RING! RING! RING!

Glory Hallelujah.

THE MOST GLORIOUS DAY OF OUR LIVES!

THE "WHEEL" TO LET.

THE CONFEDERACY CLOSED FOR REPAIRS.

Everybody Shakes Hands with Everybody.

Great Meeting at Doolittle Hall!

PATRIOTIC ACTION OF THE BOARD OF TRADE.

People had scarcely arisen from their beds this morning before the bells of the city began to peal forth joyous chimes.—They hastened into the streets, and soon the ADVERTISER office was besieged by a crowd demanding the news. In miraculously quick time a bulletin was prepared and hung out, and their shouting commenced. At the head of our bulletin, as if presiding over the news, sat Old Abe, writing his famous dispatch from City Point. People who never believed in him before, began to think that his was just the face to keep guard over the news today, and they involuntarily cheered for the Rail Splitter, alias the Confederacy Splitter. Capt. Scott took his "wheel" and stationed it in front of the Provost-Martial's office, bearing the words "To Let." A small boy has been turning it all the forenoon, and pulling out tickets which floated off on the breeze. That wheel's played out. It's done its last job. It was hard work to believe that there was so much bunting in Oswego.—From every window and house top "Old Glory,"— the flag that has not lost a star through four years of war—was flung to the breeze. O! how majestically it waved, and what a throb thrilled every heart at the sight of it. Viva it. Old Glory everybody seemed to shout. Centuries may never again witness so glorious a day, and we thank God that we lived in it. It was announced by the Common Council that the stores and places of business would be closed and a meeting be held in Doolittle Hall. An Extra was issued from this office at noon, containing the official correspondence between Gens. Grant and Lee.

As a part of the forenoon celebration we wish to mention the Mechanics' Sax Horn Band, which added much to the occasion by their excellent music, playing "John Brown's Soul is marching on," "Yankee Doodle," and "Old Hundred," alternately.

ACTION OF THE BOARD OF TRADE.

The Board of Trade assembled at 12 o'clock. Their room was beautifully decorated with colors, and presented a fine appearance. The following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That this Board have heard with unfeigned pleasure and delight of the great victory recently achieved by General Grant and the brave officers and men under his command.

That we consider the surrender of General Lee's army the crowning event of the rebellion, and look confidently forward to an early termination of this unnatural and most disastrous war, and the restoration of the glorious old Union, and the return to prosperity and peace, with which the country was so long favored.

That we will suspend all business for to-day and cheerfully unite with our city authorities in the celebration for which arrangements are being made.

Resolved, That this room be decorated with flags and other emblems of great rejoicing, and this evening be illuminated from every window.

AT DOOLITTLE HALL.

As we go to press a large and enthusiastic meeting is being held at Doolittle Hall, addressed by Hon. D. C. Littlejohn and others. Cheers rend the air at every sentence of the speaker, and the utmost joy prevails.

THE PROCESSION.

A procession of the Fire Department is now passing through the streets. The companies are all out, and make a fine appearance. We have not space to particularize.

THE 48th REGIMENT.

The 48th Regiment, properly officered, headed by the 16th Infantry Band, is now passing through the streets. It is cheered by the excited throng at every point. We never saw the men present a finer appearance.

BATTLE FLAGS.

Passing through the streets, may be seen several veterans, among them Collector O'Brien, bearing the old battle flags, torn by rebel bullets, which they have taken from the Library. Everybody cheers them.

JEFF'S COFFIN.

A hack is passing through the streets, carrying a very joyous load, on the back of which is the coffin of Jeff. Davis, appropriately labelled.

THE FLAGS.

Everywhere in the city floats an American flag. Persons in the streets wear them on their hats and on their coats; vessels in the harbor are covered with bunting.

THE ILLUMINATION THIS EVENING.

The most extensive preparations are being made for illuminating this evening, and the city will be one blaze of light.

BONFIRES.

The foundation of several bonfires are being laid. One in front of the Munger House, covers several square feet, and much more.

TO NIGHT.

This evening will be the closing point of the celebration. There is no check to the universal joy. It wells up from the hearts of old and young, sick and well.—Fire Works are being put in place, and there will be a fine display. More about it to morrow. We drop the quill to join the festivities.

Letter from the 110th.

FORT JEFFERSON, Fla., March 22d, 1865.

