Personal Mention.

—Mr. Henry Whitney of Chicago is in town.

Lady Godiva's husband was an earl; Godiva herself was a bare'un.—[American Punch.

Mrs. J. W. Mosk of Watertown is reported by the Watertown papers to be seriously ill.

If gambling halls are properly so named, wouldn't it be a sweet thing to call billiard rooms carum halls?—[Boston Transcript.

Why is judge Huntington like Jack Falstaff? Answer, "He babbled of Greenfields."—[Oswego Amateur Morning Press.

Mr. James Croaley of the Buffalo Sunday Morning News has been in town today, but returned to Buffalo at 5.40. Mr. Croaley is in good health and spirits, we are glad to see.

Oswego's Palladium is now blooming as the rose, in a spanking new typographical suit, which will render it more desirable even than before to the news-seeking shears of its exchanges.—[Rochester Express.

We understand that Mr. H. A. Tuttle, formerly manager of the Western Union telegraph in this city, has sold his interest in the firm of Merry & Tuttle, Ilion, N. Y., and will probably remove to Kansas City.

A child in Oswego lately swallowed a whistle, but the local papers neglect to mention the effect the accident is likely to have on the boy's future musical powers in whistling the airs from Pinafore.—[Rochester Express. It's a girl, and hence we feel compelled to tolerate the allusion to Pinafore; otherwise the shot gun policy would be enforced.

Mr. John S. Kenyon, formerly democratic superintendent on the Oswego canal, but lately republican official, has been appointed assistant clerk of the state senate. "Johnny" has our congratulations. Col. Jack Cuyler, whom Kenyon supplants, is appointed assistant clerk in the assembly. Thus, both these patriots are duly taken care of.—[Syracuse Courier.

The Palladium came out last evening in a new dress throughout which is an improvement. We are glad the Pall. is prospering and can afford to do this. With the exception of the Morning Press, we think it the "boss" paper of Oswego. The Pall. is somewhat proud, and it claims to be "the representative newspaper of Oswego." It forgets that the little paper 'round the corner may contest that point. But success to the Pall. any how.—[Amateur Morning Press.

Farmer Becker in Town.

Captain Becker of Granby and of the schooner Camanche was in town yesterday.

Repairing the D. L. & W. Trestle.

A large force is at work on the D. L. & W. RR. trestle to-day repairing the structure.

Obituary Note.

Chief engineer Wamsop of the fire department has the sympathy of his comrades and friends in the loss of his little girl, aged two years, by death.

A Remonstrance Circulating.

A petition is in circulation for signatures remonstrating against the proposed passage of an act by the legislature abolishing the recorder's court of this city.

The A. B. Cooper Case.

The argument of counsel in the case of Alvin Bronson Cooper, charged with abandonment of family, which was set down for last night, was further adjourned until 3 P. M. to-day.

Betting on Greenfield.

Pulaski Democrat:—Again the time is becoming short in the Greenfield case. Betting men want to lay 3 to 1 that there will be another postponement or delay.

The employes of Conde's knitting factory will give their first reception Tuesday evening, January 27, at Richardson hall. A good time can be confidently looked for.

A New Business Enterprise

Mr. J. Adam Benzing and Mr. W. S. Goulding have leased Dr. Whited's building on East Second street for a custom mill and flour and feed store.

Public School Examinations.

To-morrow forenoon primary No. 18, East Fifth street, Oak Hill, will be examined, and in the afternoon primary No. 1, West Eighth and Schuyler streets.

Our Oldest Citizen.

Rev. Simeon Parmelee, the father in law of Prof. E. J. Hamilton, of this city, celebrates to-morrow the ninety-eighth anniversary of his birth. He will be glad to see his friends.

A Rifle Match at the Armory

There will be a rifle match at the armory the second Monday in Feb. for a number of valuable prizes which will be duly announced. The scheme is for the benefit of the 48th reg't drum corps.

Odd Fellows' Aid Association

At a meeting of the Odd Fellows' mutual aid association last evening, the following were elected:

Directors—George Goble, J. Meyer, J. H. Tibbitts, J. L. Pool, V. K. Burr, S. H. Brown, J. F. Sytz, all for two years; president, George Goble; vice-president, G. Meyer; secretary, J. H. Tibbitts; treasurer, J. L. Pool.

Navigation Notes.

The rate for trimming in Chicago now is $1.50 per 1,000 bushels.

Kingston Whig: Nearly all the ice has left the harbor and navigation between the city and the islands is as open as in mid-summer.

The machinery taken out of the steamer Pierrepont when she laid up in Kingston last fall has been replaced and she was to make the first trip of 1880 to Cape Vincent yesterday.

Port Sanilac, 13: Lake navigation for 1880 has opened for a time at least. The steamer Beckwith, from Port Huron, arrived here this afternoon and took on 300 bags of grain. There is no ice in the lake and no snow on the ground.

