Oswego, Thursday Evening, July 9.

CITY AND COUNTY.

☞ THE LOSSES IN THE ONE HUNDRED AND FORTY-SEVENTH REGIMENT.—We have, as yet, no perfect list of the losses in the 147th. Besides the names we have already published, we are only able to give the following. Lieut. VOLNEY J. PIERCE, of Company G, furnishes us with the following list of casualities in his company:

KILLED.

Sergeant Peter Shutts; Corporal Fred. Rife; Celestine Berkley, Hiram Stowell, Peter Ziegler.

WOUNDED.

Capt. Delos Gary, in the scalp with a rifle ball—not serious.

Corp. John E. Coe, gun shot in left hand; third finger amputated at wrist.

Fred. Ehrsman, ankle, serious.

Wm. Flack, flesh wound in left thigh.

Henry Horton, right shoulder, slight.

Albert Juno, neck, slight.

Englebert Herfen, hip.

Charles Maltz, forehead, slight.

John Moscheizer, leg and arm.

Joseph Stoughtenger, ankle, serious.

Wm. VanNettain, left knee sprained.

Edwin G. Aylsworth, left leg amputated at the hip.

Louis Amgen, ankle.

MISSING AND SUPPOSED TO BE PRISONERS.

Corp. James A. Darrow; Orrin W. Dunn, John Sigourney, John Wetherby.

We are glad to be able to state that JOHN WETHERBY has been heard from. He was taken prisoner, paroled, and has written home from Westchester, Pa. His father, hearing that he had been killed, had started in pursuit of him previous to the receipt of his letter.

The balance of Company G are safe. Of this there is no doubt.

R. H. SPENCER furnishes the following casualties in a private letter:

CO. B.—WOUNDED.

Alverson Curtiss, shot in the face, jaw fractured—in our hospital and doing well.

Samuel Barbou, musket ball in left leg.

Jason Hall, shot in right arm.

Lawrence Conover, shot in left arm.—These are in our hospital and doing well.

Co. H.—Capt. Clayton, in foot, not serious.

Co. F.—Thos. Carr, corporal, right side, slight; Charles B. Skinner, right arm.

Co. D.—Serg't King, right arm, slight.

Co. I.—Lieut. McAssey, wounded and missing.

☞ A SQUALL.—A little after nine o'clock last evening a squall accompanied with a little rain, passed over the city. It amounted almost to a hurricane, and though of short duration inflicted a large amount of damage. The streets of our city were very dry from the continued hot weather of the past few days, and the accumulated dust was whirled about in blinding eddies. Pedestrians sought shelter and in less time than we are describing it the streets were, comparatively, deserted. Vivid lightning flashed from the dense black clouds which hung like a pall in the northern horizon and illuminated the strife of the elements. Lumber piles were prostrated and the flying boards as they struck surrounding objects, mingled with the slamming of shutters, the rush of pedestrians, the loud calls of boatmen engaged in making more secure their craft, and the roaring of the wind united in forming a scene almost terrific.

Much damage was done to fruit and ornamental trees in the city. This morning we saw several fine fruit trees which have been completely destroyed. Large branches were torn from others, and in a few instances trees of considerable size were uprooted and prostrated. A fine maple shade tree which stood in the south-east corner of the East Public Square, was broken off close to the ground. Fruit suffered immensely, and some trees were completely stripped of their burthens.

The top-sail schooner Peerless had left our harbor but a short time previous to the squall. She was struck by it and instantly careened on her side. The men aboard were obliged to lash themselves fast. Her jib and topsails were torn to ribbons. A tug fortunately observed her distress, went to her assistance and succeeded in fastening to her when she was but a few rods of the shore, whither she was rapidly being driven, and brought her into port.

We learn of no fatal accidents, but it is feared that there are many marine disasters, so sudden and fierce was the squall.

