BEAVER FALLS.

Regulations for Use of Community Hall—Grangers Have Good Time—Edward Avis at Community House, January 20.

(Mrs. George M. Bardin, Correspondent.) Jacob Brandley is on the sick list. Mrs. H. S. Lewis is confined to her home by illness.

Some of the farmers in this vicinity were busy last week fixing their houses.

Mrs. Guilmae Barrows spent a few days this week with relatives at Watertown.

Mrs. Sarah Lehman, of New Bremen, spent a few days last week with her daughter, Mrs. B. Hofer and family.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Harkness, of Juniata and son William were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Karpp and family.

Mrs. Christopher Terry, who underwent a serious operation last week at the City Hospital, Watertown, is doing as well as can be expected.

The Ladies Auxiliary of the Evangelical church will meet Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. T. E. Williams for their regular social and business meeting.

Mrs. A. Smith wishes to thank all who remembered her in any way during her recent illness and to express her appreciation to the nurses, also the Missionary Society of the Evangelical church for a Christmas box.

Mrs. Jean Ellis, who was employed in the store of Gerald Parker, has severed her connection and has joined her husband in Syracuse, where Mr. Ellis is a student at Syracuse University.

Leland Briggs is filling the vacancy in the store.

Edward Avis, well known in the field of nature study as the mimic and reproducing the songs and calls of birds, will give a recital at the Community House Thursday evening, January 20th, under the auspices of the Calendar Club of the Methodist church. Mr. Avis is a bird mimic, lecturer and violinist and comes highly recommended.

All Grangers who did not attend Grange Friday evening, January 17th, surely missed a good time. Two members were received into the order, one by merit and one reinitiated. The lecturer presented a short program and basket ball was played. Hot dogs and coffee were served. Merrill Pettibone and C. E. Gray, whose birthdays came in January, will have charge of the program for the next meeting, January 21. Don't miss this meeting, as they have promised a good program.

The following rules for the use of the Community hall for basket ball practice have been made by the Basketball Association and the Community House Committee: 1. No children of school age, except the members of the Cardinal Team and girls' regular team, are allowed to practice in the Community hall in the evening; 2. No pupil of the Union Free School shall be allowed to practice or play basket ball in the Community hall unless his or her standing in school work is at or above the passing grade. Mr. Babbit will post each week a list of students not eligible to play; 3. The use of the Community hall for basket ball practice in the evening is reserved for the Beaver and Cardinal teams and the girls' regular team, on such a schedule as may be arranged by the Basketball Association; 4. All other teams and players desiring to practice may do so between 4 and 6 o'clock in the afternoon; 5. A schedule for this will be arranged by the Basketball Association; 5. All practice must cease by 10 p. m.

The Evangelical Church. The Christian Beaver Society meeting Friday evening will be led by Roma Hill; topic, "How to Develop Our Devotional Life." Saturday afternoon a stick class will meet in catechism instruction will have their first written examination. Preaching both morning and evening.

ing by the pastor next Sunday. The junior choir, and the vocal solo rendered by Richmond Stokes, under the direction of Herbert Bowsa, Sunday morning, was well received. We will hear more of the junior choir.

Thursday, January 20th, the month-long mission study class of the Evangelical Society will take place. The fourth chapter of the missionary study class, "Moses Women," will be taken up. Arrangements for the annual day of prayer will be perfected. Every member is urged to make a special effort to be present.

GLENFIELD.

Charles Wellar Dies at Santa Clara—Home Bureau Has Membership of 61—Will Co-operate With Citizens in Securing Fire Protection—Benefit Dance Friday Evening.

(Mrs. M. Charles Kelly, Correspondent.) Mrs. Lena Herrick, who has been in failing health for some time, is confined to her bed at this writing.

Mrs. Gerald E. Parker and son David of Beaver Falls, were visitors of Mrs. W. F. Herrick, Wednesday.

Charles Wellar, aged 76, a former highly respected resident of this place, died Friday at his home in Santa Clara.

Mrs. Carroll B. Corwin has returned to Turin where she is engaged as teacher in the primary department of Turin high school.

Last Wednesday evening George B. Wilder, of Folsom's Corners, gave in charge of the officers of Glendale Grange, after which an oyster supper was served.

The many friends here of Mrs. Charles Manning regret to learn that she is in a Watertown hospital for an operation and hope for her speedy recovery.

