About thirty members of the Daughters of Isabella went to Carthage last Sunday by special train to join the Lowville D. of I. in initiating a class of candidates into the newly organized circle at Carthage.

Louis V. Besha, aged 84 years, one of the oldest and most highly esteemed citizens of this place, passed away Friday evening at his home here, following a week's illness of pneumonia. Deceased was born in Evans Mills, August 22, 1839, and was the son of John and Julia Besha. In 1868 he was united in marriage with Mary Simmonet, who passed away in 1874. In 1875 Mr. Besha married Mary Janet O'Riley. From 1868 to 1875 the deceased conducted a hotel at Evans Mills. After his second marriage he removed to Belfort and built the hotel there, later going to Long Level, where he lumbered extensively. In 1890 Mr. and Mrs. Besha came to Croghan to reside and built a large hotel, which was destroyed in the big fire of 1912. Since 1912 Mr. Besha has lived a retired life at his residence on North Main street. Surviving, besides his wife, are three sons and one daughter by his first marriage, Milton Besha and Mrs. Edward H. Radigan, of this place; John Besha, of Carthage, and William Besha, of San Francisco; and four daughters and one son by his second marriage, Mrs. Clement Grunert, Misses Frances and Rose Besha, of this place; Mrs. Vernon Moore, of Copenhagen, and Louis V. Besha, of Vancouver, B. C.; also three brothers, Joseph Besha, Brownville; Peter Besha, Evans Mills; Frank Besha, Richland; two sisters, Mrs. Cecelia Branch, Albany, and Mrs. Julia Branch, Richland. The funeral was held from St. Stephen's church Tuesday at 10 a. m. and was largely attended, Rev. Father Antonius Buch officiating. Interment took place in the family plot in St. Stephen's cemetery.

The annual report of receipts and expenditures of St. Stephen's church, Croghan, from January 1, 1922, to January 1, 1923, was submitted to the congregation last Sunday. The number of marriages during the year was 5; baptisms, 49; deaths, 13, as follows: Joseph Mangin, aged 76; Catherine Laillier, 88; Sarah Simonet, 67; Victorine Bush, 68; Catherine Dicob, 4; Nicholas Dicob, 75; Laurentine Rouchell, 76; Catherine Dicob, 63; Anna Compo, 66; Stephen Bush, 29; Agnes Monroe, 72; Mary J. Campany, 64; Mary Hoch, 67.

Auto Sleigh Attracts Attention Going at a 30-Mile Clip—Farmers Securing Good Ice—Community Library.

(Mrs. W. A. Vary, Correspondent.)

Miss Genevieve O'Brien spent the week-end at home.

Mrs. Leonard Campany was a guest of her parents several days.

Charles Bowman, of Lowville, was an over-Sunday guest of the O'Brien brothers.

Miss Marion Hanno, of West Martinsburg, was the week-end guest of Genevieve O'Brien.

Lewis Eggleton returned home Friday, after a two months' visit with his sons in Syracuse and vicinity.

A merry sleigh load of friends from Castorland enjoyed the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Fred O'Brien, Saturday evening.

Morgan Allen is spending the week with his daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Wheeler and daughters at Bellwood.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Vary were guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Webster and Mr. and Mrs. George Osborne at Lowville last week.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Johnson will leave next Monday for Syracuse to be in attendance at the State Grange, to which Mrs. Johnson is delegate.

Many pheasants are being seen by farmers, as many as five and six in a bunch. Some farmers are feeding them. They are in good condition with beautiful plumage.

The community library has arrived and is in the hands of Mrs. Albert Ryther. Anyone in this community is entitled to the books by going after them. Improve the opportunity for fine reading in fiction and nonfiction.

Friends and old neighbors to the number of about twenty enjoyed a sleigh ride to the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Lewis' Friday evening. The evening was spent with music, cards and social good cheer. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis proved themselves royal entertainers.

Beautiful sleighing and farmers are improving it by filling their ice houses. G. N. Vary, proprietor of the New Columbia, is filling his ice house. In making preparations to refilling he found one layer of last year's ice in perfect condition. The ice is being taken from a temporary pond on the farm of Mrs. Alice Roberts. Ice from 18 to 20 inches thick is being harvested.

