WELLAND CANAL.
1858.
Notice is hereby given to Owners and Masters of Vessels navigating the Welland Canal, that arrangements have this day been agreed upon and entered into by the undersigned persons now engaged in
TOWING VESSELS
Of various Tonnage, through said Canal, considering it necessary that a fixed rate should be established, whereby said business should be regulated, and that the same may be properly conducted whereby Masters of Vessels, and all others whom it may concern, might reasonably expect such satisfaction as all would desire, it has, therefore, been deemed advisable that all owners of teams shall hold such Vessels, or Masters thereof, as they Tow responsible for the same,
THE RATES FOR TOWING

OSWEGO WARE HOUSE ASSOCIATION.—The arrangement is entered into by the proprietors of the Elevators and Warehouses hereafter named for the purpose of RECEIVING and STORING GRAIN, FLOUR and other produce.

The advantages of this arrangement are: the prompt discharge of Vessels at all times; a uniform rate of charges; and a reliable security to Shippers and Bankers advancing on property shipped to this port.

All property received by the Association will be under the supervision and control of the General Superintendent, and only deliverable upon orders from his office.
