

We Carry the Best!

SHEAFFER'S Skrip Leads. Companions to make your pens and pencils write better. SKRIP makes all pens last longer—keeps them clean by not allowing them to get dirty. Sheaffer's stronger leads fit all makes of pencils. Erasers, too.

The Frank M. Douglass Co.

Advertisement for Becker Funeral Service, featuring a graphic of a funeral home entrance and contact information for Red Creek, N. Y.

CLASSIFIED

HORSES and cows wanted. $5 to $20 for horses on their feet. Dead-stock for removal. Bring your raw furs and hides to the plant for highest prices.

BATTERIES—Flashlight; 45 volt B, $1.75; 1 1/2-90 volt packs, $6.25; 1 1/2 volt dry-cell, 45c; 6 volt hot shorts, $2.50. Jones' Electric Store, Red Creek, N. Y.

WANTED—Live poultry of all kinds. Write J. J. Vaughn, Mexico, N. Y. Phone 83, Mexico. 2-24-w4

WANTED—Children to board. Christian home. Reasonable rates. Mrs. C. E. Richardson, Martville, N. Y. 2-24-w3

WANTED—Village property, cash price. Write 9 Benton St., Auburn, N. Y. 3-3-w2p

FOR RENT—Farm of 122 acres. About 40 acres hay to cut. Frank Henry, Meridian. 3-9-w2p

FOR SALE—Two-year-old Guernsey and Ayrshire heifer, to freshen about last of April. Oliver Field, Fair Haven. Phone Fair Haven 8-Y-3. w1

LOST—A and C gasoline ration books. If found return to Bert S. White, Meridian, N. Y. w1

FOR SALE—Pair of matched mares, weight around 3,000 lbs., chestnut, star in forehead, well broken, kind and true in all harness, 7 years old. Reason for sale young team of colts coming on. Can be seen at farm, Red Creek-Westbury road. G. R. Bishop, Red Creek. w1p

WANTED—Tenant for 200-acre farm, 30 acres under cultivation, located six miles northwest of Red Creek. Good opportunity for right man. W. G. Phippin, Red Creek. w1p

LOST—Two black and white heifers. Reward if found. Ethana 16-F-21 Fair Haven. Windfield Kyle, Sterling Station, N. Y.

NOTICE OF ANNUAL ELECTION

NOTICE is hereby given that the annual election will be held in the Village of Cato, New York, at the fire engine house on the north side of East Main Street, in the Village of Cato, N. Y., on the 21st day of March, 1944, between the hours of one o'clock in the afternoon and five o'clock in the afternoon; and that at such election the following officer is to be elected for the term set opposite thereto respectively: A Trustee in the place of Lester Pople, term two years. Dated Feb. 29, 1944. IRA J. KINGSLY, Village Clerk.

Comings, Goings, Doings in Cato and Vicinity

Mrs. Ernest Wilkes and daughter, Mrs. Ruth Deas of Detroit, called on their uncle, James Schenck, of Plainville last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Loyal Ford and two young sons have moved into the Kennedy house in East Main st., Cato. The house is now owned by Percy Cowlin of Meridian.

Pvt. and Mrs. Lewis Van Wie of Fort Bragg, N. C., surprised their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Van Wie, Tuesday night. They will spend an eight-day furlough with relatives and friends here.

Mrs. Kenneth Brane and infant son, Robert Loren, are home from Crouse-irving hospital, Syracuse. They are staying at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Adolf Salawski.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Van Wie spent the week-end in Rochester with their daughter, Miss Lucille Van Wie.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Greene and daughter Marge of Auburn were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Roarke and family. Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Greene of Rochester called at the Roarke home Sunday afternoon.

Dr. Harold G. Muller of Cato has again been deferred by the draft board for several months, at least.

Earl Chapman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Chapman of Cato, left to join the army Monday. Earl was a member of this year's championship basketball team at C-M.

Mr. and Mrs. Lealie Longyear and daughter and Mrs. Mary Hare have moved to the Stanley Dejew farm near Sennett.

Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Greene, Mrs. Frank Greene and Susan Roarke called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Justin Baldwin and daughter Janet Sunday afternoon.

Miss Marge Greene of Auburn called on Miss Barbara Horne Sunday.

Mrs. Ruth Dean returned to Detroit, Mich., Sunday afternoon after spending a week's vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Wilkes.

The regular meeting of Cato Grange will be held Tuesday evening, Mar. 14.

