HENDERSON'S Clearing Out Sale of Coats and Furs!

ALL THAT IS LEFT OF THEM AT PRICES ASTONISHINGLY LOW.

In buying a Coat or Fur at a sale price one should bear in mind that price reductions do not necessarily count for anything, that asking prices do not always represent value, that because an article is offered at one-third, one-quarter or one-half below former price, it does not necessarily follow that it's a bargain. Much more depends on whether or not the article was worth all that was asked for it originally.

The hundreds of satisfied customers who have made their Coat and Fur purchases of us know full well the exceptional values to be found here this too, when regular prices prevailed.

WE HAVE ANNOUNCED A Special Clearance Sale and customers will find HERE

The Biggest Cloak Values OF THE SEASON.

Each and every garment has been marked at a price that will sell it quickly.

Reductions not alone from former price but reductions from ACTUAL VALUE.

MANY OF THE BEST STYLES REMAIN!

We also wish to call attention to the special prices on remnants and odd lots here and there throughout the store. Each and every department offers something special worthy of your consideration.