Bay City, 13: The recent mild weather has had the effect of removing the ice from the Saginaw river. The stream is as clear as in July, and there is no snow in this vicinity. Outside advices are to the effect that the ice on the bay is very thin. Hale's dock at Tawas City is free of ice. The steamer Peter Smith was steamed up this afternoon and will leave for Tawas Wednesday with freight and passengers.

The schooner America was drawn out on ways yesterday at Cape Vincent and a survey was had preparatory to repairing her.

The schooner William L. Preston was yesterday chartered at Chicago to carry corn to Buffalo at 1c and to hold the cargo until spring.

Cleveland, 13: The schooner J. B. Wilbur arrived here this afternoon five hours and fifty minutes from Huron, in tow of the tug James Amadeus. The weather is cold and snowy, and the voyage is regarded as something of a feat.

Milwaukee, 13: The schooners Saveland and Unadilla are loading wheat, spring delivery, for Buffalo at 6 1-2 cents.

The side wheel steamer Kelly is undergoing extensive repairs at Clayton. They are adding twenty-five feet to her length. It is proposed to run in connection with U. & B. R. RR to Alexandria Bay.

THE FANNING TRIAL.

Moved This Morning—The Work of Selecting a Jury.

In the court of oyer and terminer the case of John Fanning of Oswego, indicted for the murder of Daniel Burke at Oswego Falls in September, 1877, was commenced this morning. Out of the original panel of 36 petit jurors, except three who were excused, the following six had been sworn in at noon, when the panel was exhausted:

William H. Tompkins, farmer, Granby; William C. Newton, farmer, Volney; Francis Brocey, farmer, New Haven; William H. Spencer, farmer, Schroeppel; Harrison Mattison, mechanic, Hannibal; Charles Dae, farmer, Granby.

Nothing remarkable transpired during the examination of jurors except as to Abram Fralick, a farmer of Schroeppel. Following is a sample of his replies to Mr. Perry of Fanning's counsel:

Q. Have you formed any opinion as to the guilt or innocence of the prisoner?

A. No. I can't say as I have.

Q. [illegible]

A. Can't say as I have.

Q. Are you positive that you did not form any impression?

A. Well, no further than I said he ought to be strung up.

Q. Have you formed any impression which it would not take evidence to remove?

A. Well, I have.

Q. Do you think evidence would remove it?

A. No.

This afternoon the following additional jurors were obtained up to 4 P. M.:

Edward G. Hutchinson, merchant, Schroeppel; Joseph E. Vincent, farmer, Scriba; Wm. H. Burt, farmer, Scriba; Daniel Congdon, farmer, Scriba; Sewall Harard, farmer, Granby.

Subsequently Fayette Tuttle of Palermo, farmer, was sworn as the twelfth juror and the district attorney is opening the case. The original panel of petit jurors was excused till Monday and balance of the special panel discharged.

Raffle and Dance.—For a piano, at Ranney's hall, corner East First and Cayuga streets, Thursday evening, January 15, 1880. Tickets 50 cents.

CHARITY COMMISSIONERS

A Lively Contest Over the Appointments. Chester Penfield Reappointed. V. K. Burr, Republican, in Place of B. D. Hougaton, Democrat.

We summarized briefly yesterday the proceedings of the mayor and city supervisors, sitting for the election of commissioners of charity in place of Chester Penfield and B. D. Houghton, up to the time when we went to press. Following is a more detailed account of the meeting over which mayor Neal presided, all the supervisors being present.

A petition was presented, signed by Hon. Geo. B. Sloan, Gilbert Mollison, John K. Lyon, T. S. Mott, Judge Churchill, S. B. Johnson, Judge Nutting and other prominent citizens, asking that the present commissioners be re-appointed.

Sup. Adkins moved that a ballot be taken for commissioner on the West side.

Sup. Judson argued forcibly in favor of granting the petition, and amended that Mr. Penfield and Mr. Houghton be appointed.

Sup. Himes amended that Mannister Worts be appointed in place of Chester Penfield, which was carried—yeas 7, nays 2—Sups. Judson and Adkins.

Several persons stated that Mr. Worts had said he would not accept if appointed.

On motion of Sup. King, Sup. Himes was appointed a committee to wait on Mr. Worts and see if he would accept.

Sup. Himes soon returned with Mr. Worts, who declined to accept.

Sup. Quonce amended that James Gibbs be substituted for Chester Penfield.

Sup. Judson said that while Mr. Gibbs is an upright man and good citizen, he is inexperienced, and he thought great saving would necessarily come from reappointment of the present commissioners.

Sup. Quonce's amendment was carried—yeas 7, nays 2—Sups. Judson and Adkins.

The motion as amended was carried.

Sup. Quonce was appointed a committee to wait on Mr. Gibbs and request his acceptance, and a recess was taken till 2 P. M.

At 2 P. M. the meeting re-convened.

Sup. Adkins, who was substituted as a committee in place of Sup. Quonce to wait on Mr. Gibbs and see whether he would accept, reported that Mr. Gibbs declined.

