: Mrs. Charles H. Congdon, Mrs. F. K. Houston, Miss Anna O'Brien, Mrs. A. E. Awde, Mrs. M. H. Fox, Mrs. W. H. McKinstry, Mrs. Stephanie Brockway, Mrs. George H. Cobb, and Mrs. Harold Conde. The only committee that has been appointed is the press committee, Miss Clara Massey.

At present the club has really defined no specific object for its formation. The first work the club will do is to gain information upon all the civic, municipal, and social work being done in the city. This will include an investigation of the municipal government. Men and women educated along specific lines will be asked to address the club on various work being done in the city. Frank S. Tisdale, superintendent of schools, has been invited to speak before the club on the system of education in vogue in this city. The club will get information on all the social betterment work in the city and then will make a decision as to what line they will devote their attention in an effort toward betterment.

The first meeting of the advisory board will be held the last of this week or the first of next week. At this time the program for the year's work will be decided upon. The meetings of the club will be held the second Monday in each month.

SULZER AND GLYNN SPEAK HERE OCT. 22

DEMOCRATS PLAN FOR MONSTER RALLY

WILL BE IN CITY OPERA HOUSE

Party Will Arrive in Carthage at 4:50 P. M., Oct. 22, and Address Will Be Delivered There at 5—Special Reaches Watertown at 6:30.

The heads of the Democratic state ticket will appear in Watertown on the night of Tuesday, Oct. 22, at a monster Democratic rally in the City opera house to be addressed by William Sulzer, Democratic candidate for governor, and Martin H. Glynn, nominee for lieutenant governor. Announcement of the appearance of the "Sulzer flyer," as the Democratic state campaign train is known, was received today by the city committee.

Mr. Sulzer and his party will arrive at Carthage at 4:50 p. m. Tuesday, Oct. 22, and at 5 he will speak at a meeting at the Temple theatre. The train is due in this city at 6:30 and the meeting will be held in the City opera house at 8. Mr. Sulzer, Mr. Glynn and party will spend the night here. The further schedule of the Sulzer special through this section has not as yet been received at Democratic headquarters, but it is probable that the campaign will be continued through northern New York on Wednesday.

Meetings of the Democratic county committee of the Wilson-Marshall club have been called for Tuesday night to discuss plans for the campaign. Both organizations will attend the mass meeting in a body. All of the vice presidents of the Wilson-Marshall club are expected to be present.

In the hall of the North Side Improvement League at the corner of Gale and Thompson streets, the Republicans will hold tonight their first large rally on the north side during the campaign. Three well known political speakers will address the meeting, Senator George H. Cobb, Former Senator Elon R. Brown, and Robert M. Campbell of New York. Mr. Campbell, who is well known as an authority on labor issues, is expected to touch on that question tonight. Before the meeting tonight the Watertown City band will play several selections in front of the hall. Edward N. Dorchester, city assessor, will preside as chairman of the meeting.

The announcement this morning that Col. Roosevelt would not speak in Watertown on Oct. 31, as the result of his shooting in Milwaukee Monday night, has caused a change in the plans of the Progressive leaders here. When it was first announced through The Times that the Progressive leader would speak in Watertown, plans were made to make the meeting the largest in this city in many years. The meeting was to have been the headliner of the campaign. The leaders now plan to have the meeting Friday night the big one. Local headquarters says William A. Prendergast and Timothy L. Woodruff will be called upon to address the largest meeting of Progressives in this county during the campaign. Two special trains are to be run from this city Friday night to allow the people who come to the meeting to return home the same night. Trains will leave the Watertown station at 11 Friday night for Carthage and Mannsville. The first train will carry delegations from Carthage and the towns between. All of the towns have promised to furnish delegations to the meeting. Carthage expects to send a large delegation. William R. Kesler, editor of the Carthage Tribune, and a big Bull Moose, was in Watertown this morning arranging for the special train. Delegations are expected from Adams Center, Adams and Mannsville to take the special train which will go as far as Mannsville.

Progressives as well as Republicans this morning admitted that the shooting of Col. Roosevelt and the facts attendant upon it would throw a considerable part of the doubtful vote his way in the election next month.

One Progressive this morning blamed the metropolitan press for the shooting of Col. Roosevelt. He said that the stories they had been printing about him had undoubtedly brought many persons to believe that Col. Roosevelt was a personal menace to the country and that "he ought to be shot." One of them he thought was John Schrank, who shot Col. Roosevelt.

V. K. Kellogg will speak in Adams Center Thursday night. The arrangements for this meeting were made this morning by W. H. Gilman, chairman of the city committee.