It was with interest that people watched along the route the auto sleigh that has made several trips from Copenhagen to Lowville, at a pace of thirty miles an hour, without a miss. It is the property of Cedric Jacobs, of Copenhagen, who is the architect. Good luck to the young man in his invention. Much credit is due him for being the first to construct an auto sleigh in this county. We trust that the young man's invention will be a success, and that no accident will come to him.

Henry Streeter, who suffered a stroke of paralysis Sunday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Chaffee, where he had been staying since he sold his farm last fall, died Thursday morning, January 25. Mr. Streeter was about 78 years of age and had lived in this place for many years. He was a kind neighbor and always worked hard as long as his health permitted him. His wife died about eight years ago. He leaves the following children: Harley Streeter, of Utica; Gusta Streeter, of Glenfield; also three step-children, Miss Emma Kohler, a hospital nurse at Ogdensburg, and Albert and Jacob Kohler, of Oneida; one brother, Charles Streeter, of Massachusetts, and two sisters, Mrs. Clara Spath, of Detroit, and Mrs. Minnie Caswell, of Carthage. The funeral was held Saturday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Chaffee, Rev. Mr. Rex, of Beaver Falls, officiating. Mrs. William Feistel and Mrs. Carl Mellnitz sang "God Will Take Care of You" and "Not One Forgotten," with Hilda Feistel at the organ. Those from out of town who attended the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. Harley Streeter, of Utica; Charley Streeter and daughter, Flora Streeter, and Lawrence Scott, of Massachusetts; Albert Kohler, of Oneida; Mrs. Clara Spath, of Detroit, and Mrs. Minnie Caswell, of Carthage. His daughter, Emma Kohler, was unable to attend the funeral on account of sickness, also his son, Gusta Streeter. The family wishes to thank everyone who in anyway assisted them. Burial in the family plot in Naumburg cemetery.

Judge Edward T. Sanford Named to Succeed Justice Pitney.

Washington, Jan. 30.—Edward T. Sanford, United States District Court judge for the Eastern and Middle districts of Tennessee since 1908, was nominated by President Harding to be associate justice of the Supreme Court to fill the vacancy caused by the retirement of Justice Pitney.

The nomination, if confirmed, will give Tennessee two members of the highest court and will restore the previous political division of six Republicans and three Democrats which obtained when President Harding took office. The other member from Tennessee is Justice McReynolds, Democrat, appointed by President Wilson.

Card of Thanks.

We desire to express our sincere thanks to the neighbors and friends for their kindness and sympathy at the time of the loss of our father and brother, Henry Streeter.

The Family.

We, the undersigned, wish to thank our many friends for their kindness and assistance to us during the illness and death of our dear father. We also wish to thank all those who gave the beautiful flowers.

(Signed.) Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Fuller, Mr. and Mrs. Wellington P. Blade.

We wish to thank the neighbors and friends who so kindly assisted us during the sickness and death of our dear sister and aunt.

(Signed.) Hattie Plank, Minnie Plank, Mrs. Ralph McAllister, B. Persons.

Barnes Corners, Jan. 30, 1923.

We wish to extend our sincerest appreciation to all our friends and neighbors who assisted us in any way during the illness and death of our beloved one.

(Signed.) A. D. Lucas, Stanley Lucas, Mr. and Mrs. Leland Boshart, Mr. and Mrs. G. J. O'Dell, Frank O'Dell.

Copenhagen, Jan. 30, 1923.

Charles E. Neidel, town superintendent, wishes to thank all his neighbors, friends and relatives for the numerous birthday greetings received on his 61st birthday.

IN MEMORIAM.

Again death has entered into our home,
And taken one we dearly loved;
You know it could not be our will,
But it's the will of God above.

Not quite three months before
That mother was called home
To depart from this world of sorrow,
And left us here alone.

As we know they are both in heaven
We sure ought not to mourn,
For they are both together
With Jesus in the heavenly home.

Our home does seem so vacant,
And we listen to every sound,
For it seems we can hear the footsteps,
Of him walking around.

No more we will hear his footsteps,
No more we will see his loving face,
No more we will hear that gentle voice,
But we know he is saved through grace.

Now we know if we too are patient,
And live the best we can,
It will not be so very long
Before we shall meet with them again.

And then that blessed meeting
Will be to part no more,
When we leave this world of sorrow
And meet at heaven's door.

Jesus says "Lo I am with you always,"
And we know his words are true,
For he has gone to prepare a mansion,
For me and you.

—Mrs. Wellington P. Blade.
