CHURCH ANNOUNCEMENTS

First Presbyterian Church
Rev. O. Theodore Anderson, Minister
The church of Jesus Christ stands today as the one institution prepared to answer the perplexing questions of human kind. It is the one institution that reaches into the inner self of man and influences that inner self so that it reacts to clean and Godly living in the everyday life. Give the church a chance in your life; give God a chance with your soul. This church will welcome all who come to worship in it.
Sunday, September 27th, morning worship with sermon at 10:30 a. m.; church school at 11:45 a. m., and the P. Y. F. A. at 8:15 p. m.

Methodist Episcopal Church
A. B. Corbin, Minister
The theme for the midweek service, Thursday evening, will be, "How Are You Bearing Your Burden?"
Sunday morning at 10 o'clock worship service, the sermon topic will be, "The Man Without Faith." This will be the last service at the advanced hour prevailing during the summer. Next Sunday, October 4, the hour will be ten-thirty o'clock. Church school will meet at eleven o'clock.
The last talk in the series upon nature subjects will be given Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock. "Fading Leaves" will be the subject.

First Baptist Church
Rev. Benjamin D. Proffo, Pastor.
Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Munk, Choir Director and Organist.
Sunday, 10:30 a. m., rally day for church and Sunday school.
Organ prelude, "Andante Religioso" by Nevin; anthem, "Ave Agnus to Thy Dear Name" by Kate Llewellyn, incidental solo by Mrs. E. D. Proffo; offertory, "My Task" by E. L. Ashford, sung by Robert Lee.
Sermon, "My Task." Dedication of teachers; communion service.
Thursday, 7:30 p. m., mid-week service, "Story of the Ten Commandments," choir rehearsal at 7:50.
Coming Events—Oct. 4, Missionary speaker, Mrs. A. E. Bigelow, of Joliet, Philippine Islands.
Oct. 5, chicken dinner at church.

Church of the Nazarene
Vangie Seaman, Pastor.
Thursday evening, prayer and praise service at 7:30.
Sunday services, 10 a. m., church school; 11 a. m., worship; text of message, "But know that the Lord hath set apart him that is godly for Himself." Psalm 43; 7 p. m., young people's service; message, "A Good Christian Soldier"; 7:30 p. m., evangelistic service; "But the heavens and the earth which are now, by the same word are kept in store, reserved unto fire against the day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men." II Peter 3:7.

Americans drink 4,000,000,000 bottles of soft drinks every year because water doesn't cost anything

Trinity Episcopal Church
Walter Leopold Bennett, Rector
The services for the sixteenth Sunday after Trinity are: 8 a. m., Holy Communion. A service for special intercessions as well as regular worship; 10:30 a. m., morning Prayer with sermon; 11:45 a. m., church school. Consecration of summer Sunday offerings.
On Tuesday at 8 a. m. we celebrate St. Michael and All Angels, with another opportunity for serious churchmen to enrich their lives with the inspiring teaching concerning the angel of God who praise Him and guard us.
One who had read carefully the long, splendid reports of the Tercentenary of Harvard University would notice, as he reflected upon it, that not one idea of profound truth on thinking lines was expressed that the Christian Church has not taught in sermons and readings for 2000 years. The church is the university of the people and tolerance, knowledge, truth have been its watchword since our Lord founded it on the twelve apostles. Regular church going has often made broader-gauged people than four years in college. The best man in the world is the regular Christian churchman.

Christian Science
"Reality" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, September 27.
The Golden Text is: "Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him" (I Corinthians 2:9).
Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "I will praise thee with my whole heart; before the gods will I sing praise unto thee. I will worship toward thy holy temple, and praise thy name for thy loving kindness and for thy truth; for thou hast magnified thy word above all thy name. The Lord will perfect that which concerneth me; thy mercy, O Lord, endureth forever" (Psalms 138: 1, 2, 6).
The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following correlative selection from the textbook of Christian Science, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "The conceptions of mortal, erring thought must give way to the ideal of all that is perfect and eternal. Through many generations human beliefs will be attaining diviner conceptions, and the immortal and perfect model of God's creation will finally be seen as the only true conception of being" (p. 290).

