A simple and safe way to clean costly and easily-injured articles is to make a suds of hot water and Ivory Soap, and allow it to cool until lukewarm. This solution, while very effective, is perfectly harmless.

Ivory Soap contains no alkali. It will not destroy the surface or texture of any material, however delicate.

Ivory Soap differs from other soaps. It is more carefully made, and the materials used in its manufacture are the purest and best.

CHANGES IN CAR SHOPS.

Consolidation Throws Nine Men Out of Employment.

LYONS, May 15.—The expected change in the Lyons car shops took place Saturday afternoon, when W. A. Foster, Superintendent of Shops on the Pennsylvania railroad, accompanied by J. Westervelt, of Rochester, and the Superintendent of Motive Power on the New York Central, was here and perfected the consolidation of the Fall Brook and New York Central shops.

Car Inspector Shearer retains his position and is also given the work formerly done at the Fall Brook shop, being allowed to retain seven out of the sixteen men who have been working in that shop, the remaining nine men being thrown out for the present, but will probably be provided with other positions.

The changes in the offices will probably be made within a few days.

VEAL PILLAU.—This is a savory and economical mode of preparing veal, three pounds cut from the neck and shoulder being used. The other materials needed are a cupful of rice, three tablespoonfuls of butter, or a quarter of a pound of salt pork, an onion, three large tablespoonfuls of salt, half a teaspoonful of pepper, half a cupful of strained tomato and four cupfuls of boiling water. Cut the veal into small pieces and season well with salt. Chop the onion fine and put it into a stewpan with the butter. Stir until the onion turns a light straw color; then add the veal and stir until that is browned a little, being careful not to burn the onion. Add the tomato and a cupful of the water and simmer gently for an hour and a half. Now add the other three cupfuls of boiling water, the salt, pepper and the rice after washing the latter carefully in three waters. Heat the mixture to the boiling point; then cover closely and set back where it will cook slowly for an hour. The rice will absorb almost all the liquid and be tender, yet every grain should be distinct. Turn the pillau out upon a platter and garnish with parsley.

MONDAY, MAY 15, 1899.

NEWS IN BRIEF.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Daniels, who are known on the stage as Will Danforth and Norma Kopp, are still singing in "The Idol's Eye," with Frank Daniels.

The people of the town of Arcadia, Wayne county, have petitioned for free rural mail delivery. A Government agent has been looking the ground over and favors the plan. If it goes through about four carriers will be employed and as many minor post offices done away with.

Department of Education.

The new Department of Education will hold its third meeting since organization, five days ago, at the City Hall to-night. The object of the meeting primarily is to take action toward awarding a contract for work at school No. 6. The gentlemen will also continue their discussion of financial conditions and may prepare the figures for the annual budget. Other matters may receive attention.

That Atrocious Libel.

The Cayuga Chief, referring to the libel recently published in the Iconoclast on Oswego's military company, after characterizing the publication in deserving terms, says: "The writer hereof knows some of the members of the Forty-eighth; he knew their fathers before them, and knows of what stuff they are made. Braver men 'never drew sword belt across the tongue of a buckle.' No Oswego (or Cayuga) regiment or company ever turned its back to the foe. In the war for the Union many of our warm personal friends and neighbors lost their lives while bravely fighting upon many a gory battlefield. With some of them the writer has marched in line, and knows whereof he speaks. The article in The Iconoclast is a shameful libel. Out upon it! It should be denounced by every newspaper in the scathing language it deserves."

THE LOCAL STAGE.

John Philip Sousa and His Famous Band Coming.

If there is any man in America to-day who thoroughly embodies the American idea of success, that man is John Philip Sousa, who will be here May 27th with his famous band. Back of this success stands the man who created it, with qualities of heart and brain that appeal instinctively to human nature at large no less than to the American nature in particular. No other man in the musical world is so conspicuously and so constantly before the public and yet bears his honors and success with such becoming modesty. Sousa is the only American composer whose fame and popularity transcends the geographical limits of his native land. The Sousa marches are played in every country on the globe where music is known and the publication of a new composition from the "March King" interests strangely and widely diverse communities. With all the tremendous vogue of these marches it yet remains a fact that the Sousa Band alone can play them as they should be played.

C. E. CONVENTION.

Will be Held in This City on Thursday Next.

The County Convention of Christian Endeavorers will be held in this city next Thursday, May 18th. Through some mistake the date was announced Saturday evening for the following day, Friday. The correction will please be noted by the delegates.

At the individual meetings of the six societies of the city constituting the Local Union, last night, the report of the Finance Committee of the convention was submitted. The cost of the convention was estimated to be nearly eighty dollars. The members of the societies will be assessed pro rata, each member having to pay about twenty-one cents.

The West Baptist society has the largest membership with Grace Presbyterian a close second.

The Finance Committee will make no canvass or solicitation among the business men as was at first thought. However, they extend an invitation to any of the above gentlemen to contribute, if they so desire. Any gifts can be left with Mr. J. McChesney, Treasurer of the convention, corner of East First and Bridge streets.

Next Wednesday evening at 8:45 o'clock, in the Congregational church will be held a prayer meeting of the Local Union, preparatory to the convention. The convention music will practiced and final arrangements for the accommodation of the delegates made. The regular prayer meetings of the various churches of the city will close early in order to enable those who desire to attend both their own church meeting and that of the Local Union.