☞ THEATRE.—There was a large audience at Doolittle Hall last evening, on the occasion of the first appearance of KATE DENIN. Her playing was admirable. This evening will be her last appearance for the present, as the company performs in Fulton to-morrow and Saturday evenings. The performance will commence this evening with the play entitled "Fanchon, or the Cricket," in which KATE DENIN will appear in her great character of "Fanchon." The celebrated comedian SAM RYAN makes his first appearance to-night as "Dedier," in the above play. The entertainment will conclude with the laughable farce of the "Object of Interest," in which KATE DENIN appears as "Fanny Gribbles," and SAM RYAN as "Barney O'Dwyer."

☞ THE LATE LIEUT.-COL. WRIGHT.—The Chicago Journal of the 6th instant has the following regarding our late lamented fellow-citizen, Lieut.-Col. J. C. WRIGHT. It is a just tribute to the memory of a brave and honorable man:

Lieut.-Col. J. C. Wright, of the 1st Board of Trade Regiment (72d Illinois) died at half-past ten this forenoon, at the residence of T. B. Carter, Esq. He lost his left arm in the assault on the 22d of May, at Vicksburg, gallantly leading the regiment in the fight. He was a merchant here, known and loved by all on 'Change, and when the Board raised their three regiments for the war, he took an active part in stimulating the work, and was offered the Colonelcy of the 1st regiment, which he declined, insisting that a man educated by actual service in the war should be called to that important post. When offered the Lieutenant-Colonelcy, he said, "I dare not decline, for Providence seems to open the way for me to show my patriotism in a more substantial way than talk or money." Being convinced it was his duty, nothing could hold him back, and thus is offered on the altar of slavery another victim snatched from our very midst, from our side, one honored and loved, and from the bosom of the now heart-stricken family a faithful and devoted husband and father. He leaves a wife and two children. His remains will be taken to Oswego, his former home.

At its meeting, at noon to-day, the Board of Trade appointed a committee of members to draft suitable resolutions of respect for the dead, and condolence for the mourning family.

☞ OUR NEW RAILROAD.—We are happy to learn that everything connected with the proposed Railroad indicates a most prosperous and flourishing condition. The stock is nearly all taken. The surveys and estimates are nearly completed, and it is expected that the line will be located during the next week. The success met with by the parties engaged in obtaining the right of way is indeed flattering. It is now expected that the road will be completed in time to celebrate the next Fourth of July by an excursion over it. The first installment of ten per cent. upon subscriptions has been called for, and those who have not already paid are requested to do so immediately, as there should be no drawback to this valuable and important enterprise.

☞ A YOUNG WOMAN MISSING.—About three weeks since, Miss MARY HOWE, a young lady who has resided some eight years in the family of WM. GILBERT, Esq., 98 East Fayette street, Syracuse, suddenly disappeared, and notwithstanding every exertion has been made by Mr. GILBERT and the girl's friends, nothing can be heard of her whereabouts. Miss HOWE in appearance, is of medium size, fair, round features, and auburn hair; of good moral character, and about twenty-one years of age. Her parents, who reside at Schroeppel, in this county, are nearly distracted at her disappearance, and any information of her whereabouts will be gratefully received.

☞ A LEAK.—Night before last the cargo of a vessel was elevated into the Corn Exchange Elevator, and at the same time was spouted out through other channels than those generally used for the purpose. Yesterday morning in endeavoring to bring a vessel alongside the elevator a scarcity of water was found to exist where previously there had been a sufficient depth. On investigating the reason of this, it was observed that beneath the surface of the water lay a huge pile of wheat. This again was a mystery, which further investigation solved. The "maw-hole" of the garner into which the grain had been elevated from the vessel had been left open and 5500 bushels of wheat had been spouted into the garner and made its exit through the above mentioned hole.

Men were engaged yesterday and to-day in "scooping" the grain up from the river. The loss is a serious one to some person.

☞ ARREST OF DESERTERS.—The proper officers are quite busy now in picking up deserters wherever they can be found.—CHARLES KENYON, of the village of Fulton, was arrested there on Monday night. He had previously deserted several times. It is probable that he may be sternly dealt with.

