

THE CATO CITIZEN.

EDWIN F. BUSSEY, Publisher

AND TRI-COUNTY LEADER

$1.25 Per Year In Advance

VOL. XXV.

CATO, N. Y., THURSDAY, MARCH 6, 1919

Published Weekly

No. 14

MERIDIAN

O. T. Drew is visiting friends in New York.

W. H. Van Wic spent Tuesday in Syracuse.

Mrs. Atwater entertained the C. I. O. Tuesday evening.

Fred Mosher returned home from Syracuse recently.

Fred Cooper and son, Stanley, spent Sunday with his parents.

Im VanDerwerker of Syracuse was the guest of Floyd Easton over Sunday.

Eugene Lyon and family of Port Byron called at James Lyon's, Sunday.

Miss Lela Sine of Syracuse University spent the week end with her parents here.

Miss Mima Easton will return to Oenotata this week for the spring millinery season.

We understand that Wade McKimick has sold his farm to parties from Ononda.

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Peasey of Fairport spent Monday with Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Sine.

Mrs. Ella Humphrey and Georgiana of Syracuse were week end guests at S. V. Cooper's.

The Administration party has placed in nomination candidates as follows: president, Fred J. Mott; treasurer, W. H. Van Wic; collector, J. D. Bloomfield; collector, Harry Gansner. No other nominations have been made.

MRS. MARY A. DUDLEY

The death of Mrs. Mary A. Dudley occurred at her home, Thursday evening, following a week's illness.

Mrs. Dudley was born in Canada Jan. 24th, 1853, but was a resident of this place since her marriage to Justice Oakley Dudley 24 years ago. She was a talented woman, very proficient in music and a great help and inspiration to many of the young people of this community, with whom she was very popular. She was also active in church affairs being a member of the Baptist Church. The near relatives left to mourn her loss are her husband, a daughter, Miss Margaret E. Dudley, a son, Oakley D. Dudley and wife, Mrs. Lawrence Watson of Buffalo.

The funeral was held from the home Sunday afternoon and was largely attended. The service was conducted by Rev. Thomas Packard, assisted by Rev. E. Lloyd Jones, after which the remains were laid to rest in Monumental Grove Cemetery.

CHARLES ADOLPH FOLLER

The death of Charles Adolph Foller, a life long and honored resident of the town of Cato, occurred at his home Tuesday morning. He was ill with bronchitis two weeks and seemed to be rallying when a change for worse came Tuesday morning and the end came quickly.

Mr. Foller was born at the old homestead on Foster hill, December 15th, 1845 and had always resided in this community where he was held in the highest esteem by all. For eight years he served the town in an efficient manner as commissioner of highways. Besides a wide circle of friends, those left to mourn his loss are his wife, a daughter, Mrs. W. J. Gansner and a son, Supervisor Elbert O. Foller.

The funeral was held from the home this afternoon, the Rev. Thomas Packard officiating, after which the remains were laid to rest in Monumental Grove Cemetery.

Presbyterian Church

Rev. E. Lloyd Jones, Pastor

Services will be held at the usual hour this coming Sunday.

The members of the Sunday School who are interested in the journey of the Israelites through the wilderness are urged to be present next Sunday. The pastor expects to give a sketch of the route probably followed, with the aid of a map, at the beginning of the school session. Questions are invited.

Baptist Church

Rev. Thomas Packard, Pastor.

Sunday at 11:00 A. M. "Victory Thanksgiving Program." France, Great Britain, Italy, Serbia and other Allies will be represented in appropriate response. The occasion will be DOLLAR DAY for the purpose of raising the benevolent apportionment of the Church, the year for which closes March 30th. Evening service at 7:30. Subject of sermon, "Bliss." Third of the series.

Paradox.

Said the facetious observer: "After all there are few things that make a girl's heart warm toward you like ice cream."

STERLING CENTER

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Thompson, Feb. 27, a daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Calvert have returned from New Jersey, where they have been for the past month.

The first lesson in nursing was given to women of this vicinity at the home of Mrs. Edith Calvert. The meeting was well attended.

The Brotherhood will meet Saturday evening. At the last meeting Prof. Silvernall of the Rochester Seminary entertained the men.

Peter Deal is confined to his bed, the result of an automobile accident. He was driving in heavy mittens that accidentally moved the throttle and before he discovered the cause of the high speed of his car, he was carried over an embankment at South West, Oswego. The car turned turtle and pinned him under it.

From an Occasional Correspondent

Roy Maynard reported seeing blue birds.

O. C. Oulvert has purchased a farm at Elbridge.

Fred Tabor has sold his pair of colts to Marritt Phillips.

Bert Curtis took dinner Sunday with his sister, Mrs. Frank Tabor.

A private dancing party was held at the home of Charles Stock Wednesday evening.