RED CREEK.

Fisherman's Luck—An Evangelist's Hard Luck.

RED CREEK, May 11.—A few evenings ago Mr. Charles C. Burt thought it would be fine amusement to fish for bullhead in our creek. The night was very dark and in wandering near the pond of the lower mill he got out of bait, and hearing other parties across the creek below the dam, he thought he would cross the dam and procure bait of them. Feeling his way carefully, he suddenly disappeared and dropped into the mill-race, which contained six feet of water. In falling his right leg came in contact with some obstacle which hurt Mr. Burt very severely. During the excitement his derby hat floated away while he swam out to the main bank, being very familiar with the locality. Hereafter he will fish by moonlight.

The Rev. Mr. Tuck, Weedsport, has been holding religious meetings for two weeks in the Baptist church here with small results, but quite large attendance. His sermons were very logical and powerful, but it seems that the people of this place are not given to grace. The Presbyterian Elders are receiving candidates to select a minister to fill vacancy.

George Carnes has rented the bar at the VanAlstine House. George is very popular and has many friends. H. C. VanAlstine is quite infirm and has retired from active life.

Enos T. Milliman is slowly recovering from his late severe illness. His son John is also recovering from his long and dangerous sickness. Professor Whitney, principal of the Red Creek Union Seminary, will retire at the end of the present term. Our esteemed friend Mr. Frank Keesler, Sr., is severely afflicted with a disease near the kidneys which baffles the skill of the most eminent physicians. He suffers intense pain and is in a very critical condition. It is to be hoped that Mr. Keesler will soon recover his former health and strength and be a mighty host in the Democratic campaign of 1900.

PULASKI.

Many Items of Interest from the County Capital.

PULASKI, May 15.—A large delegation from Post J. B. Butler, G. A. R., will attend the encampment in Syracuse this week. Several members of the W. R. C. will also visit Syracuse.

William H. Austin, agent of the R. W. & O. R. R. at the Pulaski station, is apparently recovering from his recent severe illness and will probably soon be able to resume his duties in the office.

Attorney John P. Mattison, New York, is in town for a days.

County Judge Merrick Stowell and Deputy Sheriff O. B. Burch spent last Saturday trout fishing at Stillwater, on the Salmon river. Among their catch were several trout weighing from one-half to two pounds.

Street Commissioner John Mahaffy has a force of men cleaning the village streets and laying new crosswalks.

The Y. P. S. C. E. of the Congregational church will give a reception to the young people of the church to-night.

A light frost is reported this morning from localities in this and some of the Eastern towns of the country.

It seems now to be a settled fact that the Hon. T. M. Costello will make a strong effort in his district to be renominated for the fifth term in the Assembly. Attorney F. G. Whitney, who had supposed the field would be clear this year for his nomination, will make a strong fight.

Captain Eastman's Opinion.

CHICAGO, May 12.—Captain Frank F. Eastman, of the Fourteenth United States Infantry, arrived in Chicago yesterday. He left Manila April 3rd, on sick leave, being one of the passengers on the transport Sherman. He is on his way to his family in Massachusetts. "People in this country who talk about the war on the part of the Filipinos being for independence do not know what they are talking about," he said. "It is a war of a few scheming, selfish leaders, who have resorted to desperate methods to secure a following. Not only have they lied and misrepresented things in every possible manner, but they have also resorted to intimidation to keep their forces together." In his opinion peace will be established within a month.

He says: "Electric Bitters are just the thing for a man when he is all run down, and don't care whether he lives or dies. DIED IN HIS ROOM.

James Carolin Died Suddenly in New Haven Last Night.

NEW HAVEN, May 15.—(Special.)—James Carolon, for twenty-eight years past gardener at the residence of C. Sidney Shepard, died suddenly in his room at that place last night. Mr. Carolon had complained for three or four days of a pain in the region of his heart, but he kept right along with his duties. Last evening about nine o'clock he sat down to a light lunch and shortly after went to his room. About ten o'clock one of the servants heard him moaning as if ill and going into his room was with him when he gasped and died. He had not yet retired.

Coroner Vowinkel was notified and upon arriving here this morning and learning the circumstances, decided that an inquest was unnecessary. Death was the result of neuralgia of the heart. Mr. Carolon was about fifty-five years old and unmarried. He was a brother of Mrs. Robert Nixon, of 77 Erie street, Oswego. The remains will be taken to Oswego for burial.

Mr. Carolon was a sober, industrious man and an exceptionally fine gardener. In this community, where he has lived so long, he was respected and esteemed by all who knew him.

Teachers at a Banquet.

Syracuse teachers had a banquet at one of the hotels on Saturday night. They were the female principals of the schools of the city and there were twenty-two of them. Miss Arria Huntington, School Commissioner, was present as guest of honor, and responded to the toast, "The Men Principals—God Bless Them." She dwelt upon the valuable element which the men principals contribute to the public school system. However great the influence that the women teachers contribute, it is well also, she thought, that the boys should have at the head of the school a man who shall represent to them the ideal in manhood which they may strive to attain.