☞ LIEUT. RANDALL.—There is no news respecting Lieut. RANDALL, of the 110th regiment, and the most painful apprehensions are forced upon his friends. It is greatly feared that he was killed.—There was a rumor that a Federal officer was found near where he was last seen, so mutilated as to render recognition impossible.

☞ A BRAVE SOLDIER.—The writer of the following was formerly a student in Falley Seminary. The letter was written to a friend in Fulton. It will be seen that he is "clear grit."

BATON ROUGE, June 22d.

FRIEND:—At the battle of Port Hudson, May 27th, I was wounded in the breast, and bowels, and lost my right arm.

I am almost well, and in a few weeks will take my post beside the few brave heroes that survive in my company.

I am so weak that I have not a very good command over the forces of my left hand.

I was in the storming party, and fell ten rods from the works. I will yet stand on those works or die.—The Union must be sustained if it costs my other arm.

☞ RETURN THEM.—Since the recent festival of the Ladies' Soldiers' Relief Society, the following pieces of crockery are missing: 14 pitchers, 1½ dozen plates, 12 saucers, 1 covered dish, 2 bowls, 2 vases, and a number of tumblers. It is supposed the articles were packed away by mistake by parties who took crockery to the Hall. It is particularly requested that parties having any of the above articles will return them immediately, as their loss will have to be replaced, which will detract so much from the relief of our brave volunteers.

☞ SUDDEN DEATH.—About four o'clock this morning a woman named ADELA ECCLES died very suddenly at the Empire Saloon, of heart disease. The deceased was a boarder there, and for some time past has not been in the enjoyment of good health. She was a married woman, and her husband, whose name is WM. ECCLES, is a member of the 147th regiment.

☞ IN SUPREME COURT.—At a General Term of the Supreme Court of the State of New York, held at the Court Room in the city of Oswego, on the 9th day of July, 1863, present—Hon. WILLIAM F. ALLEN, JOSEPH MULLIN, LEROY MORGAN and WILLIAM J. BACON, Justices, DANIEL H. MARSH, Esq., having announced to this Court that Lieut. Col. JOSEPH C. WRIGHT, formerly a member of the Bar of this State and Judicial District, has recently died from wounds received in battle at Vicksburg, and that his remains have now arrived at this city and are to be buried at 2 o'clock P. M. of this day, Ordered that, as a mark of respect to his memory as a worthy and highly respected member of the Bar, as well as a citizen and a patriot, this Court do adjourn to attend his funeral.

E. N. RATHBUN, Clerk.

Public Spirit.

To the Editor of the Oswego Commercial Times:

Will you please inform our friend of West Fourth street—who is so much opposed to any kind of improvement in our city, for fear of dirt or a little inconvenience and obstruction of the view of the lake—that not only the Common Council, but most of those gentlemen who have at heart the prosperity of the city, are in favor of granting the privilege to any man who is willing to contribute to the employment of his fellow workmen and the good of all in general. They think that the more work done the more money will be expended, and the more the city will be benefitted.

Let my friend go to Buffalo, and he will find that most of the streets are obstructed by enterprising workmen, who are not obliged to go abroad to build vessels or do other work that may be done at home. Such is the case in other cities where selfishness does not govern.

I think, sir, that such men as he of West Fourth street do not deserve the name of a true American. He is opposed to the prosperity of the city and would be to that of the country. I have passed through that street when building was going on, and do'nt remember a single instance when it was so obstructed that teams and carriages could not pass freely.

A FRIEND OF IMPROVEMENT.

☞ SUMMER TRAVEL ON THE LAKE.—The steamer Bay State, Captain MORLEY, will leave her dock, foot of West Seneca street, at 11 o'clock this evening, for Ogdensburgh and intermediate ports. The Ontario, Capt. J. B. ESTES, will leave here at 9:30 to-morrow morning for Rochester, Toronto and Lewiston.

The down boat on Thursdays and Saturdays will touch at Sacket's Harbor.

TRADE AND COMMERCE.

Commercial Times Office, Oswego, July 9, 1863.

