ENTIRE CITY INTERESTED IN YOUNG MAN

Cooper's New Theory Attracts Widespread Attention During Stay in Cincinnati.

An adequate idea of the intense interest which has been aroused by young Mr. Cooper during the past year with his theories and medicines is given in the following article which appeared in the Cincinnati Post while Cooper was introducing his ideas to the people of that city. The article says: "The beginning of Mr. Cooper's second week in Cincinnati gives every indication that he is to enjoy the same astonishing success here as in other cities.

"From the first day of his visit the crowds that call to see him have steadily increased, until now it has reached a point where several thousand talk with him each day. The entire city seems to have become interested in his theory that the human stomach is degenerate, and he already has an army of followers in Cincinnati who seem positive that his claims are correct.

"A number of Cincinnatians were interviewed at Cooper's headquarters on Friday, and several interesting statements, showing their intense faith in Cooper's preparations, were secured. The following are selected from these statements and are characteristic of them all: Mrs. M. E. Emerson of 630 West Court street, said: 'I have suffered with stomach trouble and constipation for a year or so. When I ate I would have bloated spells, sour stomach, fermentation, bad taste in my mouth. In the morning I was as tired as when I went to bed. I had a dull pain in the lower part of my back. I have taken almost one bottle of the New Discovery and am so wonderfully improved that I have come down here to thank Mr. Cooper in person and obtain more of the medicine.'

"Another individual interviewed was Mr. J. H. Brooks, living at 527 Walnut street, who had the following to say: 'For the past eighteen months I have been a constant sufferer from catarrh of the head and stomach. My nasal passages would become inflamed and sore. I would have severe headaches, which affected my eyes, and great crusts of matter would drop into the throat, causing an irritation of the bronchial passages, until the stomach finally became poisoned. When I would lay down at night a phlegm would gather in my throat until it almost choked me, and would cause an annoying cough. Half a bottle of Cooper's New Discovery gave me relief, and when the first bottle was finished I felt like a new man. I am now completely cured and consider Cooper's New Discovery the greatest catarrh, blood and stomach remedy in the world.'"

The Cooper preparations have been wonderfully successful throughout the United States. We consider them remarkable medicines and would be pleased to explain the nature of them. —The Butler Pharmacy.

THE FIREPLACE.

One Thing That Helps Most to Make a Home Homely.

This I say: Go back and pick up lost good habits—the omitted amenities of life. Especially put back into your house the fireplace. It is the one thing that helps most to make a home homely. Build it big and broad. Let there be no gimcracks of fancy woodwork anywhere near it. Let it be only brick or stone. Then let the hearth be broad and wide. Make it so large every way that you need never fear for a snapping coal. Away with mats, for they are combustible! But a stool—that is another thing. Here you can forget the stocks and the office and the store. Here you can dream of rest and peace. Here it is possible that some of you have Tom and Harry and Bessie about your knees. There is no better way to reconstitute the family. It is the chief want of these modern days.

The world is never quite so independent or we quite so care free without a fire. There are vastness and lack of outline to a summer day. We get our feelings mixed up with the cosmos. The fireplace narrows our lives somewhat, but it completes and unifies things. We are happy to be just a part of the little warm home circle. Did anybody ever commit suicide who had a fireplace?—E. P. Powell in Outing Magazine.

Humor and Philosophy

PERT PARAGRAPHS.

And still prices don't take a tumble to themselves nor to the purses of would be purchasers.

To have failings is merely to be human, but no one ever laid the foundation of a fortune by the exercise of his failings.

Patience is a wonderful quality, but sometimes the flywheel absolutely refuses to turn, and we get slewed completely off the track.

Sometimes the solitaire blazes so brightly that it blinds the girl to the qualities or the lack of the same of the man behind it.

It may be sensible to be happy, but it by no means follows that it is happy to be sensible.

It is so easy to be angry, but by no means easy to see why.

Anybody can live upon a salary of $1,000 a year, provided, of course, that he secures somebody to stand good for the thou.

Not every aspirant to the honor found a presidential nomination hidden securely in the toe of his Christmas stocking.

How to Cure It.

Pack the victim up in ice.
Steam him in a vapor bath,
Let him wander in the snow
Barefoot on the garden path,
Give him quinine twice a day
Mixed with whisky two years old,
Have him say some mystic words—
That's the way to cure a cold.

Let him exercise his faith:
[illegible]
There are twenty patent doses
That are also warranted—
Herbs that by an ancient dame
In a corner pot are brewed.
If that doesn't drive it hence,
He might try some breakfast food.

Fasting is a splendid thing
When the throat and lungs are sore;
Keep it up for thirty days
If you do not die before.
Treat it to the open air,
Sleep with all your windows wide,
With your arms and legs exposed,
Though it's ten below outside.

What's the use to have a cold?
Why continue with a cough
When there are on every hand
Remedies to throw it off—
[illegible]
Though the starry heavens should fall
That your dearest friends have used?
Quit your job and try them all.

Knocked Out the Girl.

"Yes," one of the two women was saying, "I think I'll get for the drawing room those curtains I looked at last. The dining room's all right as it is, but the drawing room—"

"Now, will you listen to that?" exclaimed a man sitting near by in an undertone. "Her 'drawing room.' Why, say, she occupies a five room flat just over mine and a duplicate of it! Whenever I get more than three people in my little parlor I feel like apologizing for crowding them. If she were to add a grand piano to her furniture I'll bet she couldn't open the door more than halfway.