EDITOR OF THE ADVERTISER:

In my last letter I gave you an imperfect account of an attack by the rebel forces upon Fort Myers, Fla. By the kindness of Capt. A. A. Fellows, A. I. Gen. at Key West, I have been furnished additional particulars which I send you.

On the 20th of Feb. just at dinner the enemy appeared in force in front of the works and demanded an unconditional surrender, and allowing twenty minutes to surrender in; Capt. Doyle the commanding officer answered the demand in less than five minutes; his answer read as follows, viz:

HEADQUARTERS U. S. Forces, }
Ft. Myers, Fla. Feb. 20, 1864. }

MAJOR FOOTMAN, Comd'g (so called Confed. Forces:

SIR—Your demand for an unconditional surrender has been received. I respectfully decline; I have forces enough to maintain my position and will fight you to the last.

[S] CAPT. JAMES DOYLE,
110th N. Y. Vol's, Comdg.

The rebels soon took up a position and opened on us with artillery; we answered them instantly and advanced a skirmish line. A brisk fire of musketry and artillery was kept up until dark; we lay behind the works all night expecting an assault but when morning came we found that the enemy had disappeared; they probably thought that if they assaulted our works they would receive too warm a reception and reception, and respectfully declined. Our loss was one killed and ten missing.

The following is an account of a raid from Cedar Keys into the interior of the State:

Major Weeks with three companies 2d Fla. (dismounted), Major Lincoln with 2 co's 2d U. S. C. I. had been on a raid into the interior of the State in search of cattle and had succeeded in capturing several hundred head and returned with them with them to what is called Station 4, three miles from Cedar Keys, and on the Cedar Keys and Fernandina railroad. The men being completely worn out they encamped for the night; at this place there is a long tresslework connecting Way Key (one of the Cedar Key group) with the main land. Over this they had to drive the cattle and march the men; on the following morning our forces were attacked by superior numbers, but our men maintained their position and drove the enemy back more than two miles but lost their cattle: they ran in every direction when the firing commenced.

In the affair Lieut. I. Rich, 2d Florida cavalry, formerly 1st Sergeant of Co. B, 110th, with twelve of his men were captured; one rebel took his sword, one his scabbard, another one took his belt, and another cut off his shoulder straps. The rebels asked Rich how many men he had, and he replied that we had eleven hundred. They told him he was a liar, but he allowed that he was n't. Just at that moment one of the colored companies charged, and the rebels thinking that the whole eleven hundred was coming, skedaddled, and Lieut. Rich with nine of his men made their escape.

Our loss was six killed, fourteen wounded, and three missing. Among the wounded is Lieut. Coleen, 2d U. S. C. I.

The health of the regiment is good.—Whether we are to remain here during this summer is to us unknown. The mercury to-day at 12 M is at 93° above zero.

Yours, &c., R. M. Y.

A GOOD OMEN.—Some patriotic individual paid for an extra at this office to-day with a genuine silver dime,—an omen of what is coming.

THE ZOUAVES THIS EVENING.—The Carter Zouave entertainment at Mansard Hall this evening, will furnish a means to celebrate the victory of General Grant.—We predict an over-crowded house, and much cheering, unless everybody have cheered themselves hoarse already. Hurrah for General Grant and the Carter Zouaves!

SOPHRONA LAZEAR YET AT LARGE.—The crazy woman, Sophrona Lazear, of whose career this paper has said considerable, has recently been in Pulaski. The Democrat says:

We do not understand why her friends or somebody else do not take care of Sophronia Lazear. She has been here again for a day or two, barefoot and with no clothing but an old dress. She has also been in Oswego, where she caused some sensation. She put off her clothes and took a bath in the canal. The Advertiser says that, when captured by the police, she "kicked like a tortoise." She escaped from the city hospital by making a rope of a bed quilt.

PULASKI NEWS.—The Democrat contains the following:

—Dr. Fobes has been ordered to report to Rear Admiral Paulding, and left here on Wednesday.

—Miss Cora McCarty, injured at the recent accident on the Central Railroad, has returned home, and is doing well.

—Capt. Cornell left here on Monday, having been ordered to New York, to superintend the construction of vessels for the lakes.

—Mr. F. W. Twitchell, son of Dr. H. Twitchell, of this Village, has gone South as a telegraph operator in the army. He is fully competent for the place.

