

Getting Together

One of the biggest problems facing farmers and bankers today is that of providing ample farm credits on reasonable terms. They can solve it only by working together, says

The COUNTRY GENTLEMAN

Our credit system is based on a 60-day paper intended to serve commercial interests with a quick turn-over. It doesn't serve the farmer, whose turn-over comes once a year. How can he be supplied with the capital he needs to run his farm business?

Because the problem of furnishing the farmer with ample credit facilities is one of such vital interest to the whole farm industry and to our national welfare, THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN has many trained investigators working on the same office for solving the difficulties. Their articles will keep you informed on developments toward easier farm credit. For an example, next week's issue carries a story by E. V. Wolfe on financing the marketing of a major farm crop. Other competent articles are coming soon.

To make sure of getting them all, you'd better subscribe for $1.00 today for the next 52 big issues of this dominant weekly.

The real fact stuff about farming

Fred Hoppel, of Rosiers, is spending a few days with his mother, Mrs. Adam Johnson.

Tuesday forenoon J. Zehr, the bus man of Croghan, came through with a posse of shoveling to clear the road for the Croghan-Carriage bus.

The Croghan-Carriage bus did not make the trip Monday.

However, Mr. Linstruth and son were present and saw the devastation. T. E. Meister seemed to be the instigator of the work, with many willing helpers.

Mr. Linstruth is a member of the Grange and this was just one of the neighborhood acts of this place.

Here Sunday of the death of Eli Sarvey at the home of his daughter in Copenhagen. His passing was shocking as he attended the Grange Institute here on Saturday, January 16, and seemed well. His body was brought here for burial Tuesday afternoon in the family plot in Riverside cemetery.

Mr. Sarvey died nearly five years ago, and Mrs. Sarvey lived in this neighborhood and good many years, first on the Danish homestead, and later on the Spaulding place. They moved to Utica with their daughters several years ago. Mr. Sarvey was a highly respected citizen and a member of Riverside Grange until his removal from here.

We wish to extend for the community where he had many friends, and sympathy to the bereaved family in their sorrow.
