SCORES THE BIG PUGS.

Tom O'Rourke Severely Criticises Corbett and Fitzsimmons—Charley Mitchell Challenges McCoy—Other Sporting News.

NEW YORK, Jan. 3.—Tom O'Rourke, the well-known fight promoter, handles Corbett, Fitzsimmons and McCoy without gloves whenever he can find auditors. In the presence of a crowd of sporting men in the Gilsey House to-day O'Rourke criticised these fighters severely.

"The public is rapidly growing tired of the absurd gush that is being printed about Corbett and Fitzsimmons, who do not want to fight, but are looking for enough free advertising to boom their theatrical business. There is an understanding between them, and I know what I am talking about. When they fought at Carson they made an agreement which holds good now. They said they would not fight anybody or each other until after one year, dating from March 17th last. Then they agreed they would have another go next July. The trouble is now that Brady and Julian want to run the fight themselves and freeze Stuart out.

"I'll bet $1,000 that Corbett and Fitzsimmons won't fight anybody else before they meet again, and I'll bet another $1,000 that they will have another fight next July. It's also common talk among persons who know that the men agreed not to fight again until their contracts with the veriscope people expired. All this talk about contesting for big money and all these challenges are bluffs simply to work up the public."

Phil Dwyer, the former backer of Jim Corbett, is positive that Fitzsimmons and Corbett will meet again, and is willing to wager the fight will take place before the end of this year.

"Fitzsimmons can not well afford to stay in the background," said Dwyer to-day. "He knows the public will not stand for it. A fighter, like a jockey, must stick to his profession. He can not get along in idleness. So with Fitzsimmons. He must fight and he must let Corbett have another chance."

KLONDYKERS AWAITING THEM.

Effort is Made to Have Fitzsimmons and Corbett Go to Alaska.

NEW YORK, Jan. 3.—"Joe" Boyle, the well known horseman, has just returned from Alaska, after six months' absence. He said to-night: "The Klondyke miners are anxious to see Corbett and Fitz and have urged me to bring them there. I will give a purse of $25,000 for Fitzsimmons to box Corbett to a finish next July. I will deposit that amount before I leave here, to show I am in earnest. I will also guarantee to either Fitzsimmons or Corbett $15,000 to give an exhibition. If Bob or Jim have it out there I will give to the winner $15,000 to meet Kid McCoy. I am figuring on building a tent to seat about 2,000 persons." Boyle will leave here for San Francisco next week. He will go direct to Skaguay, which he expects to reach about February 1st. He will take with him 200 tons of provisions, forty men, fifty horses and 200 dogs.

Kid McCoy Won't Fight Walcott.

NEW YORK, Jan. 3.—Joe Walcott, the colored "wonder," through his manager, Tom O'Rourke, has posted $5,000 in this city to bring about a mill with "Kid" McCoy. O'Rourke said that he was ready to match Walcott against McCoy at 158 pounds for a side bet of $5,000. McCoy, when he heard what O'Rourke had done, said: "O'Rourke is looking for a cheap ad. He knows that Walcott won't fight me, and that I won't bother with him. I have drawn the color line."

Maher's Challenge to Sharkey.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Jan. 3.—John J. Quinn, acting for Peter Maher, to-day mailed articles of agreement to Thomas Sharkey for either a boxing contest before a club or a finish fight at Carson City.

"Tod" Sloane in Demand.

NEW YORK, Jan. 3.—A dispatch to the World from London says: Where Tod Sloane will ride this year has not yet been settled. He is now trying to get the Fleischmanns to release him so that he can ride in England. Lord William Beresford and Pierre Lorillard have offered him $15,000 for first claim on his services for the season of 1898. Sloane has been holding out for $20,000, a sum that Lord William is ready to give, but which Lorillard objects to.

Sloane has gone to Florida to see Lorillard and to try to arrange, if possible, to get his release from the Fleischmanns. It is understood that another prominent English turfman has made Sloane an offer of $7,500 for second choice on his services. This man, it is said, is close to the Prince of Wales, and it is his offer that probably started the report that Sloane would ride in the Prince's colors. One thing is certain, that if Sloane returns to England he can ride in every race every day, if he wants to.

Charlie Mitchell After "Kid" McCoy.