The Board of Trade Rooms were closed to-day, without the transaction of business, on account of the funeral obsequies of the late Lieut. Col. WRIGHT.

SALT—Sales are restricted at $1,93 ₩ bbl for fine, and 14 ₩ sacks at 15½c.

WATER LIME—Is selling at $1,00 ₩ bbl.

PLASTER—Steady at 85c ₩ bbl.

CANAL FREIGHTS—Unchanged. Flour 89c, wheat 10c, and corn 9½c to New York. Lumber $2,75 to the Hudson.

Shipped by canal, 180 bbls flour, 18,000 bu wheat, 7400 bu corn, and 238m ft lumber.

LAKE FREIGHTS.—Chicago, July 6.—Freight quiet at Friday's inside rates. The engagements were: To Buffalo—Prop Queen of the Lakes, wheat at 8¾c; schr Merriman, rye at 8½c; bark Champion, oats at 6c; brk B A Stannard and schrs Geo Goble and Midnight, corn at 7c. To Oswego—Schr Jas Navagh, wheat at 10c.—To Kingston—Schr Kersian, wheat at 12½c.—Journal.

Cleveland, July 6.—The schr Mail was chartered for wheat to Oswego at 8½c. Lumber freights are as follows: from Saginaw to Cleveland $4 ₩ M; from Lake Huron shore $3, and from the Rivers $2,50. The following are the present rates on iron ore from Marquette—to Cleveland $3,25 per ton; to Buffalo and Erie $4.—Herald.

Toledo, July 6.—Six vessels and one propeller under charter to Buffalo at 4c for wheat, and one vessel at 4c for corn. To Oswego three vessels at 8½c for wheat.—Blade.

THE WHEAT INSECTS.—We are sorry to say that from all the neighboring lake counties we hear of, the insects are making great ravages among the wheat. The crop on the ground appears to be so large, that it is probable the average yield will still be satisfactory; but the sample will, we fear, be greatly injured.—Toronto Leader.

NEWS BY TELEGRAPH

TO-DAY'S DISPATCHES.

Exclusively to the Oswego Commercial Times, up to the hour of publication, 3½ o'clock, P. M.

From Fortress Monroe.

FORTRESS MONROE, July 7.

The advantages of the arrangement made by Col. Ludlow on the 22d of May last, which cut off all parolling prisoners of war, compelling the captors to reduce the possession and deliver their prisoners at City Point, are shown in the late battles in Pennsylvania and Maryland.

Gen. Lee, if able to make his own escape will probably be unable to take away any prisoners with him. A further list of prisoners who have died in rebel hospitals and prisons, has been received and forwarded to Washington for publication.

The steamer City of Albany, has arrived from White House. On the morning of the 1st, Gen. Getty with 10,000 men proceeded from the White House to destroy the remaining bridges over the South Anna river. He returned this morning to the White House, having accomplished most of his mission satisfactorily.

Rumored Advanced.

HARRISBURG, July 8, 10 P. M.

Reports are rife here to-night of an advance of part of the rebel forces again down the Cumberland Valley, to strike Gen. Couch's army.

Rebel Loss 35,000 Men—our Loss 17,000.

FREDERICK, Md., July 8.

The total number of prisoners captured reported at the Provost Marshal General's office up to last night, including the wounded, is in the vicinity of 11,000.

There is no truth in the story of great amounts of artillery captured by us.

About two-thirds of the burial parties sent out to bury the rebel dead, have made returns. The number reported by them thus far is 2680. The total cannot fall under 35,000, not including those of Wednesday's fight, which the enemy himself buried.

Our losses, as to-day reported semi-officially, foot up 17,000 killed, wounded and missing.

The Third Corps loses 6400; the Fifth Corps, 2349; the Twelfth Corps, 750; the Second Corps, 4800,—the balance I have not yet obtained.

From Kansas.

LEAVENWORTH, July 8.

On Sunday the 5th, Gen. Blunt with all the cavalry he could raise, started from Fort Scott to Fort Gibson in the Indian Territory.