Married Boosters
The married Boosters will meet Monday evening, September 28, at Archer's camp for a covered dish supper and election of officers. Please bring table service rolls and a covered dish. Do not forget the dinner service, one for each couple. Committee, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Rittis and Mr. and Mrs. Earle Austin.

"Movie Queen" at Lowville Academy Next Wed.-Thurs.

Will Visit Local Advertisers on Friday of This Week and Movies Will be Taken

Miss Harriet Slipperley, a member of the Lowville Academy faculty, was on Saturday selected as the "Movie Queen" for the local production under that title and as such will participate in the home talent play to be given at the school auditorium on the nights of Sept. 30 and Oct. 1. She was met at the railroad station Saturday morning by a crowd of 500 people. Attended by Assemblyman Fred A. Young and Attorney Joseph W. Singer in an open car, the "Movie Queen" was escorted to the court house in a parade formed by the school band, members of the fire department, Girl Scouts and decorated floats. At a ceremony at the court house the key to the city was presented to Miss Slipperley by Mr. Singer, who represented David S. Roberts, mayor of Lowville, who was absent from town.

Moving pictures were taken of the parade and the crowd along the way and will be shown on the screen the nights of the play.
Following is the cast of characters for the three act comedy: Jimmie Cain, Charles House; Marlene Blarvo, Genevieve Copeley; Mary Brown, Miss Harriet Slipperley; Von Vonheim, Earl Stoddard; Barrymore Cohen, Fred Ransage; Goldstein, J. C. O'Neil; Goldstein's yes men, Messers. Hines and Keens; M. Flowers, Byron Bowen; Kenyon, Edward Jacunski; Lewis Shattuck will preside at the piano.

ton, Louise Thase, Jean Nortz, Katherine Davis, Jean Schleder, Mary Schantz, Genevieve Southling.
On Friday movies will be taken of the "Movie Queen" being kidnaped by twelve local men in the character of gangsters and her thrilling rescue by the hero, Charles House, who, unaided, knocks out twelve strong men.
Sunday morning the Catholic church and congregation will be filmed. Lowville business places are being filmed and all pictures will be shown both nights. The school band will furnish music.
The Parents' Music Association will at this time to thank all who have in any way aided this campaign and particularly the merchants who contributed advertising space. Remember Friday will be a big day in Lowville. The "Movie Queen" will visit the local stores whose advertisements appear on this page and other merchants will feature special Movie Day Values.

History of Lowville Academy Band.
(By L. B. A.)
The Lowville Academy Band made its first appearance for a base ball game in 1923. They entered the first sectional contest in 1924 at Plattsburg winning second place, which gave them a right to enter the state contest at Syracuse but they did not go, because they had no uniforms at this time and the trip to Plattsburg was made mostly to see how our band ranked with other school bands in the same class, and it was Principal Davis' wish that the band go to Plattsburg.
This was a long trip of 180 miles and as the school had but the one small bus, the trip was made with ten private cars. The owners of cars were George Reed, E. C. Owens,

