FRATERNITY INSURANCE.

Supreme Court Decision In Regard to Barring Persons Engaged in the Liquor Business.

The Supreme Court of Missiouri has handed down a decision which will be of interest to all fraternal insurance organizations which have in their by-laws a provision barring persons engaged in the liquor business from membership and the benefits thereof.

The decision is, in brief, that such provision cannot be made effective against a member who engages in the prohibited business after he has been admitted to membership.

The question at issue was whether Mrs. Ida Matthews, of Kansas City was entitled to a death benefit of $2,000 on account of the death of her husband, who was a member of the Modern Woodmen of America. That order bars men in the liquor business. When Matthews joined it he was a jeweler. Thereafter he became a bartender, and was engaged in that occupation when he died.

Payment of the death benefit was refused on the ground that Matthews violated a rule of the order when he took employment as a bartender.

Judge Lamar, who wrote the opinion accompanying the decision in favor of the widow, held that the policy was not forfeited by the prohibited occupation, and could not be unless it could be proved that death was caused by it. That was not the fact in this case.

The right of a fraternal order to exclude from membership persons engaged in stated occupations is not denied. The principle is established that when once a member has been admitted and a policy has been issued to him, it remains valid although the insured enters an occupation that is forbidden, provided that death is not proved to have been caused by such occupation.

C., with a winter home at Palm Beach.

Public Traffic On Sunday—All manner of public selling or offering for sale of any property upon Sunday is prohibited, except that articles of food may be sold and supplied at any time before ten o'clock in the morning, and except also that meals may be sold to be eaten on the premises where sold, or served elsewhere by caterers; and prepared tobacco, milk, ice, and sodawater, in places other than where spirituous or malt liquors or wines are kept or offered for sale; and fruit, flowers, confectionery, newspapers, drugs, medicine sold in a quiet and orderly manner at any time of the day.

§ 2150 (271). Maliciously Serving Process On Sunday, Etc.—Whoever maliciously procures any process in a civil action, to be served on Saturday upon any person who keeps Saturday as holy time does not labor on that day, or serves upon him any process returnable on that day, or maliciously procures any civil action to which such person is a party to be adjourned to that day for trial, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

At a military funeral, and at the burial of a national guardsman or a deceased member of an association of veteran soldiers, or a disbanded militia regiment, or of a secret fraternal society, music may be played while escorting the body, but not within one block of a place of worship where service is then being celebrated. A person willfully violating any provision of this section is punishable by a fine not exceeding twenty dollars, or imprisonment not exceeding ten days, or by both.

§ 2152 (277). In addition to the punishment therefor provided by statute, every person violating this section is subject to a penalty of five hundred dollars, which penalty "The Society for the Reformation of Juvenile Delinquents" in the city of New York, for the use of that society, and the overseers of the poor in any other city or town, for the use of the poor, are authorized in the name of the people of this State to recover.

Besides this penalty every such exhibition, performance or exercise, of itself, annuls any license which may have been previously obtained by the manager, superintendent, agent, owner or lessee, using or letting such building, garden, room, place or other structure or consenting to such exhibition, performance or exercise.

§ 2153. Barbering On Sunday—Any person who carries on or engages in the business of shaving, hair-cutting or other work of a barber on the first day of the week shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not more than five dollars; and upon a second conviction for a like offense shall be fined not less than ten dollars and not more than twenty-five dollars, or be imprisoned in the county jail for a period of not less than ten days nor more than twenty-five days, or be punishable by both such fine and such imprisonment, at the discretion of the court or magistrate; provided, that in the village of Saratoga Springs, from the fifteenth day of June to the fifteenth day of September, inclusive, and in the city of New York throughout the year, barber shops or other places where a barber is engaged in shaving, hair-cutting or other work of a barber, may be kept open, and the work of a barber may be performed therein until one o'clock of the afternoon of the first day of the week.

To the above sections of the penal law should be added: The Liquor Tax Law, Chapter 29, Section 7, Laws of 1909, which forbids the selling of liquor on Sunday, under penalty of not less than two hundred dollars, with forfeiture of license for second offense.

Instead of establishing experimental farms the Lackawanna railroad will open several agricultural stations. The first one will be located at Binghamton and will be in charge of an instructor from Cornell university.

The fact that 50 young men from New York city are now studying agriculture at the New York Agriculture college in Ithaca, shows that there is really something to the "back to the farm" movement which we hear so much about.

"Lame Leg Well"

"I wish to say that I have used Sloan's Liniment on a lame leg that has given me much trouble for six months. It was so bad that I couldn't walk sometimes for a week. I tried doctors' medicine and had a rubber bandage for my leg, and bought everything that I heard of, but they all did me no good, until at last I was persuaded to try Sloan's Liniment. The first application helped it, and in two weeks my leg was well."—A. L. HUNTER, of Hunter, Ala.

Are You a Martyr at the Stake?

Some people don't know what a beefsteak really is. They think it is any kind of a strip of beef. We cut our steaks to give satisfaction and that means they are cut from the best fed cattle, at least 1 1-2 inches thick, and containing just enough fat to make them exceedingly tender when broiled or fried. Considering quality, prices are low.