Information received at the headquarters of the District of the Frontier, shows that Col. Phillips' Indian brigade is hard pressed by the enemy, who is reported 7000 strong. Three infantry regiments are marching to reinforce Col. Phillips.

Gen. Blunt took no train, and will cross the Arkansas and offer battle.

Bragg's Army Demoralized.

TULLAHOMA, July 8.

The rebel army with Gen. Bragg yesterday crossed the Tennessee river and destroyed the splendid bridge at Bridgeport.

It is said by stragglers that Bragg's army is completely demoralized and crumbling to pieces as it proceeds.

A Desperate Battle in Prospect.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, July 8.

Gen. Lee is still on this side of the Potomac unable to cross with his army.

The anticipated battle will probably occur near the old Antietam field.

Our forces are rapidly concentrating, and a desperate battle is impending.

The river is swollen to a great height and is still rising.

South Mountain has been occupied, and Harper's Ferry is in our possession.

Special Dispatches.

WASHINGTON, July 9.

It is reported that our troops to-day occupied Hagerstown after a fight. Particulars are not known.

Gens. Grant and Meade were promoted respectively Major and Brigadier-General in the regular army.

Army of the Potomac.

FREDERICK, July 8—11 P. M.

The rebels are transporting their men across the river in two flat-boats, on which our artillery had opened and were shelling.

The rebel army is supposed to be strong between Williamsport and Sharpsburg, and the opinion is entertained by parties whose words are entitled to consideration, that there will be a decisive battle to-morrow—or next day at the farthest.

Information from the front to-night indicates that another great battle is imminent at Hagerstown.

The rumor that Beauregard is at Culpepper Court House with 40,000 men is believed to be a canard.

Very Probable.

HARRISBURG, July 9.

There is no information here, official or otherwise, of the advance of the rebel army up the Cumberland Valley.

Various Items.

MIDDLETOWN, Md., July 8.

Heavy skirmishing between Beaufort's and Kilpatrick's cavalry and the enemy occurred from daylight till 3 o'clock this P. M. near Boonsboro.

The locality of Lee's army is not known, but his wagon trains are at Williamsport, and it is supposed he will make a desperate endeavor to cross his army at that point.

The report that the enemy is already crossing at Williamsport lacks confirmation. Many believe Lee is fortifying on or near the old battle-field of Antietam.

Gen. A. Humphreys, recently commanding a division in the 2d corps was appointed chief-of-staff to Gen. Meade to-day.

Gen. Warren was erroneously reported chief-of-staff, but was only acting as such.

The Draft.

WASHINGTON, July 8.

It is stated here that the first draft under the national enrollment will be for 300,000 men, and will be made so soon as the enrollment is completed. The quotas for the various districts are already completed.

A Great Freshet.

BALTIMORE, July 9.

The river is high, and the country along the Patapsco is flooded.

Trees, fences and portions of houses are carried away.

Bridges are in great danger, and the crops have been injured materially.

The Times dispatch reports ten feet of water in the Potomac at Williamsport.

Skirmishing with the Rebels.

PHILADELPHIA, July 9.

The Inquirer has the following, dated from Frederick, 8th inst.:

Messengers from the front report a sharp action, lasting nearly all day, between Gen. Meade and the rebels beyond Boonsboro. The result has not yet transpired.

LATER.

General Meade moved over for the front this morning, and every available man was again pushed forward to swell the ranks.

The rebels attacked our cavalry this A. M., at 5 o'clock a short distance west of Boonsboro. They were in force under Gen. Jenkins.

Our troops retired in spirit and fell back to Crampton Gap, which they held till a late hour. This would indicate a willingness on the part of the rebels to try Antietam again, finding it impossible to cross, owing to the high water.

The Rebel Losses.

PHILADELPHIA, July 9.

The Press of this city says that the rebels lost 25,000 men at Gettysburg, about 7,000 on the retreat, and about 50 guns.

A number of trains have been destroyed and Gen. Lee's army is greatly demoralized, but will make another desperate attack.

Successful Cavalry Expedition.