Frank Dudo, George Strife, J. Yale Moore, Milton Barman, Harold Fairchild, Clyde Garjins, John Klett and Luther B. Askins. Mr. Davis was fortunate in obtaining the help of Mrs. Raymond Richardson and Mrs. D. E. Griffith to see about a uniform and in the spring of 1925 the present uniforms were bought. The new uniforms were to be worn for the first time at the Seneca Falls contest the latter part of April, but arrangements were made by Assemblyman Edward M. Sheldon, for the band to appear in our State Capital at Albany and they left Thursday noon, March 7, 1925, and arrived in Albany at 8:30 in the evening, making the trip in school buses. The band played for the closing of the Assembly, the next day, and this is the first time the new uniforms were worn. In April they entered the sectional contest at Seneca Falls as this was the nearest sectional contest to Lowville, a distance of 130 miles. They won first place at this contest which gave them the right to enter their first State contest at Syracuse on May 7, 1925, and every year since, they have entered the State contest, and in 1934 and 1935 they won the right to enter the National contest, but never have had this honor and possibly never will, because a man of authority told me at Cleveland last spring the National contest was such a big thing he thought from now on the contest would stop with the State contest. All of the big bands from the West have a mother organization back of them and I am very much pleased to know that this movement has started in Lowville, because I know they are going to do their part to help make a better band.

BRAY STAYS AS RUNNING MATE FOR GOV. LEHMAN

Utton Is Reported as Definitely on the Ticket with Lehman, Bennett and Tremaine
Democratic leaders have decided definitely to nominate at their state convention this month the same ticket they ran in 1932 and 1934, it was learned last night from a party spokesman who did not want his name used.
The ticket will be as follows: Governor—Herbert H. Lehman, Lieutenant-Governor—M. William Bray.
Attorney General—John J. Bennett Jr.
Controller—Morris S. Tremaine.
Bray's Friends Act
The only place about which there was any doubt was the lieutenant-governorship. For several months reports had been circulated that Bray would be dropped from the ticket.
Although Democratic Chairman James A. Farley has declined to comment on the Bray situation from the time the reports arose, it is understood many of the lieutenant governor's friends made vigorous protests against the reported plan to drop him.
A week ago Charles A. McKernan, Democratic leader of Onondaga county, Bray's home county, told newspapermen at one of Farley's press conferences he did not believe the lieutenant-governorship was "dunped."
"If they dump Bray," McKernan said, "the Democratic party, as far as Onondaga county is concerned, might just as well go home and go to bed."
Bray was placed on the Democratic ticket in 1932 largely through the support of John F. Curry, former Tammany leader, and his friends. He had been Democratic state chairman before Farley assumed the leadership.

BACKS LONDON, LOSES JOB; SUCCESSOR DIES

Pensacola, Fla. — The Pensacola City Council, in a surprise session last night, ousted Democratic Mayor H. Clay Armstrong because of his support of the Republican national ticket and named a successor who dropped dead less than a hour after the action.
The new mayor was O. L. Moyer, 70, who succeeded to a heart attack within a short while after he had told the council, "I assure you gentlemen you have elected a good, strong Democrat."
Officials said Max Baer, the only man who voted against replacement of Armstrong, would not as mayor for term.
The council held a special surprise session and voted to replace Armstrong last night.
The councilman, who had died twice before in the last six weeks over ousting Armstrong, voted eight to one to name O. L. Moyer, a wholesale grocer and council member, in his place.
Armstrong was reported to be in New York last night. His ouster at the Republican national headquarters there this week to reassert his support of the Republican ticket. He previously had done so by letter to Governor Landon.

POPE URGES WAR ON COMMUNISM

Plays "Program of Hate, Subversion and Destruction"
Pope Pius XI, expressing great grief over the Spanish civil war, urged the world to join in a strong fight against Communism, which he called "a program of hate, subversion and destruction."
He spoke directly to 500 refugees from Spain, the government of which has two Communist cabinet members. His message went to the far corners of the earth by radio.
The 70-year-old pontiff voiced sorrow that the Spanish strife had hurt "brother against brother" and begged the nations to oppose these great evils to prevent chaos "if indeed, it is not already too late."
On the war front, while the Fascist captors of San Sebastian moved westward along Spain's north coast, hoping soon to reach Bilbao, the government forces in the latter city warned commanders of foreign fighting vessels that mines would be placed in the harbor at midnight.
Office Manager (to new office boy)—Has the stenographer told you what to do in the afternoon? New Boy—Yes, sir; I was to wake her up when I saw you coming.