—At our charter election, on Monday, the following officers were elected. Politically, the ticket is equally divided. We regret that an attempt was made to elect a party ticket:

President, B. F. Rhodes; trustees, B. F. Rhodes, S. C. Miller, Dewey C. Salisbury, J. A. Clark, L. A. Gaylord; assessor, A. R. Augell; collector, E. Bushnell; treasurer, G. W. Fuller; Chief Fireman, L. A. Gaylord.

—The spring term of our Academy opens very favorably, but we have not learned the precise number in attendance. Miss Hopkins, the music teacher, will be here on Wednesday next, ready to commence a course of lessons. She is detained until that time by her engagement at the Castleton Seminary. We understand that we have been very fortunate in securing her services here, as she is an excellent and accomplished teacher, and capable of filling a higher position. We trust the music department will be liberally patronized.

☞ See a woman in another column picking Sambuci Grapes for Speer's Wine. It is an admirable article, used in hospitals and by the first class families in Paris, London, and New York, in preference to old Port Wine. It is worth a trial and gives great satisfaction.

☞ OSWEGO COMMERCIAL COLLEGE, AND TELEGRAPHIC INSTITUTE:

Connected with this Institution is a complete line of Telegraph, extending from the United States Telegraph Office to the College Rooms. It comprises what is equivalent to three distinct offices, two terminal and one intermediate. The instruments are furnished with separate batteries, and all the apparatus of a regular Telegraph Office; facilities are thereby offered for pursuing the study of this interesting and important science, which are unsurpassed by any other College.—Students are instructed in reading by means of the Register, and also by sound from the Relay. Especial attention will be paid to this latter feature, as no one can now be considered an accomplished operator who does not read by sound.

To aid in rendering the course of instruction thoroughly practical, students have the use of the College Bank, with a capital of over One Million Dollars (prepared for this Bank,) which they employ with each other, making their deposits and checking from the Bank, with the same regularity as Shipping and Commission Merchants, &c.

LADIES' DEPARTMENT.

This Department is separate from the Gentlemen's Hall, and under the supervision of Mrs. C. P. MEADS. Ladies taking the full course have access to the College Bank, and engage in business the same as practiced in Gentlemen's Department. Persons are invited to call and examine the course of instruction, and to procure circulars containing Terms, &c.

College open from 8½ A. M., to 4½ P. M., Saturday afternoons excepted.

CARD WRITING—Wedding and Visiting Cards written in a manner warranted to please.

MORNING DISPATCHES.

New York, April 10.—The Herald's correspondent recounts the pursuit of Lee's army:

The 24th corps reached Black's and White's Station on the Southside railroad the morning of the 5th, with Gens. Grant and Ord.

The 5th corps and cavalry pushed on to Getterville, on the Danville railroad, and arrived there without any fighting until the night of the 4th.

The 2d, 6th and 9th were following closely in the rear.

By the night of the 5th they were all on the Danville road, and the 24th up to Burkesville junction.

It appears that Lee ordered that portion of his army cut off by our piercing his line on Sunday, to join him at Amelia Court House, fearing to have them attempt to reach Burksville Junction, and so on to Danville.

When Gen. Grant reached Nottaway Court House, a staff officer arrived and reported that Sheridan had encountered the enemy in small force at Getterville, and had important captures.

Our column had intended to go into camp, but Grant through Lee's only hope was in forced marches, and he therefore ordered the advance to commence.

The men who had already tramped 20 miles, on being informed of the startling news from Sheridan, clamored to march all night, and started off with cheers.

Wherever Grant was recognized as he entered the line, the delight of the soldiers was expressed in the most enthusiastic manner. As one division exhausted itself, in cheering, another would take it up.

Soon another despatch was received from Sheridan.

It contents were such as to cause Grant to leave the road and cut across the country to Sheridan's headquarters.

On the night of the 5th the army lay in line of battle, stretched across 3 or 4 miles of country, and falling northward Getterville, Custar's division of cavalry lay on the right flank, and McKenzie's on the left.

The infantry formed with the 6th corps on the right, the 5th in the center, and the 2d on the left.

During the night Lee moved off many of his trains, and it was fear he would elude this column.

Ord was to march in the morning towards Lynchburg and cut off his retreat to any point south of that.