Mrs. George North has returned to her home at East Martinsburg, after spending the past four weeks caring for Mrs. W. F. Herrick, who is gaining slowly from her recent illness.

There will be a benefit dance held Friday evening at Grange hall for Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ellis and family, whose house and contents were burned to the ground one evening last week.

Several from Port Leyden, Lyons Falls, Watertown and other places made the pilgrimage to the shrine of the nativity at St. Mary's church last Friday.

Mass was celebrated in the morning and afternoon by the pastor, Rev. George H. Broeson, and benediction of the blessed sacrament at 4 in the afternoon.

The Home Bureau business meeting, held last Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Charles Z. Mihalyi, was attended by 15 members. Officers' reports for the past year were read, which showed our unit to be in a very prosperous condition with a membership of 61. Held meetings and had instructions during the year on clothing, millinery, sewing machine, salad making, candy making, soap and Christmas decorations. Mrs. N. Wells Salmon, one of the executive staff, gave a very interesting and helpful talk, after which plans were suggested for a fire fighting device. A committee was appointed to meet with the citizens and action will be taken as soon as possible, at the village in entirety without the protection. The next business meeting will be held February 1st at the home of Miss Mary Van Allen.

EAST MARTINSBURG.

(Miss Hazel J. Studer, Correspondent.) Miss Ruth Waldron is confined to the house with bronchial pneumonia.

Mrs. George Schieder and son, of Illion, have been the guests of her parents for a few days. Mr. and Mrs. George North.

Mrs. Henry Bush and son Ralph have been spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Howard Shaw at Castorland and Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Shaw at Martinsburg.

CRASH.

Automobile Flung Over Cliff—Wall and Tires a Drop of 50 Feet—Car and Occupants Not Injured.

(Mrs. M. Y. Hill, Correspondent.) Millard Hill has returned home from Martinsburg.

Roger Sheppard was the guest Saturday of Decker Skinner.

Mrs. John Miller was a caller upon friends in town Saturday.

Mrs. A. Skinner and Doris M. Hill were guests Thursday of Mrs. Glen Bradish.

Adel M. Hill and John Buckley were home from Lowellville Academy over the week-end.

Miss Ruth M. Johnston visited the local school and the Brantingham school Thursday.

Several foreigners from this town attended the naturalization court held in Lowellville Saturday.

The following pupils of the Brantingham school had a perfect spelling record last week: Ellen Shepard, Alice Robert, William Johnson, Alton Hill, Ernest Zekmeister, Mike Rovati, Paul Rappap, Dallas Walker and Clayton Walker. Those perfect in the Greek school were: Burton, Julia Hermon, Sabine Krasper, Yale Skinner, Richard Skinner and Oliver Simon.

The following from the Oneonta Daily Star will be of interest to many in this vicinity: "While many fortunate motorists accidents have featured the past several seasons in Oneonta, certainly there has been none in which passengers have been in such great jeopardy with no serious injury as in the accident Christmas morning when the car of John Otto, containing three other passengers, skidded on Chestnut street, near the intersection of Clinton street, and plunged over the side of a cliff, a drop of fully 50 feet. The car landed squarely on its four wheels and the only damage to the car was a dished soft front wheel, while the passengers escaped with only slight bruises. Mr. and Mrs. John Otto, of 17 Jefferson avenue, accompanied by their daughter, Thelma, and her sister, Barbara Collins, four, were passengers in the car. Mr. Otto turned out to pass a car parked near the curb on Chestnut street, about 9:30 o'clock Christmas morning and his car skidded, crashing through the iron fence and then plunged down 50 feet into the swamp. The car was so badly damaged that it was going over the wall, he straightened it out and went squarely off the sidewalk. A bottle of milk was behind the car and the bottle did not break, nor was a drop spilled." Mrs. Otto, who was Miss Nina Loveloy, was for many years previous to her marriage a resident of this town, and enjoys a large circle of friends here, all of whom will rejoice at their fortunate escape from injury. John Loveloy, father of Mrs. Otto, left his home here in November to pass the winter with his daughter, Herbert Edwards, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Edwards, a resident who is employed in Rochester, is recovering from an attack of pneumonia.

MARTINSBURG.

Burdette Green—Seriously Ill With Pneumonia in Utica—Big Plow Opened Road—Ladies' Aid Supper January 14th.

(Mrs. Louis Lomber, Correspondent.) Mrs. Margaret Heckman, of Lowellville, is spending some time with her daughter, Mrs. Ernest Oester.