I. R. Breen and E. N. Smith will address a Republican rally at Black River tonight. Mayor Francis M. Hugo was to have spoken, but he will be in Fulton tonight with the Hedges party and will be unable to attend the meeting at Black River.

I. R. Breen and Robert M. Campbell of New York addressed an enthusiastic Republican meeting at Sackets Harbor Monday night. John B. Harris, supervisor from that town, presided at the meeting. The speakers reported this morning that he was the best chairman of such a meeting they had encountered.

Robert M. Campbell of New York will address a noon hour meeting in Factory Square Wednesday at 12:30. The meeting will be held in the square in front of the Nill & Jess bakery.

I. R. Breen of this city and Robert M. Campbell of New York will address two Republican meetings the latter part of the week. At the town hall in Alexandria Bay Thursday night and in the Odd Fellows Temple at Belleville Friday night the leaders have scheduled Republican rallies. Mr. Breen and Mr. Campbell are bearing the brunt of the Republican campaign in this county.

The Republican meetings scheduled in Clayton for Wednesday night and in Philadelphia for Friday night have been postponed until next week, because of the absence of Former Senator [illegible] county [illegible] tempting to arrange for a rally in the Masonic Temple at Chaumont Tuesday, Oct. 22.

Monday night at Great Bend the Republicans will hold a rally in grange hall. It will be addressed by J. G. Jones of Carthage and Mayor Francis M. Hugo of this city. Robert M. Campbell of New York may also be called upon to address the meeting.

Archie C. Ryder, chairman of the Republican county committee, is sending out notices today calling a meeting of the campaign committee in Republican headquarters at 2 Thursday afternoon. The meeting will be devoted to a discussion of the political outlook and to the preparing of plans for the distribution of campaign literature.

WARNED TO WATCH FOR A STRANGE DISEASE

DR. FRANK J. LOOMIS RECEIVES BULLETIN FROM ALBANY, N. Y.

In order to check absolutely the spread of any case of the unusual and infectious disease which has been causing terror among the owners of cattle and horses in Kansas, the department of agriculture of this state has issued a bulletin advising veterinarians and cattle inspectors in the state to report any strange disease at once to the department. A copy of the bulletin has been received by Dr. Frank J. Loomis, city milk and meat inspector. It reads: "Owing to the reports that are being received of an unusual and apparently infectious disease in horses in the state of Kansas, we deem it advisable to call your attention to the necessity of taking extra precautions in the consideration of any disease in horses coming to your notice. In order to guard against the possibility of the introduction of this malady in the state of New York, it is important that any one having to do with the diseases of animals should have in mind the danger to the live stock interests of the state should such infections gain entrance into this state. Therefore it is advisable to give special attention to any condition that might be due to such trouble. We hope that you will communicate with our office should you have occasion to suspect the existence of any dangerous or unusual infection.

"Calvin J. Huson, commissioner of agriculture."

The disease as it has manifested itself in Kansas has developed as cerebro-spinal trouble, accompanied with unusual prostration. The disease is highly infectious. The only measures that can be taken is an absolute change in the accustomed diet and watering of the stock affected.

DIES SUDDENLY ON WAY TO SYNOD

DELEGATE PASSES AWAY AT HOME OF NIECE

EZRA B. PRATT OF CAIRO, [illegible]

Was Bound for Gouverneur to Attend State Synod and Stopped at Home of His Niece, Miss Celia Carter, [illegible] Clay Street.

Ezra P. Pratt, aged 82 years, one of the best known residents of Cairo, died very suddenly Monday afternoon at the home of his niece, Miss Celia Carter, of 318 Clay street, where he had come but a few minutes before. Mr. Pratt is a well known Presbyterian and was the delegate from the Cairo Presbyterian church to the annual meeting of the Presbyterian Synod, which will be held in Gouverneur. Mr. Pratt left home Monday morning and arrived in this city on the Club train.

He went direct to the home of his niece and had been in the house for about ten minutes, when suddenly he complained that he was having difficulty in getting breath and that he felt very ill. He was at once put to bed and Dr. Fred B. Smith was summoned. Dr. Smith came at once to the house, arriving just as Mr. Pratt passed away.

According to the doctor his death was due to heart failure. Coroner Herbert L. Smith was notified at once and found that death was due to heart trouble.

Mr. Pratt was a healthy looking man and was apparently in the best of spirits when he arrived at the home of his niece.

The body was taken in charge by Undertaker William R. Box and this morning was sent to Cairo. Mr. Pratt had been a resident of Cairo for many years and was held in high esteem in the community where he lived. He was an elder in the Presbyterian church.

There survive one daughter, Mrs. Frank Gault, of Catskill, and several sons.

Funeral arrangements will be made on the arrival of the body in Cairo.
