Couldn't Raise Arm to Head.

Norfolk, N. Y., Oct. 15, 1921.
To Whom It May Concern:

For several years past I have suffered severely with rheumatism in my arm. I could not raise it to my head. After trying several physicians without any relief, I decided to try the A. J. P. Rheumatic Cure. One bottle of the remedy took the rheumatism from my arm. I can certainly speak well for its merits after what it has done for me.

Pleasant Surprise for Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Latham—V. S. Hoffman Leases Co-Op. Cheese Factory—Mrs. H. S. Otis Entertains—Grange Meeting, February 20th.

(Mrs. P. E. White, Correspondent.)

Miss Dorothy Waugh, of Riverbank, was a week-end guest of Miss Eleanor Corrigan.

Egbert A. Miller, of Oneida, spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Miller.

Mr. Murdock, of Pinckney, has rented the Slye property at Denmark and opened a blacksmith shop.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Latham were given a surprise party by their many young friends on the evening of February 10. A fine time is reported.

A party of twenty-seven from the East road took a straw ride Friday evening to the home of Elmer Griffith, where they enjoyed a pleasant time.

V. S. Hoffman has rented the cheese factory of the Deer River Co-operative Milk Co., Inc., and will soon be ready to work for those wish to patronize him.

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Agens recently entertained Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hubbard, of Champion, and Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Williams and two children, of Castorland.

The people of Deer River regret the removal of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Latham to Carthage, where they have management of the Bence Gift and Novelty Shop, which has been conducted by his sister, Mrs. J. F. Spaulding, since the death of Erwin S. Bence. All wish them success in their new enterprise.

Next Grange meeting on February 20th. After the regular order of business short discussions will take place: "The Farmer's Responsibility for the High Cost of Living," F. C. Pike, Chester Smith, Elmer Griffith and others; "Is Community Buying and Selling Practical," W. D. Blinn, O. C. Miller, R. B. Williams and others; report of delegate to State Grange, W. B. Hill; recitation, Miss Verna Peebles; music, Sheldon Merriam. The gentlemen are asked to bring a pound of something good to eat.

Mrs. H. S. Otis entertained the "Independents," her Sunday school class, and Mrs. White's class, "The Winners," last Saturday evening, at her home. The rooms were tastefully decorated with red hearts and a guessing contest was held as to the number of hearts in the decoration. Miss Verna Peebles won the prize for guessing the nearest. Other prizes were given for several stunts. Those succeeding were Clarence Thompson, George Miller, Miss Joyce Fuller and Miss Mildred Peebles. A fine lunch was served and all had a merry time.

The road to success is crowded because it isn't a one-way street.

The C. I. C. class of the M. E. Sunday school, comprising twelve young women, will present the entertainment entitled "The Union Depot," at Temple theatre on Friday evening, February 19, under direction of Mrs. W. J. Anstey. Musical specialties will be introduced throughout the entertainment. The proceeds will be used for church improvements.

I SLEEP GOOD NOW

Says New York Man—A Healthful Bladder Does Not Act at Night.

Mr. J. A. Davis, East Setauket, N. Y., says, "Lithiated Buchu has corrected my bladder and I do not have to get up at night. You may use my name and I will be glad to tell or write my experience." Lithiated Buchu cleanses the bladder as epsom salts do the bowels. It isn't a patent medicine as the formula is on the label. The tablets cost two cents each at leading drug stores.