NEW YORK, Jan. 3.—Following is a letter from Pony Moore, the father-in-law of Charlie Mitchell, who desires to correct the impression that the Englishman ever declined to meet Kid McCoy. With the letter is a challenge from Mitchell to McCoy:

"LONDON, Dec. 20th, 1897.—As Kid McCoy has beaten Creedon and as he says Charlie Mitchell would not fight him while he was in England, you will oblige by inserting the following challenge in your valuable paper just to show the sporting public who funked out of a match.

"Yours sincerely,

"PONY MOORE,

"On behalf of Charlie Mitchell."

The following is Mitchell's challenge:

"To "Kid" McCoy: Charlie Mitchell hereby challenges "Kid" McCoy to fight me for any sum from £500 upwards and the best purse offered. The Olympic club of Birmingham, in England, will give a purse of £1,000 for the match, to take place February 21st. This purse is good enough for me and should also suit McCoy. Hoping McCoy will accept this challenge and come to England at once, I remain Yours truly,

CHARLIE MITCHELL.

I will allow McCoy £100 expenses.

Cricket in Australia.

MELBOURNE, Victoria, Jan. 3.—In the second test match between the Australians and the visiting English cricketers the former were all out to-day for 520 runs. At the close of play this afternoon the Englishmen had scored twenty-two runs for one wicket down.

COL. KEARNEY'S APPOINTMENT.

Comes In For One of the Offices Under Mayor VanWyck.

Among the appointments made by Mayor Van Wyck is one that will be recognized as most fitting, Colonel Henry S. Kearney as Commissioner of Public Buildings, Lighting and Supplies, at a salary of $7,500 a year.

Colonel Kearney is a native Virginian, but has resided for many years in New York and is a staunch Tammany Democrat. He is a Civil Engineer by profession and has given a great deal of attention to electricity and electrical matters, so that he has peculiar qualifications that fit him for the place. For the past year or more Colonel Karney and family have spent much time in Oswego and are well known here. His new position is a most important one and Oswego friends believe that Mayor Van Wyck has made no mistake.

TRAINS DELAYED.

Yesterday Morning Was the Coldest of the Season.

Yesterday morning was the coldest of the season, the temperature being 1° above zero at eight o'clock. This morning it was 15° above.

The R. W. & O. company is having trouble in running trains on the Watertown division owing to the snow. The train from the East due here at 12:20 o'clock did not arrive until 1:30 this afternoon, the delay being occasioned by snow.

KNIGHTS TEMPLAR BALL.

A Grand Affair That Comes Off Next Month.

Following the example of her sister commanderies in many cities of the State, Lake Ontario Commandery, No. 32, Knights Templar, of this city, will hold a grand ball and reception at Fitzhugh Hall on February 2d. The intention is to hold an affair of this kind annually and the first will be worthy of initiating the series.

Invitations have been issued to all Sir Knights and others desiring them must make application.

The Sir Knights will appear in full uniform and the scene in the hall on the night of the reception is expected to be most beautiful. The Webb-Schwartz orchestra, of Fulton, will furnish the music and Joseph E. Danio, the caterer, will serve supper in the new Richardson Hall over the dancing hall.

The Knights are sparing no expense to make the ball a great success and a credit to the Commandery.

Dropsy and Heart Disease.

A great cure and a great testimony: "For ten years I suffered greatly from Heart Disease, Fluttering of the Heart and Smothering Spells made my life a torment. I was confined to my bed. Dropsy set in. My physician told me to prepare for the worst. I tried Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart—One dose gave great relief, one bottle cured the Dropsy and my heart."—Mrs. James Adams, Syracuse, N. Y. Sold by A. D. McIntyre and Mead's drug store.—I.

THE LOCAL STAGE.

The Wolford Stock Company at the Richardson Theatre all Week.

The Wolford Stock company opens a week's engagement at the Richardson Theatre to-night, when they will be seen in the well known drama, "Master and Man." To-morrow night "The Smugglers" will be presented and at the matinee on Wednesday, "Mystic Mountain." The company is said to be among the strongest on the road playing to popular prices. They carry a carload of special scenery and a large number of beautiful costumes.

DRIVEN OUT OF SYRACUSE.

Messrs. Gillen and Collins Regarded as Suspicious Characters.

Syracuse Standard: John Collins and John Gillen, who claim to live in Oswego, were arraigned in Police Court this morning, charged with being tramps. They arrived in the city on Wednesday, and since then have been loitering about the Italian quarter. They spent considerable time at "Tom" Marnell's saloon in North Franklin street, and he became suspicious that they were figuring on robbing the bank which he also conducts there. Chief of Police Wright telephoned Chief Doyle, of Oswego, and learned that Gillen had served a term in Auburn prison for burglary. Chief Doyle also said that Collins's given name was Dennis. Collins denied this to-day, claiming that Dennis was his younger brother, who is still at home. They were given suspended sentences on condition that they would leave the city.