POSTSCRIPT.

AFTERNOON DISPATCHES.

Memphis, April 8, }
Via Cairo. }

The Bulletin this evening says a report prevails and is well authenticated, that Selma, Ala., was captured and burned a few days ago, by the cavalry force of Gen. Thomas' command.

Goldsboro, April 6.—Deserters and refugees report the evacuation of Raleigh, and that the enemy were throwing up wurdf on Tar River and Rocky Mount, about 40 miles from here towards Weldon, on the Weldon and Wilmington railroad.

The enemy are burning the bridge and ties on this road and carrying off the rails.

It is thought Johnson will go to the relief of Lee.

His army is much discouraged.

Gen. Sherman hat issued an order of which the following is an extract:

The following is announced as the organization of the atmy:

The right wing to consist of the 15th corps, Gen. Howard commanding.

Left wing, Army of Georgia, 14th and 20th corps, Major-Gen. A. J. Slocum Commanding,

Centre, Army of Ohio, 10th and 23d corps, Major-Gen. Schofield Commanding.

Cavalry — Brevet-Major-Gen. Kilpatrick commanding.

Each of these commanders will exercise the powers prescribed by law for a general commanding a special department or army in the field.

Major Gen. Joseph A. Mower is hereby—subject to the approval of the President—appointed to the command of the 20th corps vice Slocum, promoted to the command of an army in the field.

Brig. Gen. Chas. Walstaff is hereby transferred from the army of Tennessee to the army of Georgia.

Brig. Gen. Chas. E. Wing having been promoted, is hereby relieved from staff duty at these headquarters and will report to Maj. Gen. Howard.

SECOND EDITION

Dispatches to 5 P. M.

New York, April 10.—The Commercial says: The surrender of Lee has caused general excitement in the market, but no panic. Gold opened $1.44, and went up to $1.45¼.

The steamer Fulton, from Port Royal, the 7th, has arrived. She brings no news. Everything is progressing finely at Charleston and Savannah, the condition of the people being mostly improved. Sanitary measures for the summer have already been inaugurated.

Philadelphia, April 10.—Forney's Press has reports that Gen. Stoneman has cut the R. R. between Danville and Goldsboro, and that Sherman has occupied Raleigh.

New York, April 10th—The announcement of Lee's surrender, last night created the greatest excitement. Illuminations of many private dwellings quickly followed. The streets were filled with people hurrahing and dancing with insane joy.

We have many despatches to day from almost every city, village and hamlet in the country, saying that the same joy prevails throughout the land.

The Herald's correspondent from the the cavalry says the movements in pursuit of Lee were close—their rear guard was overtaken, numbering 320 strongly entrenched across Namagine creek, having destroyed the bridge and felled the trees across the ford to impede pursuit.

On advancing, the enemy opened fire, which was returned with vigor. They were finally shelled from their position, the obstructions removed when the command crossed.

Pushing on Barringer's brigade of cavalry was soon encountered by our 2d brigade. The rebels scatterred like a flock of sheep on being fired on.

Col. Capehart's brigade about the same time overtook the rebels near Dennisville, spreading on each side of the road, our men went in under the wildest excitement. Gen Custar seeing that unless we covered more ground with our cavalry, many more rebels would escape, sent back and hurried up the first brigade. Several miles were thus passed over and many rebels and munitions were gathered in.

Finally, the rebels rallied to make a stand. Our cavalry was reinforced and the rebels driven 22 miles, routed at every point and losing horses, wagons, artillery, etc.

Our whole loss was not 50.

On the 4th the march was resumed, and continued until afternoon, when the enemy were overtaken and skirmishing ensued, which continued till night.

On the 5th a fight took place which has already been detailed.

Valuable Farm for Sale.

THE Subscriber will sell the Farm situated on the corners one-half mile East of Morse's Corners, in the town of Palermo, on the Fulton and Central Square Road, about five miles from Fulton. The Farm consists of FIFTY-FIVE acres, all improved, of valuable farming land, (plenty of wood near by,) soil rich and productive, well watered by a living stream and two wells, with two orchards, barn and horse-barn, and a large, comfortable farm house.

This valuable property will be sold at a bargain. Enquire of the undersigned, at his office in New Haven, Oswego Co., N. Y.