The next Grange dance will be held Thursday evening, Mar. 16. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cory, Ronald and Lula Cory and Mrs. Florence Ashby attended the funeral of their cousin, Mrs. Lewis Laird, of Jordan.

Miss Jo Ann Wright spent Friday night in Auburn with her sister, Mrs. Thomas Ryan. Miss Ruth Montgomery of Auburn accompanied the young ladies home for the week-end.

Calvin Weldon, A/S, Sec. 23, V-12 Unit, St. Lawrence University, Canton, N. Y., is Calvin's new address. He is now in the navy air corps. The son of Mr. and Mrs. David Weldon, he left for service last week. He was a star athlete at C-M and a member of the basketball team.

Cpl. Thomas Dalton of Camp Chaffee, Ark., accompanied by his wife and little Craige of Rochester, called at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Dalton Tuesday. Cpl. Dalton is home on a short furlough.

Mrs. Clifford Buyma visited at the home of her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Butman and Bobby, in Rochester from Saturday night until Tuesday.

Rev. Roland Fredericks is in Philadelphia this week.

Mrs. Amos Kelley entertained the Rebekahs of North Victory at a card party at her home Friday afternoon. There were 20 present.

Mrs. Barbara Fries of Rochester was the week-end guest of Mrs. Edgar Armstrong and son.

CONQUEST

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Homer B. Smith Friday, Mar. 3, a son at Syracuse Memorial hospital.

A goodly number attended the regular meeting of Conquest Grange held last Saturday evening.

A good literary program was presented and refreshments served. Next regular meeting will be held Saturday evening, Mar. 18.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Guidone and daughter have moved from the Struble farm to Port Byron village. The Mitchell family, who recently purchased this farm, are moving on it.

Some from here attended the funeral of the late William Young at Weedsport last Friday. He was 86 years old and quite well known here. He was a brother of Mrs. Ocie Van Guider of this place. He had been in ill health for a number of years. Burial was in Emerson cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. George Price expect to move into their home here in the village about Mar. 5.

Thermometers registered 8 and 10 degrees below zero Sunday and Monday here in town.

Miss Bertha Lake is ill and a patient in Auburn City hospital this week and is unable to attend her teaching duties at Port Byron Central school.

Walter Smith has started running one of his greenhouses, growing plants for the early crops and markets.

Harold Allan was a Sunday evening caller at the Clifford Allen home near Savannah.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Crowell and family entertained at dinner Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Allen and family of Savannah.

Mrs. J. D. Crowell called on Mrs. Lloyd Lincoln and son, Lloyd Dewitt, last Thursday. Mrs. Fred Walker of Spring Lake called there Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Lunkenheimer will reside in the near future in the home owned by Howard Slayton near Spooks woods. Leo will work on the Slayton farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Fisher moved this past week from the former Mosher farm east of Conquest to the John Van Deren farm near Meridian.

Mrs. Florence Burke has spent some time recently here with her son, LeRoy Burke, and family. Conquest Grange is planning to have a pancake supper in the near future at their hall. Please watch for further notice.

Mrs. R. C. Hebblethwaite is spending some time with her son, the Rev. H. W. Hebblethwaite, at Hilton, who was seriously injured in an auto-city bus accident a week ago last Thursday. He became worse after his discharge from the hospital.

Rev. R. C. Hebblethwaite is supply teacher in religious education at P.E.C.S. during the absence of Rev. Stiles. He attended the Syracuse-West District preachers' meeting at Auburn Tuesday.

LOOKING BACKWARD

30 Years Ago

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Dennison and children of Benton's Corners visited her parents in Meridian this week by "Snow Board Visitation."

The death of George Davis, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Davis at Jordan, occurred as the paper went to press.

The death of Mrs. Martha Taylor occurred at her home west of this village Wednesday, following an illness due to heart disease.

Miss Harriet Lang, went to Weedsport Saturday to attend a shower given by Miss Mae Wolford for Miss Kathleen Wiseman, whose marriage to Ralph Wolford was soon to take place.

Frank Lovelless was to work Briggs Flint's farm, then occupied by L. J. LaBuff, who was to return to his own place.

Godfellow was enlarging and remodeling the rear portion of his residence.

Supervisor James D. Bloomfield was confined to the house with rheumatism.

Dr. Lamb had the misfortune to fall Monday on the walks and put his wrist out of place.

Howard Everts had been ill for several days.

George Mott returned from his western tour Saturday. He was favored with good weather all through the trip.

Several young people enjoyed a nice supper Monday evening in honor of Elden Foster's 15th birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Turner were surprised by the Birthday club Tuesday evening in honor of their 40th wedding anniversary. They received two nice gifts.

Mrs. J. B. Quackenbush and daughter Marion were spending a few days with her father, W. A. Hager. Marion was to remain with her grandfather for a time.

Walter Van Norstrand was to move his barber shop and pool room to rooms in the east end of the Curtis House.

The death of Preston L. Rhoads occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Jewell following a long illness.

Bert Foster came home sick last Thursday with erysipelas. Russ Slauson was caring for him.

Roger Spaulding and John Keetch were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. C. Drew Saturday at a chicken dinner. Games and music made the time go all too soon.

An epidemic of flu was sweeping the state. Sodus had 1,000 cases and Geneva 2,500. At Phelps the school had been closed.

Mrs. Carl Hapeman entertained a number of ladies Friday evening at a kitchen shower in honor of Miss Cora Maude Hapeman, who was to be an Easter bride.

Word came from Newark, N. J., that Charles Chase had just had an operation for appendicitis and complications.

Cadwell District

Mr. and Mrs. Vern Brand and son spent last Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Neil Washer at Pennsville.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Blake and son of Oswego, Mrs. Isaac Blake and son of Volney and Mrs. Amos Dennison of Fulton spent Thursday evening at the D. S. Dennison home.

Mr. and Mrs. Gail Southard of Syracuse spent Friday afternoon at the Carl Southard home and called at the D. S. Dennison home.

18 Years Ago

The death of Preston L. Rhoads occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Jewell following a long illness.

Bert Foster came home sick last Thursday with erysipelas. Russ Slauson was caring for him.

Roger Spaulding and John Keetch were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. C. Drew Saturday at a chicken dinner. Games and music made the time go all too soon.

An epidemic of flu was sweeping the state. Sodus had 1,000 cases and Geneva 2,500. At Phelps the school had been closed.

Mrs. Carl Hapeman entertained a number of ladies Friday evening at a kitchen shower in honor of Miss Cora Maude Hapeman, who was to be an Easter bride.

Word came from Newark, N. J., that Charles Chase had just had an operation for appendicitis and complications.

Mrs. R. C. Hebblethwaite is spending some time with her son, the Rev. H. W. Hebblethwaite, at Hilton, who was seriously injured in an auto-city bus accident a week ago last Thursday. He became worse after his discharge from the hospital.

Rev. R. C. Hebblethwaite is supply teacher in religious education at P.E.C.S. during the absence of Rev. Stiles. He attended the Syracuse-West District preachers' meeting at Auburn Tuesday.

VICTORY

The Junior Fellowship met with Rhoda Sanford at the McNelly home Saturday noon. Luncheon was enjoyed, also a social hour celebrating Rhoda's birthday and their weekly meeting.

Sympathy is extended to the family of the late Charles Burdick, who died last week.

A very helpful meeting was held last Wednesday afternoon and evening at the church with supper served at 6 o'clock by the W.S.C.S.

Mrs. Irving O'Bryan, sons Frederick and Harold and daughter Ruth visited the former's sister, Mrs. William Bartle, Mr. Bartle and daughters at Newark Sunday evening. Ruth went on to Rochester that evening. The others returned to Victory Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Robinson of Westbury entertained at a dinner party Saturday evening at their home in honor of Pvt. Frederick O'Bryan, home on furlough from Drew Field, Fla., and Harold O'Bryan, who has enlisted and is awaiting his call to the air corps. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Robinson of Red Creek, Mrs. Clarence Shultz and sons Robert and Bruce of Westbury, Mr. and Mrs. Irving O'Bryan of Victory and Miss Ruth O'Bryan of Rochester, the guests of honor and hosts.

Mrs. Ora Woodford entertained at her home for the evening last Thursday Dr. and Mrs. McCombe, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Hornburg, Mr. and Mrs. Hamlin Bacon, Mrs. Frank Smith of Port Byron and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Boughtling. The hostess served ice cream and cake for refreshments.

Pvt. Frederick O'Bryan and Miss Wilma Monroe were supper guests and spent the evening Monday with Mr. and Mrs. Donald Walker at Auburn.

As the Sebago potato thrives on a variety of soils, is resistant to blight, and yields well, it makes an excellent variety for home gardeners to plant.

Cards of Thanks

I wish to thank my friends and neighbors for their many acts of kindness and the flowers, plants, candy and cards received during my hospitalization. Mrs. Homer Matson. w1p

AFTER a fire many persons find that they had not regarded their fire insurance seriously enough. The time for you to be sure is NOW!

ASK this agency to assist you—without any obligation—in this matter so very important to your financial security.

"The Best Only"

FRANK CASEY INSUROR

PHONE 100 CATO

Warren Button, owner Merle Manroe, Cato, assistant Willis Prudom, clerk

Preston Thompson has returned from a visit with his daughter, Mrs. Mildred Harding, in Oswego.

Mrs. A. L. Pittenger was accompanied home by her daughter, Miss Helen Pittenger, from Pontiac, Ill., where they have been spending some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Amos Kelly entertained at dinner Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Terpening and son Harold. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Spoor joined them for supper Sunday evening.

Mrs. Donald Streeter of Lockport has been spending a few days this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Streeter and family.

MERIDIAN

The Women's Union will meet at the Firemen's club rooms Tuesday, Mar. 14, at 2:30. Hostess is Mrs. May Davis. The program is "Remember When?" The chairman is Mrs. Inez Davis. Each lady is requested to bring old pictures of herself and also pictures of the village of yesterday.

Miss Yvette Mercier of Louisville was in town Saturday calling on friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Stall were called to Syracuse Saturday night by the serious illness of their daughter, Agnes Kingsley.

Cpl. Robert G. Dudley of Fort Riley, Kan., is spending a furlough with Mr. and Mrs. Dick Dudley and Edwin.

Pvt. Robert Shaben is home on leave from Lincoln, Neb. On his return he will go to Salt Lake City, Utah.

There will be a covered dish supper in the Firemen's club rooms Friday night at 7 p. m. Everyone is cordially invited to come and have a pleasant evening of cards.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Gumaer and family have moved from their home east of Meridian to Jamesville.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Calkins and children called Sunday on John R. Purdy and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hedger.

Hiram Roe is said to be gaining a bit in Auburn City hospital.

Dr. Clarence Daniels, local health officer, has been conducting an ear clinic on Monday and Thursday mornings of this week at the Cato-Meridian Central school.

Recent callers of Miss Janette Taylor were Mrs. A. P. Huggins, Mrs. Jasper Wanda, Homer Matson and Rev. and Mrs. Rogers of Spring Lake.

Mrs. Carl Baines spent Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Harry Raines and family.

DR. M. T. MOUNT

TEL. 81-J-2 DENTIST Hours 9 A. M. to 5 P. M. OFFICE CLOSED THURSDAYS

Like to feel important?

YOU'LL BE important—in your country, and to your family—when you take over a vital job in the Army.

In the Women's Army Corps you'll get expert Army training that may save the way to a postwar career. You'll have a chance to improve your skill or learn a new one—to meet new people, see new places, have experiences you'll remember all your life.

Get full details about the WAC at any U.S. Recruiting Station. Or write for interesting booklet. Address: The Adjutant General, 4415 Munitions Bldg., Washington 25, D. C. (Women in essential war industry must have release from their employer or the U. S. Employment Service.)

AUCTION!

The undersigned will sell his farming equipment and household goods at public auction at the former Will Hursh farm located one and one-half miles south of Cato village on Weedsport road, on

THURSDAY, MARCH 16, 1944

Commencing at 1:00 o'clock sharp, the following: EXTRA NICE PAIR BAY MARES Young, weight 3200 lbs., well matched and right in every way; 2 heavy harnesses and collars, heavy breast collar.

11-Tube Van Brunt Grain Drill, New New disc harrow, McCormick-Deering cylinder loader (new), John Deere grain binder, 7-ft. cut (new); McCormick-Deering side rake slightly used, hay tedder, horse rake, new hay rack, 2 good lumber wagons, McCormick-Deering manure spreader, good; McCormick-Deering mowing machine, new wooden roller, 2 harrows, 2 plows.

POWER CORN SHELLER.

Good as new with capacity to shell 200 bushels per hour. Power grindstone, good pair of hobs and wood rack, wagon box, heavy sleigh, dump bottom, road wagon and demount wagon, fanning mill, platform scales, 1500 lbs. capacity; wagon springs, large-truck canvas, bag truck, large quantity of Cornell No. 11 seed corn, wheelbarrow grass seeder, shop tools.

QUANTITY OF HOUSEHOLD GOODS

Walnut bedroom suite complete, new; E-Z-set Way 5-burner oil stove with built-in oven, new; complete bedroom suite, 3 iron beds, springs and mattresses, 4 kitchen chairs, oak dining table, goose feather pillow; and 2 feather ticks, spring couch, extra good over-stuffed chair, center table, nice plush robe, mahogany wall clock, Sessions work; Victrola and records, music cabinet, White sewing machine, odd dressers, cabinet radio, good collie cow dog, trunk, ironing board, dishes and tinware, collection of four lamps and other articles.

TERMS CASH—Unless credit arrangements are made with First National Bank of Cato or with Earl Clark, who will be in attendance on day of sale.

HOWARD FOX, F. & C. GRABOSKE, Owners. Merle Manroe, Cato, Auctioneer Willis Prudom, Clerk

day afternoon with Mrs. Harry Raines and family.

The fire training school for the Cato, Ira and Meridian firemen started last Wednesday night in the Firemen's club rooms with an attendance of 45.

Mrs. Lena E. Knapp of Wolcott spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Easton, and Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Wanda.

Joyce Southard spent Monday night with Shurline Southard.

The Red Cross drive is on. Let us do our part and help our boys here and over there.

Mrs. Belle Bartlett is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Howard Sayles and family.

CARD AND GAME PARTY

Benefit of St. Patrick's Church to be held in

CATO GRANGE HALL

Friday Evening, March 17

Refreshments and Door Prize

Public Welcome

Public Welcome

Everything for the Poultryman

BROODERS—Coal, Kerosene, and Electric.

FEEDERS—Chick Size, Growing Size and Flock Feeders.

FOUNTS—1 and 2 Qt., 1, 2, 3, 5 and 8 Gallon

CHICKS—Half's Quality Chicks

FEEDS—A Complete Line Starting Mash, Broiler Feed, Laying Mash, and Grains

REMEDIES & DISINFECTANTS—To Meet All Conditions

Order Hall Bros. Chicks Now

Red Creek Farm Supply

Phone 2341 Red Creek, N. Y.

New Spring Footwear

New Fashioned Shoes for Men, Women and Children Are Now in Stock

LADIES' COTTON HOUSE DRESSES In floral and striped prints.

SWEATERS In pastel shades for girls and women.

HEAD SCARFS In lovely spring colors.

Dress Up Your Suit With a CRISP NEW DICKIE In White or Colors

J. H. WETHERBY

RED CREEK, N. Y.

AUCTION!

The undersigned will sell their farming equipment and household goods at public auction at the former Will Hursh farm located one and one-half miles south of Cato village on Weedsport road, on

THURSDAY, MARCH 16, 1944

Commencing at 1:00 o'clock sharp, the following: EXTRA NICE PAIR BAY MARES Young, weight 3200 lbs., well matched and right in every way; 2 heavy harnesses and collars, heavy breast collar.

11-Tube Van Brunt Grain Drill, New New disc harrow, McCormick-Deering cylinder loader (new), John Deere grain binder, 7-ft. cut (new); McCormick-Deering side rake slightly used, hay tedder, horse rake, new hay rack, 2 good lumber wagons, McCormick-Deering manure spreader, good; McCormick-Deering mowing machine, new wooden roller, 2 harrows, 2 plows.

POWER CORN SHELLER.

Good as new with capacity to shell 200 bushels per hour. Power grindstone, good pair of hobs and wood rack, wagon box, heavy sleigh, dump bottom, road wagon and demount wagon, fanning mill, platform scales, 1500 lbs. capacity; wagon springs, large-truck canvas, bag truck, large quantity of Cornell No. 11 seed corn, wheelbarrow grass seeder, shop tools.

QUANTITY OF HOUSEHOLD GOODS

Walnut bedroom suite complete, new; E-Z-set Way 5-burner oil stove with built-in oven, new; complete bedroom suite, 3 iron beds, springs and mattresses, 4 kitchen chairs, oak dining table, goose feather pillow; and 2 feather ticks, spring couch, extra good over-stuffed chair, center table, nice plush robe, mahogany wall clock, Sessions work; Victrola and records, music cabinet, White sewing machine, odd dressers, cabinet radio, good collie cow dog, trunk, ironing board, dishes and tinware, collection of four lamps and other articles.

TERMS CASH—Unless credit arrangements are made with First National Bank of Cato or with Earl Clark, who will be in attendance on day of sale.

HOWARD FOX, F. & C. GRABOSKE, Owners. Merle Manroe, Cato, Auctioneer Willis Prudom, Clerk