For the Oneida Herald.

Welcome to Jenny Lind,

On her visit to Central and Western New York.

Welcome, peerless Queen of Song!
Are the words that pass along,
As we now, with hearts elate,
Hail thy visit to our State.

Welcome to our hills and dales,
Cities, towns, and peaceful vales,
Where the quiet rivers flow,
Or the mountain breezes blow.

Welcome to our healing fountains
In the groves, or in the mountains,
Saratoga's gushing rills,
Sharon's Eden 'mid the hills.

Welcome to our inland seas;
They will waken memories,
As thou gazest on their foam,
Of thy dark blue lakes at home.

Welcome, where in rock-built halls,
Trenton's amber torrent falls,
Or, through groves of beech and pines,
Brighter than the glacier shines.

Welcome to the shuddering shore,
Where Niagara's thunders roar,
And the anthem of the floods,
Soundeth 'mid the listening woods.

Welcome to our battle grounds;
There no more the trumpet sounds,
Yet thy heart shall swell to see,
Where we fought for liberty.

Welcome to our peaceful homes,
Lowly cots, and statelier domes,
And while warm, the tear drop starts,
Welcome, welcome to our hearts.

And when thou shalt leave our strand,
For thy far off native land,
By thy own dear Swedish hearth,
In the cottage of thy birth,

Thou wilt think that o'er the sea
Freemen blessed and welcomed thee,
And perchance wilt breathe a prayer
For the hearts that loved thee there.

Report on Tehuantepec Treaty.

WASHINGTON, July 11.

Capt. J. M. Mercer, of the Tehuantepec surveying party, arrived here to-day, twenty days from the scene of operations. He is a week in advance of the remainder of the party. He reports that upon the Atlantic side the Coatzacoalcos river is navigable for twenty-five miles above its mouth, for ships drawing eleven feet of water. At a point called Minatitlan, where the railroad is already laid down, it commences, and passes over a beautiful country, teeming with horses and cattle, almost in a wild state, until it strikes upon the waters of Taltepec river. In this distance of sixty miles, there are no other difficulties to encounter than those common to undulating countries. From the Taltepec we come upon the Malatengo, and there have our first grade of fifty feet. We then ascend to thirty miles—from the Malatengo to the Sierra Madre mountains, a chain of the Cordilleras—through which several passes have been surveyed. That of La Chivela has been chosen as the best and most feasible, and through it a fifty feet grade has been run, which presents a most feasible route. On the Pacific side of Sierra Madre, there are difficulties to contend with. A straight line to Ventosa, on the Pacific, brings you over a great plain of thirty miles. The climate is very healthy. The officers and men, fifty-three in number, are all well, and have contracted no disease.

CLERICAL ELOPEMENT.—A startling and mysterious affair occurred at the Recorder's office in this city, a few days since. It appears that an Episcopalian clergyman, residing in Canada West, had insinuated himself into the affections of a married lady belonging to the church, and in the absence of her husband, about two weeks ago, they eloped across the river to Ogdensburgh. A few days after the woman came on to this city, where she was found by her injured husband, and forthwith arraigned before the Recorder to answer for her conduct. Finding her not in a very penitential mood, and discovering among her effects some very objectionable correspondence with the Rev. seducer, the exasperated husband returned home with his little daughter, whom the unfaithful wife had taken with her. A few days after the clergyman arrived, and with the woman left on the first boat for the west. The parties are all represented as belonging to the higher ranks of life, well educated, and of very genteel appearance. Further developments in this singular affair, are expected to transpire in a few days, until which time it is deemed improper to announce the names of the parties connected with this transaction.—Oswego Palladium.

JENNY LIND'S VISIT WEST.—We understand that the Michigan Central Railroad Line have tendered to the Nightingale and suite a passage on either boat of their line to Detroit, as a slight inducement for her to visit the Wolverine State. Letters in answer were yesterday received from her, acknowledging in complimentary terms the invitation extended, and stating that Miss Lind has not yet determined whether she will return to New York from the Falls, direct, or visit the Lake Cities and Canada. In all probability she will however visit Detroit, but will proceed no farther west. We also learn that letters and invitations from Mr. Chandler, of Detroit, have been forwarded her tendering her Dr. Duffield's First Presbyterian Church in that city, for a Concert, and there is no doubt but she will go up on one of the steamers of the line, in the course of the present month. This will be pleasant news for our Detroit friends.—Buff. Com.

PLEASURE EXCURSION TO LAKE SUPERIOR.—The steamer London will start on a Pleasure Excursion to Lake Superior from Cleveland, on the 22d inst., and Detroit on Wednesday morning following. On arriving at the Soo, the passengers will be transferred to the excellent steamer Monticello, for the excursion up Lake Superior.

This is a trip worth taking. It is worth a dozen tours to the Falls or Saratoga. Instead of melting at the latter place, you have a fine cool and invigorating air on the Lakes and in the Superior country. The invalid or well person, it will re-invigorate. Then the scenery is unequalled in any section of our country. Besides all the other inducements, the trip will be made on a route that but few of our citizens have ever visited. At Eagle river and vicinity, the celebrated Cliff and other mines can be seen, which are the wonder of the world.—Detroit Trib.

THANKSGIVING DAY.—The Indiana Statesman contains the following statement. We trust Gov. Wood will be successful in bringing about the arrangement. It will be the sublimest moral spectacle ever contemplated, for a nation of twenty millions of people to meet at the same hour and return simultaneous thanks to God for our unparalleled national prosperity.

An effort is being made by Gov. Wood of Ohio, in pursuance of a joint resolution of the Ohio Legislature, to have a uniform day of Thanksgiving and Prayer, in all the States of the Union, and he has corresponded with the Executives of the several States on the subject. The day selected will most probably be the last Thursday in November. This is right, and we hope all the States of the Union will adopt the suggestion.—Columbus Statesman.

BLOOMER WEDDING.—The Boston Commonwealth of last Tuesday says:

"One of the editorial fraternity of this city, took the hand of a fair lady in marriage last evening, whose costume was an elegant white satin Bloomer. It was neatly made, fitting snug around the waist and close up to the neck, the spencer opening in front like a naval officer's vest, and interlaced a la Swiss Mountaineer—sleeves flowing, white kids, white satin slippers, hair done plain with a wreath of orange flowers over the brow, and a long bridal veil flowing from the crown of the head over the shoulders."

☞ We learn that Mr. J. S. Silsbee, the well known Yankee Comedian, has received the appointment of bearer of Despatches to Europe, and sails on the 19th inst., in the steamer Pacific.—Buff. Com.

UTICA, TUESDAY, JULY 15, 1851.

The Jenny Lind's Concert.

Last evening may well be regarded as an epoch in the history of our city. The Concert of Jenny Lind will mark it as white in the calendar. We were among those who had retained their gravity and coolness up to the latest hour. But we have now learned in some degree, why people go into ecstacies at the singing of the Nightingale.

The number of tickets sold for the Concert was 1,033. The church was of course filled, and with such an audience as Jenny alone could attract. Of the performers, other than the Queen of Song, we will not speak. Mr. Burke is undoubtedly an artist of the first order of merit. Sig. Belletti we admired very much. Sig. Salvi and Mr. Goldschmidt and Sig. E. Belletti, on the clarionet, would be chief attractions in any other company than that in which they now are. But for ourselves, we cared very little for what they were. Our attention turned itself to her whose voice has tranced Europe and America.

Her personal appearance, to which no portrait we ever saw does anything like justice, is exceedingly striking. The chief impression is that of intellect, deeply engrossed in a single idea. She speaks English with a little foreign accentuation; yet so little as to add to, rather than to mar the beauty of her singing.

The air—"I know that my Redeemer liveth," realized our high-wrought expectations. But when we heard "Casta Diva," although we had heard it a score of times by eminent singers, it seemed as though we then listened to it for the first time. It was delightful to listen to such entrancing melody. But it was the "Bird Song" that gave us the most complete idea of Jenny's power. We shall hereafter palliate any enthusiasm which may be manifested at the Nightingale's songs. Such songs warrant feelings and expressions, that hardly anything else will warrant. "Sweet Home" was sung with a power that sent it home to the heart of every one, as it evidently came from the heart of the singer. "Comin' thro' the Rye," was given with all the coyness and coquettishness that belongs to it. It of itself would have been a musical feast rarely surpassed. The "Echo Song" concluded the Concert. What it is, those who heard it will never forget; and its echoes will long linger in the memory.

Applause was loud and long at the close of every piece. Salvi was encored in the "Serenade," and Belletti in "La Tarantella."—Jenny was rapturously called back in "Casta Diva," in the "Bird Song," in "Sweet Home," and in "Coming thro' the Rye." Belletti received a Boquet, and at the close of the "Echo Song" Jenny was literally showered with flowers.

There were at least two thousand people listening to the Concert from without. Only once or twice did they become noisy, and then but for a moment. No unpleasant circumstance occurred to mar the harmony of the occasion. The C... that such a treat must end, was the most unpleasant thing; and it has ended, but its memory shall remain, like the perfume of faded flowers.

The Blind Authoress.

Mrs. S. H. DeKroyft, authoress of a collection of letters entitled "A Place in thy Memory," is on a visit to this city. Her history will commend her to the consideration of every person of feeling. That history is sufficiently expressed in a sentence of the preface to her book:—"Three summers ago I was in one short month a bride, a widow, and blind." Her bearing is that of a well-educated, and cultivated lady. Her conversation is full of sprightliness and intelligence. But she is blind, and has no resources other than those her book brings her.

But that volume should prove sufficient for her. It is a collection of letters to familiar friends in which she expressed feelings that will bear to be dwelt upon and cherished. The style is concise and natural, and of course forcible and pleasant. The prevailing tone of mind of the writer contrary to what would be anticipated from the fact that she is blind, is pre-eminently cheerful. In one of her letters she says; "were I to bear a report to heaven, I should call this charming world a kind, a loving, a forgiving world. I should say that men oftener love than hate, oftener do good than ill." The book has thus merits of its own. But every one who has any soul will regard its claims upon them, as the production of one who is blind. The authoress has enjoyed the countenance of many persons of distinction. Gen. Taylor warmly commended her to southern hospitality. Other persons of note have spoken of her as eminently deserving of patronage. She has enjoyed the privilege of an interview with Frederika Bremer, and with Jenny Lind.

She will call on our citizens in the course of a few days, to dispose of her volume; from the proceeds of which she hopes to be able to secure a home in her widowhood and blindness. May she succeed in her laudable endeavor!

Jenny Lind Coach.

The Messrs. Butterfield ordered a new coach made, on Tuesday of last week, for the express purpose of conveying Jenny Lind to Trenton Falls. The coach was made by Gould & Co. of Albany, and was according to contract in this city on Saturday. It is one of the most splendid four horse coaches ever seen in this city, notwithstanding that it was made from the rough in four days. Four new setts of splendid harness were purchased for the same occasion.

The enterprise of our worthy fellow-citizens is commendable; but Jenny preferred an open carriage for her jaunt.

However, the splendid establishment has been used. T. F. Butterfield embraced the opportunity of a beautiful day, on Monday afternoon, to call on the Editorial fraternity of the city, and favor them with a drive. It is not often that they get into so splendid a coach. When they do, however, they know how to enjoy it, and how to advise others to try it.

☞ The Photographic Convention was held at the City Hall in Syracuse on Saturday. A large number of Daguerreotypists from all parts of the State were in attendance, and considerable business of importance was transacted.

The convention adjourned to meet in this city about the middle of August.

CALVARY CHURCH.—This church, located on Corn Hill, is already framed, and will be ready for occupation, it is hoped, by the middle of October, certainly as soon as the first of November. F. D. Corey is the builder.

NEW VARIETY OF SWEET POTATOES.—A gentleman residing in South Alabama writes to a friend in Louisville, concerning a variety of the sweet potato, supposed to be from Peru. He says:—It is altogether different, and much superior to any variety of this root hitherto known. It is productive, and attains a prodigious size, even upon the poorest sandy land, and the roots remain without change from the time of taking them out of the ground until the following May. The plant is singularly easy of cultivation, growing equally well from the slip or vine, the top or vine of the full grown plant being remarkably small: the inside is as white as snow. It is dry and mealy, and the saccharine principle contained, resembling in delicacy the flavor of fine virgin honey.

☞ A petition to the President of the United States, has been in circulation in Baltimore, and has received several thousand signatures during the past week, invoking the interference of our government in behalf of Smith O'Brien and his companions in exile. The signers urge that the fate of Smith O'Brien, Meagher, O'Donoghue, Mitchel, McManus and O'Dougherty, ought to be as dear to American Republicans, as that of Kossuth and his noble companions.

☞ John Bryan, Esq., of Utica, a few days prior to the adjournment of the Legislature, sent to the Assembly, for the use of the members, a large can of most superior tobacco, which received the highest commendatory notices from the honorable chewers. They pronounced it a sweet cud, and expressed their obligations in audible tones.—Alb. Express.

Members of Assembly must be competent judges of the "weed." But the reputation of the firm of which Mr. Bryan is a member, can hardly be enhanced by even legislative commendations. They manufacture tobacco, good enough for the people's servants and good enough for the people themselves.

☞ R. U. Sherman was very highly complimented by several members of the Assembly, when the resolution of thanks was under consideration, for his efficient discharge of his duties as clerk of that body. He has indeed "won golden opinions from all sorts of men." We rejoice at such tokens of his success, which we know he deserves, and could have prophecied he would have secured.

His deputy James McQuade, has been hardly less successful in the discharge of his duties. The Albany Express speaks very highly of him.

CHURCH OF THE RECONCILIATION.—The Corner Stone of this Church will be laid today at 3 P. M.

The ceremony of laying the Stone will be conducted by the Rev. T. J. Sawyer of Clinton.

The Address will be delivered by Rev. E. H. Chapin of New York.

An original ode will be sung, written by Mrs. C. M. Sawyer. It will be published tomorrow.

A collection will be taken.

☞ We understand, from our neighbor of the Teetotaller, that arrangements have been made with the Syracuse and Oswego R. R. and the Lake Ontario Steamboat Company to carry representatives to the Quarterly Session of the Grand Division, S. of T., to be held at Buffalo, on the 23d inst., at about half price. This is a "fixed fact," and those who prefer that pleasant route, can avail themselves of it if they please. To arrive in Buffalo in time for the opening session, it will be necessary to be in Oswego in time to take the 4 o'clock boat on Tuesday afternoon.

☞ The Roman Citizen says that Jesse Williams of Rome, is the largest Dairyman in the county. He milks eighty-seven cows of his own, and receives milk from nine different dairymen, who have, one of them sixty-seven, the others from ten to twenty-four cows each. He is now making six hundred and fifty pounds of cheese daily.

TOUCHING INCIDENT.—At the conclusion of the Oration of Mr. Sproule, at "Washington's Head Quarters," in Newburgh, on the 4th, he introduced Henry Gibson, a survivor of "Washington's Life Guard," to his hearers. The aged veteran completed his 100th year on the 18th of February last, but still retains his strength and recollection in a remarkable degree—the reward of a temperate and well spent life.

He was in the battle of Princeton, Trenton and Yorktown; was with Washington during his encampment at Newburgh, and remembers all the excitement produced by the publication of the celebrated "Newburgh Letters."

THE MICHIGAN CONSPIRACY CASE.—The trial of the anti-railroad conspirators was resumed at Detroit on the 9th inst. Mr. Seward had arrived, and the examination of witnesses for the defence was commenced. We see no mention in the Detroit Tribune of the death of Dr. Fitch, and therefore presume that the report of his being poisoned was a fabrication.

REMONSTRANCE.—A remonstrance against the commutation of the sentence of Orcutt is in circulation in this city. The signers are in favor of his execution at the time appointed.

☞ Whitestown sent a delegation of about forty to Madame Bishop's Concert on Saturday evening. There were fully as many present from the same town at Jenny Lind's Concert.

Our neighboring villages are determined to enjoy all city luxuries. This they can do at the cost of only a very pleasant ride.

AMERICAN HOTEL, ROME.—This Hotel has recently passed into the hands of Wood Brothers, who purpose to furnish it in beautiful style, and to make it fully equal to any public house in Central New York.

☞ Queen Victoria has recently, evinced her regard for the moral character of her Court by forbidding Viscount Maldon to appear again at Court, he having seduced the wife of an officer of the Guards.

CROPS IN OHIO.—A letter from Orangeville, Ohio, of July 5th, says that the crops are very promising now, and will soon be ready for harvesting. Live stock of all kinds is selling at good prices, and our wool market has been brought at higher prices than any quoted in your markets, it has ranged from 30 to 60 cts. the figures for a few extra lots.

☞ One dollar twenty-five cents per thousand is the price for setting type at the Great Salt Lake City.

☞ Jenny Lind returned her thanks in person to Mayor Perry of Albany, for his successful public arrangements about the church where her concerts were given in that city.

BULLETIN OF THE AMERICAN ART UNION.—The number for July has just come to hand. The principal illustrations are an etching by Burt, from a painting by Woodville; and an etching on stone by Darley. The former is entitled "The Game of Chess," and represents a group of the time of the Tudors. It is spirited, and strikes the spectator with a conviction of its truthfulness. The subject of the second is taken from Cooper's Pioneers; it introduces "Leatherstocking at the grave of Chingachgook." The spirit of the sketch is subdued, and the author's fee is well embodied in it. We have also several good wood engravings, illustrative of the art of sketching from nature, and "The Filatrice," copied from Brown's bronze statuette, distributed by the Art-Union in 1850.

The number on the whole is a good one.

☞ Nicotine is a most deadly poison, and is the essential principle of tobacco. It was the poison used in the recent horrible murder of a wife's brother by Count Bocarme in Belgium. Orfila, the celebrated toxicologist, has just lectured upon it, and the Bocarme trial has given birth, also, to several medical dissertations on the same subject. Virginia tobacco yields the largest proportion of nicotine; from twenty pounds were extracted four hundred grammes of the poison; a gramme is equal to 15.444 grains troy. The Maryland leaf affords about one-third of that quantity. Nicotine is nearly as powerful and rapid as prussic acid with the animal economy. Five or six drops applied to the tongue of a dog, killed in ten minutes. The convulsive motion was slight.

ACQUITTAL OF THE MORMONS.—The telegraph brings intelligence that James J. Strang, the self-styled "King of the earth," and the rest of the Beaver Island Mormons, who were indicted with him for obstructing the United States mail and other offences, have been promptly acquitted. The jury, probably, gave no credence to the witnesses for the prosecution, who were chiefly Mormon seceders, and personal enemies of the accused.

☞ Father Baden, the first Catholic priest ordained in the United States, is now living in Cincinnati. The Times, of that city, says:—

"He will be eighty-three years of age in fifteen days, is still hale and hearty, and walks about the city with considerable agility. He is very eccentric, and is considered a privileged character wherever he goes. He was formerly a great pedestrian, making nearly all his visits on foot, but has lately had to depend on stage coaches, railroads, and steamboats. One week he is in Louisville, the next in St. Louis, and the following in the East, at Cincinnati, or in the South. Wherever he happens on the Sabbath, no matter who may have an appointment to preach, he deliberately walks into the pulpit and delivers an extempore sermon."

Father Baden is well acquainted with most of the eminent statesmen and other public men of the West, and enjoys in a high degree their good will and esteem.

☞ The Argus characterizes the District formed by St. Lawrence and Herkimer as "a remarkable District."

One other thing is remarkable. Hon. John Hutton, a democratic member of Assembly from St. Lawrence, voted in favor of the apportionment bill, as it passed, and his name is so recorded on the journal of the House.

☞ Experiments with chloroform as a propelling power, in the place of steam, are now making in the port of Lorient; and there is reason to hope, from the success which has already attended them, that they will result in causing considerable saving to be effected in cost and in space.

☞ Marie Maberlini, a contralrice, possessing an attractive person and winning manners, and who is considered, by the Berlinese, superior to Jenny Lind, as a singer, intends coming on a professional tour to this country.

☞ The telegraphic despatch announcing the accident to Col. Schuyler of the Boston Atlas, should have read that he "came near being drowned." He was rescued by two lads.

☞ Beef is sold in the New York market, says the N. Y. Express, from cattle that were grazing on the plains of Illinois a fortnight before. Cattle are brought from Chicago to New York, all the way by steam, arriving of course in much better flesh, and in a much more healthy condition, than if they had been driven. Yet owing to certain arrangements, the price of the article is unaltered.

NATIONAL CONVENTION OF JOURNEYMEN PRINTERS.—The next National Convention of Journeymen Printers will be held in Baltimore on the 12th of September. Arrangements are making to have a full representation of the whole country.

☞ Hon. Christopher Morgan was in town yesterday. He went to Trenton Falls.

INTERESTING CEREMONY.—A costly tea service of silver, specially manufactured for the purpose by Messrs. Ball, Tompkins & Black, of New York, in their best style, was presented to the Hon. Caleb Lyon of the Senate, immediately after the adjournment of the Legislature, Friday, by the Hon. J. B. Varnum, Speaker of the House, in behalf of some of Mr. Lyon's friends in both Houses, and in token of their gratitude for his efficient services in aid of the Canal Policy, so triumphantly sustained by the passage of bills providing for the enlargement of the Erie and the completion of the lateral Canals. The speech of Mr. Varnum and the reply of Mr. Lyon were appropriate and in good taste.—Alb. Reg.

QUICK FIRING.—At the military post commanded by Capt. Abeel, a national salute of 31 guns was fired on the 4th inst., in the short space of five minutes. They declared that, had it been safe so to have done, he could have done it in less time. This is indeed quick work, and although the Captain is not considered a fighting character, yet if this is the way he discharges his artillery, we should by all means, much rather be at peace with him, than "with all the rest of mankind."—Rome Sentinel.

PAINFUL AND SINGULAR OCCURRENCE.—A painful occurrence has taken place in Alexandria. R. P. Andrews, Esq., an eminent lawyer, two or three evenings since, slapped with the back of his hand his servant boy in the mouth; one of the teeth wounded the hand between of his knuckles; and, strange to say, from the effects of that wound Mr. Andrews died last night.—Baltimore Sun.

☞ The Springfield Post says that there are living in the town of Lunenberg, in Mass., at the present time, forty-eight persons who were living when the Declaration of Independence was made. Several of them are over ninety years old. The entire population of the town is but 1,300.

CORONER'S FEES.—The fees of the coroner of the city of New York, for the three months ending June 31st, amounted to $3,062 93½. He held 501 inquests, which, at $5 each, would amount to $2,505. How the balance of $557 93½ was earned for, is somewhat mysterious ... rror.

CIVIL AND ECCLESIASTICAL TYRANNY.—A letter in the Newark Daily Advertiser, dated Florence, June 15th, says:

"Arrests have been made, since the date of my last, at Cesena, Imola, Faenza, Savignano, Rimini, Rotsi, Lugo, Forli, Bologna, &c., for alleged political offences. In the last named city alone, forty worthy proprietors, advocates, physicians, and gentlemen of family, have been put in irons, and the prisons are crowded with the victims of civil and ecclesiastical tyranny. At Rorrigo there has been within the past fortnight, twenty-one executions!"

BLUE ROSE.—The horticulturists of Paris (says a correspondent of the New York Express) have succeeded by artificial crossings in obtaining a natural rose of a blue color, which is the fourth color obtained by artificial means—that and the yellow or tea rose, the black or purple rose, and the striped rose, being all inventions, and the result of skillful and scientific gardening.

☞ At Berlin, an odd ukase seems to have been promulgated, the object of which is to discourage the claque. Those having free admissions to the theatres are to be prohibited from expressing applause or dissatisfaction.

☞ An American sailor was arrested in Matanzas last week, for whipping TEN Spanish soldiers! The authorities put him in the stocks.

☞ Stable (not Table) Talk. 'I say Jim.' 'What?' 'Take black Pete's harness and put it on Jenny Lind—give Napoleon some oats, take little Nell to water, and then rub down Fanny Ellsler.' 'Aye—aye, sir.'

☞ The Auburn Advertiser states that Jenny has agreed to sing there in about two weeks, and that the Second Presbyterian or Universalist Church will be selected for the occasion.

☞ The case of Robert Morris, one of the alleged rescuers of the fugitive slave Shadrach, in Boston, has been transferred by Judge Sprague, in consideration of its involving difficult and important questions of law, to the United States Circuit Court.

COUNTY JAIL.

SEALED Proposals will be received by the Commissioners appointed by the Legislature to build a Court House and Jail in the city of Utica, for building a jail on the lot selected for that purpose on Mohawk street.

Proposals must state the price for all the mason work, iron work, and carpenter work complete, and include the cost of excavation.

Proposals must be left at the store of Hubbell & Curran, before 12 o'clock at noon, on the 29th inst., endorsed, "proposals for building a jail." Bail will be required of the contractor.

The Commissioners reserve the right to reject any or all the proposals, if they deem it for the interest of the county to do so.

Premium Dentist.

The undersigned would respectfully announce to the public, that he may be found at his office in the DEVEREUX BLOCK, where he will be happy to perform all operations in the most approved manner and in a style peculiar to himself.

DR WHITE has adopted a new method of putting in ATMOSPHERIC PRESSURE PLATES, by which they are more readily and firmly held in the mouth, and takes pleasure in saying that he has received a number of certificates as to the great benefit of his new improvement, from those who have formerly worn the old plates, and exchanged them for those which they could use with comfort.