The cedar cove at the red house is reported open. State troopers are invited to investigate.

The Ladies Aid of the M. E. Church will meet at the home of Mrs. Johnson Wednesday for dinner.

Mrs. J. E. McFadden, who has been sick for a couple of weeks, was able to ride out one morning this week.

Sarah Murray and little daughter, Mary Elizabeth of Baldwinsville are spending a few days with her aunt, Mrs. Harry McFadden.

The Marsh Entertainers and Bell Ringers will give an entertainment in the M. E. Church Monday evening, the 10th. These people come very highly recommended. Admission 15 and 25 cents.

STERLING STATION

Ed Simmons has purchased a Titan tractor.

Mrs. E. A. Terwilliger was shopping in Auburn, Tuesday.

Two flocks of wild geese flew north over this place Friday.

O. L. Davis of Fulton called on friends here Wednesday evening.

Michael Watson of Bowen's Corners spent Sunday with relatives here.

Mrs. Roy Sweeting returned Sunday from a visit with her aunt, Mrs. James Watson at Bowen's Corners.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Mills and two children of Fair Haven were Sunday guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Doyle.

Unless certain parties change their minds between now and spring there will be at least four if not five more autos owned in this immediate vicinity this summer.

Arthur Switzer moved Monday from Michael Doyle's farm to Fred Bentley's in Marville and Thomas Doyle moved into the house and will work his father's farm this summer.

It may not be generally known that there is a house in this locality that covers four acres. This may seem incredible but it can be verified by counting the occupants, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Acre, daughter and son.

About 40 of the friends and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Rudd were pleasantly entertained at their home Thursday evening. All enjoyed a delightful time. Refreshments were served and music for the occasion was furnished by Howard Williams on the violin accompanied on the piano by Miss Emma Sobotta.

MARTVILLE

The Marsh Entertainers and Bell Ringers will give an entertainment in the M. E. Church, Tuesday evening, March 11th. These people come highly recommended. Admission 15 and 25 cents.

Scrappy Pair.

"I was single, and had a dog's life," said the widower. "I married and had a cat and dog's."—Exchange.

VICTORY

Geo Barber has returned from Camp McClellan.

Mrs. Chapman is much improved after being sick.

Ray Longyear returned last week from France.

The maple syrup season is now on at the Root ranch.

Jerome H. Gregory is home from Seneca for the week.

D. A. Goodrich is in Wolcott visiting his sister, Mrs. John Kerr.

Mans Parsons attended his brother's funeral at Auburn, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Platt were week end guests at Eugene Hays.

N. E. Smith enjoys the dances so that he gets ready the night before.

Hon. and Mrs. L. F. Hager and Rose Kerr were in Auburn Tuesday.

W. A. Hager is able to be down to the store after being sick some time.

Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Woodford spent Sunday at Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Kump's.

A. D. Bradley and mother are home after spending the winter in Seneca Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. McIntyre called on Mrs. George Ward at Westbury Monday.

Pvt. Geo. Parsons has returned to this side and is at Elmont, Va. He expects to be home before long.

Clarence Goodrich has been released from Pelham Naval Station and has accepted a position in New York.

MOTION PICTURES

FRENCH HALL
VICTORY
SATURDAY EVENING
Good 4-Act Feature
And a Comedy
Ice Cream
Special Attention to Dress Making and Millinery

O. E. FRENCH

Undertaking, Furnitures, Millinery and Groceries.

NORTH VICTORY

Mrs. Bruce Green is sick.

Mrs. Henry Blanchard is on the sick list.

A party will be held in Odd Fellows Hall, St. Patrick's night.

Charles Gage had a horse drop dead in front of Whiting's last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Blanchard entertained friends from Fulton last Sunday.

Mrs. Maggie Patton is helping care for her parents in Sterling. They are both blind.

Mrs. Stule Timmerman entertained her sister, Velma Sherman from Wolcott, a few days.

Mrs. Dell Teabout spent Tuesday with her brother-in-law, Henry Mott at Elmer Adie's.

Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland Timmerman are spending a few days at George Follett's, near Brick Church.

Andrew Owen, who has been staying with Jerry Sorens, has returned to his home at Marville.

Elmer Adie purchased a new horse and it got lost somehow. He found it at South West Oswego.

Ray, Frank of North Wolcott, where is that box of chocolate drops? I shall be disappointed if I don't get them soon, and I'll certainly be surprised if I do.

Ye proof reader made a mistake last week. Mrs. Bert Searter is visiting her parents at Geneva, also her sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stubbbs Sobotta.

PLAINVILLE

Miss Genevieve Gates, who teaches in the vicinity of Orwell, N. Y., spent an afternoon recently with Mrs. Myrtle L. Bayles at Oswego County Tuberculosis Sanitarium at Richland. Mrs. Bayles accepted a position as nurse Nov. 1st. She was formerly a resident of this village.