Railroad Y. M. C. A.

This association gave a free musical and literary program Saturday evening to members and friends. This was in place of the usual "open house" which the ladies generally keep on New Year's day, and was a very successful affair, judging by the number of people who gathered to hear it. The following program was given:

Selection ............ Parmiter's Orchestra
Recitation ............ Kittie Somers
Recitation ............ Effie Parmiter
Instrumental duet ............ Misses Parmiter and Willard
Recitation ............ Miss Eva Healey
Instrumental duet ............ Miss J. Somers and Mr. T. Sweetman
Recitation ............ Sophie Parmiter
Song ............ Kittie Somers
Orchestra
Recitation ............ Miss Emma Milo
Instrumental solo ............ Reta Somers
Recitation ............ Mr. Patrick Fennell
Orchestra
Recitation ............ Mr. W. J. Lewis

Many numbers were encored, and the Entertainment Committee of the Auxiliary certainly deserve praise for securing such an excellent program.

To Abandon Oswego.

Ensign and Mrs. Pierce, of Dayton, Ohio, will speak at the Salvation Army headquarters, No. 73 East First street, to-night and to-morrow night. Captain Carson announces that the Army has decided to abandon Oswego and that these will be the last meetings held.

FULTON.

Anticipating Funds—Voting on the New Charter—An Old Lady Hurt.

FULTON, Jan. 3.—On Friday evening the Village Board of Trustees met and resolved to borrow $500 on the faith of the people pending the $1,200 proposition. The money is to be used in paying the current expenses of the village. The Board has taken a different view of the Assessors' bills which have been sued for and will pay them on condition that the Assessors pay the cost so far incurred. The Reynolds case has been appealed by the Village Attorney, as Justice Keenan gave a judgment of $24.50 against the village. The Assessors have agreed to pay the costs of the cases while in the Justice's Court and the village the costs of the appeal in the Reynolds, which will leave the Assessors to pay a little over $14.00.

To-night the question of whether Fulton is to be governed in the future by the new General Village law or whether under her old charter, will be settled, forever. Never has a question among the taxpayers aroused so much or had such a full discussion as the question at issue at polls to-day.

This evening the Knights of Columbus will have an installation of officers, which will be attended by Mr. Hogan, of Syracuse. After the installation an open social session will be held in the rooms and later a banquet will be served.

Miss Lulu Schmelzle, Syracuse, spent New Year's with her cousin, Mrs. Theodore Glynn. Appropriate New Year's services were held in the churches here.

Mrs. Roberts, seventy-eight years old, who lives in Highland street, slipped and fell on her sidewalk, sustaining a fracture of the left shoulder.

The family of Charles Currier, boss dyer in the Fulton Worsted Mills, will move here this week from Ilion and will occupy the Reynolds house in Oswego Falls. A number of young men of this town will have a straw ride to Payne's on Friday evening and will hold a dance and supper there.

This morning occurred the death of Willie, the four-months old child of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Baker, who live in Lyons street. Funeral took place this afternoon.

JANUARY TRIAL TERM.

Justice Wright's Charge to the Grand Jury This Morning.

JANUARY 3.—The January Trial Term of the Supreme Court opened at the Court-house at 10:30 o'clock this morning, Justice M. L. Wright presiding. When court had been formally opened and the grand jurors sworn, Justice Wright began his charge, the delivery of which occupied about fifteen minutes. He impressed on the jury the necessity of keeping their proceedings secret. "It is a crime, gentlemen," he said, "to reveal the fact that you have indicted a person who is not in custody. Do not indict an innocent person. The evidence must be strong and conclusive and you should place no dependence on hearsay evidence."

In referring to the Excise law, Justice Wright said: "We have a liberal Excise law and it must be carefully observed. You should present for trial any person who has been guilty of violating the law."

Charles M. Austin, of this city, was appointed foreman of the jury and that body, at the conclusion of the Court's charge, retired. Among the cases that will be investigated is that of Cornelius Kane upon a charge of entering Armour's cooler.

Several trial jurors were excused by the Court and the calendar was then taken up and disposed of as follows:
