COLUMBIA CIRCLE HAS GOOD TIME

Mrs. Parker Retires After Serving Two Years—Good Time Enjoyed by Ladies of G. A. R.

No matter how interesting may be ceremonies incidental to the work of installing officers, there is a sameness which makes the work a dry task, more or less. Recognizing this point the members of Columbia Circle, Ladies of the G. A. R., resolved to relieve dull cove by giving a dinner at Hotel Lewis. The date was set for last night and a happy evening ensued for everybody. When the members of the Circle and their guests had finished the meal the work of installation under the guidance of Mrs. Jennie Graves of Watertown. Past Department President, was begun. During the evening, Mrs. Parker, the retiring President, was presented with a star, emblem of the order. The act was in recognition of the faithful work performed during her administration of two years. Mrs. Parker made fitting response and in turn presented the Circle with a beautiful specimen of Old Glory. Mrs. Parker reported the Circle to be in a flourishing condition. Miss Thelma Parker and Miss Rear furnished the program of music.
The officers installed were as follows:
Mrs. May L. Hammond, president;

Miss Eva Palmer, senior vice president; Mrs. Guernsey, junior vice president; Mrs. Battles, secretary; Mrs. Cora Hill, treasurer; Mrs. Dora Drury chaplain; Mrs. Maude Ouderkerk, conductress; Mrs. Jessie Waugh, assistant conductress; Mrs. Ottman, guard; Mrs. Rear, assistant guard.

Impressive installation ceremonies marked last night's meeting of Mary Patterson Court, No. 50, Order of Amaranth, when Mr. W. H. Spawwick, Mrs. F. Byrem and Mrs. W. H. Hornibrook assisted in the work as installing officer and marshals respectively. The result of the installation is as follows:
Mrs. Anna Bellows, Royal Matron; Mr. E. S. Robinson, Royal Patron; Mrs. W. H. Spawwick, Associate Royal Matron; Mrs. Carrie Sadlemyer, treasurer; Mrs. Gertrude Washburn, Secretary; Mrs. Sadie Mickel, conductress; Mrs. Edith Beadle, associate conductress; Mrs. Lucy Andrews, Warder; Mrs. Minnie Gardner, Standard bearer; Mrs. H. Blodgett, Prelate; Mrs. I. Stoddard, Trustee; Mrs. A. Bonner, Truth; Mrs. F. Robinson, Faith; Mrs. L. Latham, Wisdom; Mrs. S. Bateman, Charity; Mrs. C. Grommis, Marshal in E; Mrs. J. Jardiner, Marshal in W; Mrs. E. Mon, Pianist; Mrs. F. Dutcher, Historian.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS PLAN MINSTRELS

The Knights of Columbus at a recent meeting made plans for a minstrel show to be held in the near future.

A committee consisting of Frank Massaro, Prof. Lannigan, John Frawley, William Watson, L. Krause and Harvey DuBois, will have charge of the affair and they will in turn appoint sub-committees to handle various details of the show. The cast will not be made up of local talent entirely, for some of the actors will be enlisted from members of the order residing in Syracuse and Oswego. Frank Massaro is chairman of the committee appointed at the meeting.