In a Restaurant.

"Walter, bring me a glass of water. I want to strengthen this soup."

LYSANDER

Lease Turpening has purchased an automobile.

Wm. Gillett has purchased a truck automobile.

Miss Mildred Barnaskey is enjoying a week's vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. F. P. VanDoren spent Sunday in Cato.

James Vincent of Plainville was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Sobotta Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lela Sobotta of Baldwinsville called on Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Sobotta Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Beckner of Hannibal called at the home of Mrs. Emma Brown last Friday.

The Camp Fire Girls met with Miss May Owen last Saturday, where a pleasant evening was enjoyed.

We are glad to learn that Grover Wither of the place has been before the U. S. Board of Veterinary examiners and passed with honors, receiving his certificate of registration for the year 1919.

GARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our many friends who so kindly assisted us in our recent bereavement, also for the floral offerings from friends, the Missionary society, Opera Circle and Grange.

Mrs. Emma Brown
Miss Mildred Barnaskey
Miss Genevieve Brown
Mrs. Hester Brown

JUNIPER HILL

Oscar Moore lost one of his best cows Monday.

John Waldron was in Auburn recently on business.

Edwin Baggs and Vernon Pettit were in Oswego Tuesday.

Mrs. Henry Pickett visited Mrs. James Smith at Sterling one day last week.

Walter Dugan attended the Elton auction last night and bought one of the cows.

Elmer Barnes and daughter of Sterling were Sunday callers on John Waldron and family.

Geo. VanPatton entertained his niece and daughter, Miss Rob Chase, for dinner last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Smith of Fair Haven visited their daughter, Mrs. Elmer Waldron, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Doyle of South West Oswego visited their daughter, Mrs. Herbert Baggs Sunday.

Mrs. Rob Chase and daughter visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter VanPatton at Fair Haven, Saturday.

Mrs. Ward Johnson of Sealing Station and Mrs. John Cox of Fair Haven visited their father, Egbert Pickett, Tuesday.

IRA

A gold star will be placed on the town service flag for Corporal Jay LaSalle.

Ray Adams' motor truck got stuck fast in the mud near Howard Follett's, yesterday morning. Ineffortful attempts were made to haul them out with horses and at 3 o'clock Mr. Follett's tractor tackled the job with success.

Rev. A. O. Willey announces his text for Sunday, Isaiah 55 "A Highway Shall be There For You" The text is suggested by the condition of the roads in the township. Ira at 11 A. M. Bethel at 3 o'clock.

HAGGETT-FINKLE

The marriage of Miss Marguerite J. Haggett and Leland E. Finkle of Gloversville, took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Haggett, at noon, Tuesday. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. A. O. Willey in the presence of only the immediate relatives Mr. and Mrs. Finkle left for an eastern tour and upon their return will make their home at Plainville.

BETHEL

The Ladies Aid will hold their annual dinner at the home of Mrs. W. E. Sprague, Ira Station, next Wednesday. A program will follow the dinner.

It Depends.

Whether a woman is good-looking depends largely on whether you are speaking of her face or to her face.—Wilmington News.

WESTBURY

John Warren was in Auburn recently.

Mrs. Chas. Lafaver is under the doctor's care.

Henry Fuller of Spring Lake was a caller here Monday.

Dr. Weber was a caller in town on official business Saturday.

Mrs. Ellis of Wolcott spent Sunday at the home of her son, Clark.

Mrs. Crego was the guest of her mother, Mrs. Fred Chapman, over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Teabout visited the latter's place near Wolcott last week. McNeill Palmer has been ill for a week, also Wm. Challer and little Leo Bradford.

Mr. Foster and family of Red Creek were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Spurr, Saturday evening.

Monica Peck, Spurr and Dav were in Auburn, Thursday of last week, to attend the automobile show.

Wm. Fish of Syracuse is visiting his mother and receiving congratulations over the arrival of a 10-pound son.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther Green, Mrs. Mary Chace and Miss Etna Fuller spent last Thursday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Teabout.

NORTH WOLCOTT

W. W. Neal is working for Fay O. Adams of Ira.

Mr. and Mrs. Abram Smith have a son born last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Neal were in Wolcott, Monday.

Miss E. S. Lacy is entertaining her mother and sister from Ilion.

Rev. J. E. Richards of Arkport has been visiting relatives here for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Ferguson spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. George Cox.

August Wistner and family of Fair Haven spent Friday with Mr. and Mrs. George Heath.

Mr. and Mrs. George Heath and Mrs. Mrs. D. Blaisdell were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Larkin.

Nelson Watrin and family, who have been in Detroit all winter, have returned home and will work for Horton O'wood again this year.

RED CREEK

Dr. Philo has a new Chevrolet car.

Geo. Palmer has been ill with injury.