"But I suppose she must get a lot of comfort out of talking about her 'drawing room,' especially when strangers are listening. You know some women are queer that way."—New York Globe.

The Game He Preferred.

At dinner recently several men were discussing the merits of different kinds of game. One preferred canvasback duck, another woodcock and still another thought a quail the most delicious article of food. The discussion and the dinner ended at about the same time.

"Well, Harry," said one of the men, speaking to the waiter at his elbow, "what kind of game do you like best?"

"Well, Mr. Jones, to be frank, almost any kind of game suits me, but what I like best is an American eagle served on a silver dollar."—New York Tribune.

Too Common.

"I noticed that he didn't eat the canned tongue."

"Maybe he doesn't care for it."

"Well, he has it fresh at home so much of the time."

Dangerous to Fall From.

"Poor John! I pity him."

"What's the matter with John? He [illegible]"

"You know he always makes good resolutions at the first of the year."

"Yes, but he doesn't keep them."

"That is the trouble, for I hear they are going to use a flying machine for the water wagon next year."

Modern Statesmanship.

"Notice how swelled up that man from the southwest is?"

"Yes; he will hardly speak to common people."

"What is his claim to superiority?"

"He says the congressman from his district can lick any man in the house of representatives."

You Bet.

When the coal bin's good and empty
And no coin is on the spot,
When the days are cold and gloomy,
Then it's melancholy. What!

Daddy's Boys.

"There's one great trouble with the old political parties."

"Yes?"

"They need an inheritance tax."

"What do you mean?"

"Get too many members by inheriting them."

Variety.

"Your stenographer appears to be a young lady of originality."

"You guessed it right there. She can think of more ways to spell the same word than any two ordinary persons could."

High Aspirations.

"He wants to be the greatest criminal of the day."

"Wants to go to jail, does he?"

"Why, of course not. I didn't say he wanted to be a little criminal."

Finest Brand.

"So he is going to settle in Tartary."

"Yes, and marry a Tartar girl."

"You don't say. Is she lovely?"

"She is the cream of Tartar maidens."

Three Factions In Taft-Foraker Fight.

Columbus, Jan. 15. — Secretary of State Thompson heard representatives of three factions in Cleveland regarding their claims in the Taft-Foraker fight to be recognized as the bonafide committee of Cuyahoga county. Secretary Thompson intimated that he will probably refer the matter to the state central committee and let it decide as to the legality of the committees and then he will act. This is understood to be favored by the Taft people, but the Foraker faction strenuously objects to this plan.

Stokes Wants New Blanket Ballot.

Trenton, N. J., Jan. 15.—Governor Edward C. Stokes, the retiring governor of New Jersey, in his last message to the legislature, advocated the separation of state and municipal elections. At the same time he prophesied the passing from New Jersey elections of the voting machine and urged that great care be taken in devising a blanket ballot to be used in their place. He believes that the ballot at present in use should be improved.

PUNY CHILDREN NEED VINOL

It Builds Them Up and Makes Them Strong and Robust.

Rapid growth, overstudy, insufficient nourishment, convalescence after children's diseases, and run-down conditions make children thin and delicate and stops development.

Because Vinol contains all the medicinal, bone, tissue and body building elements of cod liver oil, actually taken from fresh cods' livers, the useless oil eliminated and peptonate of iron added, it quickly restores robust health and children love it.

M[illegible], of Canton, Ohio, writes: "I wish I could induce every mother who has a weak, sickly child to try that delicious cod liver preparation, Vinol, as it restored health and strength to our daughter after all else had failed."

We have never sold a medicine in our store equal to Vinol for delicate, ailing children, weak old people, or sickly women and children, and we return money if it fails to benefit.

CATARRH A SERIOUS FAR-REACHING BLOOD DISORDER

Even in its early stages Catarrh is almost intolerable [illegible] feeling in the nose, the buzzing noises in the ears, the continual "hawking and spitting," difficult breathing, etc. But when the blood becomes thoroughly polluted from the catarrhal matter, the inflammation extends to the bronchial tubes, causing hoarseness, and often an aggravating cough; the stomach is affected, resulting in dyspepsia, loss of appetite and strength, and gradually all the mucous membranes of the body become diseased and the system upset and deranged. Frequently the kidneys and bladder are attacked, and the constant passage of impure blood through the lungs, diseases these important members, and Catarrh terminates in Consumption. Catarrh is a deep-seated blood disease, and must be treated constitutionally, for it is beyond the reach of local treatment. S. S. S. cures Catarrh by cleansing the blood of all the impure catarrhal matter and at the same time building up the entire system. It goes down and attacks the disease at its head, in the circulation, and removes every trace of the impurity that is causing the trouble. Then as rich, pure blood circulates through the body, the inflamed membranes commence to heal, the mucous discharges grow less and finally cease, and all the disagreeable and disgusting symptoms of Catarrh disappear. S. S. S. has no equal as a cure for this disease. It refines and purifies the entire circulation and repairs the damage done by Catarrh. Special book on Catarrh and any medical advice free.