Mrs. Almada McCue and Miss Margaret Lomber have been confined to their homes with influenza.

Miss Esther Mosher, of Croghan, has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. John Swartzendruber, for a few days.

Mrs. Morgan Smith received word Saturday that her son, Ernest, of Detroit Green, was seriously ill at his home in Utica with pneumonia.

The Ladies' Aid of the M. E. church will hold a supper in the town hall, Friday, January 14th, about 6 o'clock; price, 25 cents. All are cordially invited.

We surely are having some severe cold weather, which lets us hope that winter really is here, even if cars are still running. It also makes a good quality of ice, which the farmers are glad to get.

Last Saturday the big snow plow, which keeps the road open from Lowellville to Croghan, was engaged to open the road between here and Lowellville for cars to run. The plow did its good sleighing, and cars can also go.

Mrs. M. C. Gordon wishes to thank all those who contributed to her Christmas box. It was very much appreciated. She is well and having a very pleasant and comfortable winter which her many friends are glad to hear. We hope to welcome her back in her own home again in the spring.

SECOND ROAD.

(Solma M. Mellnitz, Correspondent.) Farmers in this locality are busy with the ice harvest.

Harold Streeter spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Streeter.

Miss Selma M. Mellnitz was a Saturday guest of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Heyer, Castorland.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Matteson entertained Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hoppel and daughter, Jessa, Sunday.

Mrs. Adam E. Hoppel and Mrs. Howard Hoppel spent Saturday with Mrs. Herbert Hall, New Bremen.

Miss Anna Hoppel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hirsch, who was ill the past week, is making a good recovery.

Pupils attaining a perfect standing in spelling for the week ending January 7th, were Gerald Hoppel, Geraldine Staez, Emma Sauer, Laura Albertson, Selma Heyer, and Mrs. and Mrs. Adam E. Hoppel entertained on Sunday Mrs. Herbert Hall, Mrs. Everett Hall, Mrs. Howard Hoppel, daughter, Eleanor, and Anna; Howard, Jr., and Miss Helen Rhoads.

RIVERBANK.

Grange Officers Installed and Committed for Year Named—Next Meeting January 21.

(Mrs. F. J. Zecher, Correspondent.) An all-day session of the Riverbank Grange was held Saturday, January 17, with a very good attendance. The forenoon was filled by a regular business meeting, which was followed by a surprise dinner served in the dining room. After everyone had partaken of the delicious mid-day meal, the newly elected officers were very ably installed by Brother E. E. Lintz, assisted by Mrs. E. F. Lintz and Lloyd Eckartz. The following committees were named: Work committee, Mrs. William Walmsley; M. E. Lintz and Harper; Mrs. C. Ellis; sick and memorial committee, Mrs. H. Bingle, Mrs. Essie Jackson, Mrs. F. Zecher; recognition committee, Mrs. E. W. Farnham, Mrs. J. P. Tooker, Mrs. W. Folsom; entertainment committee, Mrs. E. F. Lintz and Mrs. John Roy; committee on applications, Mrs. E. W. Farnham and Mrs. J. Bransburg. The meeting of the day was concluded by a programme in charge of the worthy lecturer, Mrs. William Beckman, consisting of songs, recitations and a reading. The next regular meeting will be held Friday evening, January 21.

Free Trees for Public Parks.

Watertown, Jan. 15.—The State Conservation Commission has offered to furnish trees free of charge to Junior project members from 18 to 18 years of age. The members must set out at least 1,000 trees, Norway spruce or white pine. Orders must be sent to Alton H. Adams, county leader.

Before February 1.

The trees will go mostly to boys' farms on which there is less than 200 acres, and will be suited to reforestation. The boys must agree to protect the small trees from stock before they will give the saplings.

OPPORTUNITY FOR Salesman or Salesmanager To Sell Stocks in Lewis County

On or about January 20th an old established New York Bond House will appoint its Lewis county distributor. This represents an opportunity for some salesman (with experience in securities selling preferred) to associate himself with a live, well-organized, reliable bond house, whose unusual co-operation has placed many men in the successful, financially independent class. No investment of money is required; no underwriting or other commitment need be made.

We have many successful men throughout the country who established themselves in the bond business in their own community, making an unusually attractive income themselves with full safety to the investor.

If you are one of those who are seeking a better and more profitable connection next year and for years to come, file your application now.