S. E. Coleman was in Lyons Tuesday.

Paul Mangus was in Syracuse over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Mott are home from Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Scott have returned from Cleveland.

A. E. Galsop, wife and baby of North Sterling visited friends here Tuesday.

John Sheehan returned last week, having been discharged from the navy.

Electric lights have recently been installed in the house of Wm. Oramor, John Jones and Fred Waldorf.

Mary, wife of the late Elias Mitchell, died suddenly Sunday evening. She had gone to call on her sister, Mrs. M. Maloney and complained of feeling ill and lived only a short time. She was 80 years old and has lived in this place many years.

BRICK CHURCH

O. D. Waldron was in Auburn Wednesday.

Mr. Carl Wolford called on Mrs. C. D. Waldron, Sunday.

Mrs. Ray Teeter was in Cato Wednesday calling on friends.

Joseph Ferguson spent Wednesday with Mr. and Mrs. Grant Dickerson.

Clyde Mitchell was the over Sunday guest of his father in Monticome.

Mr. and Mrs. Lella Goodell of Cato spent Tuesday with relatives here.

Surprise parties are getting popular. On Tuesday evening a company of friends met at Mr. and Mrs. Gladwin's to give them a farewell party on Wednesday evening the neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Follett gave them a pleasant surprise. A good time was reported at both places, the companies departing in the wee hours of morning.

Dickerson's Scratch Feed 4 1/2 per pound. Cato Mercantile Co.

CROSS LAKE, EAST SIDE

Earl Reed has a Ford.

Harold and Raymond Raf are spending sometime with relatives in Syracuse.

Ada Wright of Broadbridge was the week end guest of her sister, Mrs. Will Sobotta.

Mrs. Joseph Coburn is spending some time with Mrs. Earl Fowler at Baldwinsville.

Mrs. C. Town spent a few days last week with her son, Ray DeLuce and wife, near Fulton.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Town and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Town of Baldwinsville spent Sunday at C. Town's.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Turner spent Sunday with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Turner at Plainville.

CONQUEST

Stule Howell is slowly gaining after a severe illness.

Mrs. J. M. Opper has been quite ill during the week.

Harold Mason, who has been sick for a week or so is able to be out again.

Mrs. Hattie Johnson is home after spending the greater part of the winter with friends at Port Byron.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl VanNorstrand spent Wednesday and Thursday in Syracuse. They called on Mrs. Fred P. Cooper in the People's Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Geismella and family have moved to Medina. Mr. Geismella, who has made better and cheer for John Mason for a year, has made many friends who regret their departure. May good fortune attend them.

County Court

Morton Beardsley, convicted of stealing an auto belonging to Wm. Meade of Marville, was given an indeterminate sentence in Elmira Reformatory. His father swore that he bought the auto for the young man and paid Meade $100 for it. He will probably have to face a charge of perjury.

Miss Sarawick was convicted of entering Albert Skilton's store at Auburn and stealing a quantity of shoes.

Anna Russell of Auburn was fined $100 for violation of the liquor law.

Ray Wornath, charged with failing to support his family, was paroled on condition that he pay $10 a week for their support and report to Overseer of the Poor A. O. Thayer.

At the request of the district attorney the case of Jacob Smith, charged with arson was put over the term on account of an important witness having been sprung away Attorney Eider, in Smith's behalf protested against the delay.

Election Notice.

Notice is hereby given that the Annual Election of the Village of Cato, N. Y., will be held on Tuesday, March 12th, 1919, at the room in the rear of the Masonic Club in the Backer Block, in the Village of Cato, N. Y. The polls will open at one o'clock p. m., and close at five o'clock p. m. The following officers are to be chosen:

A president in the place of Cornelius H. Goodfellow. Term one year.

A treasurer in the place of George A. Cooper. Term two years.

A treasurer in the place of Frank Cooney. Term one year.

A collector in the place of Curry B. Dutton. Term one year.

Ira J. Kingsley, Clerk
Dated, Feb. 27, 1919.

Farmers Attention

A special meeting of the Central New York Tobacco Growers' Co-operative Association, Inc., will be held on Saturday, March 23rd, at 1:00 o'clock p. m., in Grange Hall, Baldwinsville.

A meeting of the directors will be held at Seneca Hotel parlors at 10:00 a. m. on the same day.

A representative of the Bureau of Co-operative Associations of Albany and J. E. Tull of the Onondaga Farm Bureau will be present and address the meeting. All come!

Private Sale

Fordson tractor and plow, 300 bushels seed oats, 3 Holstein new milk cows, 3 Ormsby new gilch cows, Durham cow due in April, Guernsey heifer due in April, Heister better dug in April, 20 bushels seed potatoes.

One mile from Ira, three miles from Cato, on the old Phelps place.

Cash or credit on good endorsed notes.

JACOB NOVOTON
Phone 15-J-6