

Miss Woodworth Bride In Syracuse

Phoenix: The Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception in Syracuse was the setting on Saturday, April 8th, 1967 at 11 a.m. for the double ring ceremony uniting Miss Peggy Joan Woodworth and Emilio Salvatore Tassone.

Father J. Champlin officiated. Miss Woodworth is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick H. Woodworth of R.D.#1, Box 234 Phoenix, N.Y.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Emilio P. Tassone of 108 Avon Ave., Liverpool, N.Y.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, selected a floor length gown of organza and lace. It was fashioned with an empire waist, A-line front, Organza back with Chapel train from the shoulders made of Organza and lace. The headpiece was of organza and pearls with a bouffant veil. She carried a cascade of white roses centered with a white orchid.

Miss Barbara A. Woodworth, maid of honor for her sister, wore a floor length gown of pastel pink fashioned with an empire waist. She carried a colonial bouquet of white carnations and pink roses.

Bridesmaids were Sandra L. Woodworth, Josephine Tassone, Susan Tassone, Sally Ann Purple. Their gowns were pastel blue fashioned with the empire waist. They carried colonial bouquets of white carnations.

Best man for his brother was Nicodami Tassone. Ushering were Saverio S. Tassone, Michael Woodworth, Robert Tassone and Samuel Tassone. Ring bearer was Joseph A. Tassone with Michele Mondo serving as flower girl. She wore a white floor length gown and a head band of blue flowers and carried a basket of white carnations and roses.

Mother of the bride wore a light blue brocade dress with blue accessories with a red rose corsage. The grooms Mother wore a pearl grey brocade with pink accessories and a corsage of red roses.

A reception was held in the Phoenix VFW home from 3 until 6 p.m. with music by Harry Clark.

The young couple are on a two week honeymoon trip through the Southern States. The new matron selected a pale yellow and white suit ensemble with white accessories for her going away outfit. She wore her white orchid corsage.

Upon their return they will reside on Yacht Club Road, off South Bay Road, Cicero, N.Y.