NEWBERN, N. C., July 8, } via FORTRESS MONROE, July 8.

To Maj. Gen. Halleck:

I have the honor to report that the cavalry sent from here July 3d, under Col. Lewis, has returned, having successfully accomplished their mission, and without loss. They destroyed by twisting rails, &c., two miles of railroad at Warsaw; also destroying 5 miles more, all the culverts, as well as telegraph. At Kennelsville an armory was destroyed and a large quantity of commissary stores burned.

Some 30 prisoners were captured by them.

J. G. FOSTER,
Major. General Comd'g.

THE ASSESSORS of the city of Oswego hereby give notice that they have completed the assessment roll of said city for the year 1863, and that a copy is left with William A. Rathbun, one of the assessors, at the City Clerk's Office, where the same may be seen by any person interested therein during twenty days, and the said assessors will meet on the 17th day of July, at 10 o'clock A. M., at the City Clerk's Office to review the said assessment on the application of any person considering himself or herself aggrieved.

Columbian Marine Insurance Co.

In calling the attention of the public to this sterling Company, the most satisfactory evidence we can give of its reliability, is the fifth annual statement of its affairs, as presented by the New York Insurance Monitor, of April 1st, 1863. The Monitor says:

"Comparing this with its previous statements, we find that its business has steadily and largely progressed. On Dec 31st, 1862, it had a grand total amount of premiums—$1,165,243,64. Its premiums marked off as earned during the year, amounted to $725,856,89, from which, after deducting losses, re-insurances, &c., the Company reserved a net profit of $225,769. Out of this sum the Trustees have distributed $141,605,18 among the stockholders and dealers of the Company, reserving the balance of $84,164,00, to provide for the payment of unadjusted claims, &c. Still further, the Columbian has made a cash dividend of 14 1-6 per cent. on its cash capital, and has awarded to dealers the cash dividend of 15 per cent. return, as also 8 per cent. additional in scrip, to be issued on the first of next June. The total amount of assets belonging to the Company is $1,135,540,85—all of which is in first-class securities. It would seem that, with this splendid total of assets and this shining record of success, the Columbian might be satisfied with its progress and condition. Not so, however. Its directors proceed upon ambitious principles, and "think nothing done while aught remains to do." They recognize the progressive spirit of the age, and propose that their Company shall take its stand among the foremost corporations of the country. Its capital is to be increased to $1,000,000. That this end will be accomplished is guaranteed by the prosperous condition of the Company. Its shares sell readily in the market at prices above par. Annually, during five years past, since its organization, it has paid stockholders an average dividend of 12 per cent. As a natural consequence, subscriptions to its capital can be easily obtained. One moral, so to speak, which we deduce from the experience of the Columbian, is that we need more insurance capital. There are but thirteen Marine Companies in the state to one hundred Fire Companies, and the former receive nearly double the amount of premiums accumulated by the latter. During last year, the Columbian acted on the cash accumulation principle in regard to profits—that is, dealers, instead of taking the change of profits in reclaimable scrip, were allowed to elect, when insuring, to take at the end of the year, cash returns in rates of 20, 15 or 10 per cent., according to the class of business. This principle has worked well with the Company, and its energetic and prudent officers may be congratulated on their successful management. The Columbian is one of our soundest corporations, and is destined to still greater eminence.

"In contemplating its success, we are led to wonder that there is not still greater competition in the business of Marine Insurance. The interest which attaches to that branch of adventure is almost romantic, and the chances of profit in its pursuit are perfectly valid. Moreover, the vast interest of commerce—connecting this Republic with other nations of the earth, and insuring the United States a place of eminence and power among those nations—would seem to invite the solicitious care of patriotic and wise citizens."

Since the above statement was made out, $500,000 have been received for premiums, which, with the $500,000 additional capital and $1,135,540,85 assets, gives this Company a total of upwards of Two Millions assets.

This Company has established a branch office in this city, and is represented by MOSES MERRICK, Esq., who may be found at the office of the Columbian Mills, East First street. ap29tf