Dr. White has had great experience and success in administering Chloroform, and will be happy to give it to any who desire it, and thus remove their teeth without pain.

☞ All work warranted.

For references refer to Willard Crafts, Esq., Utica; Dr. Whiting Smith, Dr. F. B. Henderson, Harvey Bradley, Whitesboro.

This may certify that I am acquainted with Dr. White and with his work, and have full confidence in his ability and skill.

A STARTLING FACT!—Long continued indisposition results in a wearing out of the coats of the Stomach; in a partial paralysis of the organs which should convert the food into healthy blood; in inflammation and ulceration of the liver and the bowels; and finally, if not checked and subdued, in death. No sane man or woman deliberately resolves to encounter these terrible evils, and yet thousands annually do encounter and fall victims to them, who might invariably be saved by the use of HUTCHINGS' VEGETABLE DYSPEPSIA BITTERS. If time is important in matters of business, it is doubly so as regards health. An early resort to this great alterative, tonic and restorative, will at once relieve the languor, depression of spirits, disorder of the bowels, feeling of hollowness in the stomach, indisposition for active employment flatulence, headache, and oppression after meals, which precede confirmed Dyspepsia. Even when this melancholy disease has obtained a firm hold, and influenced more or less all the functions of the internal organs, it can be expelled and radically cured by a persevering use of this great regulator and renovator of the digestive powers and the nervous system.—[Sunday Times.

Circulars, containing the certificates of remarkable cures, and the high estimation in which this medicine is held by the public press, can be had of the agents free.

☞ Price 50 cents per bottle.
Principal office, 122 Fulton st., N. Y. je20.

☞ There has perhaps never been a medicine before the public so well deserving their confidence and patronage as Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.—No family should be without it, and those who have used it never will. See Advertisement.

PUBLIC BATHS.

WASH AND BE CLEAN.

New Bathing Establishment.

WARM, COLD AND SHOWER BATHS,

At 172 Genesee st., opposite the Museum.

HAVE you taken a bad cold? Have you a headache, sore throat, or are you feverish? If so, give yourself a good washing in warm water, rinsed off with a cold shower bath, or with cold water, and you will find immediate relief. It is the testimony of thousands that bathing is one of the greatest luxuries, and one of the best means of preserving and regaining the health that has ever been discovered.

THE PEOPLE'S BATHS

They are for the public good. The greatest and best physicians and lecturers on Physiology recommend the practice of bathing daily, it is invigorating, strengthening and preventive of health. Every body knows how refreshing it is to wash the hands and face in the morning, and many know by experience that it is much more refreshing and pleasant to keep the body clean.

Something to Interest and Benefit the Ladies.

LADIES PRIVATE BATHS, entrance on Seneca st., where they can be accommodated with warm, cold or shower Baths.

The price of these Baths is one shilling each, or ten tickets for One Dollar, only half the price formerly charged for Baths in this city. Now then, ye who are in favor of cheap Bathing, bathe yourselves, and try to induce others to come; and when one-fourth of the citizens appreciate bathing enough to practice it, baths will be afforded at Sixpence each.

Those who bathe daily can have Baths now at the rate of Sixpence each—Sixteen Tickets for One Dollar! [jy10.] WM. S. SEGAR.

New and Cheap Cabinet, Coffin & Upholstery Ware Rooms.

W. B. MONROE would respectfully announce to the citizens of Utica and vicinity, that he has opened a Cabinet and Upholstery Ware Room, at No. 171 Genesee st., one door below the Museum, where he intends carrying on the above mentioned business in its various branches. Mattrasses, Sofas, Chairs, &c., repaired to order with despatch, on short notice.

The subscriber would respectfully announce to his friends, that although his stock is not very extensive, he can at the same time assure them that it is well selected, and finished in the best workmanlike style, and shall be sold as low as may be found at any other establishment in the city.

He would also inform the public in general, both city and country, that he is prepared to furnish Coffins as good if not superior to any offered by any other establishment. The subscriber having spent several days in New York, for the purpose of obtaining a knowledge of the different styles of both making and trimming coffins, feels as though he can safely say that he can render entire satisfaction.

Bear in mind the No. 171, only one door below the Utica Museum, up stairs.