The question was then raised as to who were appointed, the mayor and Sups. Judson and Quonce claiming that according to the provisions of the motion as amended and carried before recess, Messrs. Houghton and Gibbs were duly appointed.

Sups. Smith, Himes and others claimed it was not so intended.

Sup. Smith moved that the question be reconsidered.

Sup. Judson thought the body was part of the city government, acting under the rules which govern the principal organization, viz: The common council, and that said rules are to the effect that a question, after being taken out of the house by adjournment, could not be reconsidered without unanimous consent.

The mayor decided that there was no adjournment, but a recess, but he declared the motion to reconsider out of order.

Sup. Adkins appealed.

Sup. Smith put the question, "Shall the decision of the chair be the decision of the house?" He announced that the decision of the chair was not sustained.

The motion to reconsider was carried: yeas 6, nays 3.

Sup. Himes moved that V. K. Burr from the East side and Chester Penfield from the West side be appointed.

Sup. Judson amended that the meeting proceed to an informal ballot for a commissioner of public charity on the East side. Carried—yeas 5, nays 4.

The ballot resulted: V. K. Burr, 6; B. D. Houghton, 3.

Sup. Himes moved to make the ballot formal.

Sup. Judson amended that a formal ballot be taken.

The motion was declared carried and V. K. Burr elected.

Sup. Judson said this was very unfair and unjust toward the East side. He spoke of the experience, qualifications and record of Mr. Houghton as a commissioner, and hoped a democrat might be elected on the East side and he would be willing to vote for a republican on the West side.

The mayor and Sup. Quoner coincided with Sup. Judson.

The republican supervisors claimed they were willing to do that, but could not find a republican on the West side who would accept.

Sup. Judson's resolution was lost: yeas, 6; nays, 3.

Sup. Adkins moved a formal ballot for a commissioner from the West side.

Sup. Quonce moved that the ballot be informal. Carried.

The ballot resulted: C. Penfield, 4; Chester Penfield, 3; Gilbert Mollison, 1; A. Stowell, 1.

Sup. Smith moved to proceed to a formal ballot. Carried.

Sup. Judson and others said Mr. Mollison would accept.

The ballot resulted: Chester Penfield, 8; blank, 1.

Sup. Smith moved that all the minutes except the two motions appointing the commissioners be expunged.

Sup. Judson moved to reconsider the appointment as to the East side—lost, yeas, 2; nays, 7.

Sups. Judson, Stowell and Quonce wanted to see all the minutes, including the petition, printed.

Sup. Smith's resolution was lost.

Adjourned.

—While the meeting was in progress it was freely stated by the republicans that if they could get a republican on the West side they would appoint him.

Quinlan, $10.27; John Hatigan, $6.61; T. Weller, 80 cents; Roger O'Brien, 38c; Thomas Kelly, $2; Post & Henderson, $6.02; H. K. Davis, $7.60; Z. D. Baker, $3.25; M. Dolan, $5; John Collins, $6; P. T. Perkins, $1.25. Adopted.

Of superintendent: Amount of pay roll for week ending Jan. 10—$41.08. Orders were granted.

The clerk presented four proposals for furnishing blocks for the East Bridge street pavement—Oswego sand stone from 1,000 to 1,200 square yards, viz: Heath Allen, $1 per yard; J. B. Donnelly, 88 cents; A. Bartlett, 95 cents; M. N. Whitney, $1.

The contract was awarded to J. B. Donnelly. The paving blocks are to be delivered before the middle of May and are to be 7 to 9 inches wide, 3 to 5 inches thick and 7 to 12 inches long. Mr. Donnelly is to furnish bail for the faithful fulfillment of the contract and will not be paid before the middle of June.

A contract was awarded to George W. Watson to furnish fifty tin cups to be used at the bottom of the street lamps with a view to preventing them from smoking, etc. If the experiment proves successful, they will be used on all the lamps in time. The price is about $8 per hundred.

Com. Wetmore moved to enforce the ordinance prohibiting the piling of ashes in the public streets.

Com. Barnett amended, that the superintendent be directed to [illegible].

No action was taken.

Adjourned.

The Identity of P. B. Snyder Established.

Mr. Charles Rhodes was mystified yesterday afternoon by a telegram to his address from Crookston, Minn., signed J. G. McKenzie, and saying: "P. B. Snyder is dead. What is his religious belief?" Having no knowledge of such a person as the one mentioned in the despatch, Mr. Rhodes sent it to this office, and we printed it, asking for information of Snyder's friends. Last evening a lady called at this office, saying that she is Mr. Snyder's sister and the despatch referred to was her first information of the illness or death of her brother. In fact she had a letter from him but a few days ago, in which no mention was made of ill health, and she expected to visit him in the spring. The family, consisting of Mrs. Snyder and a son and a daughter, live on West Ninth street, between Mohawk and Oneida. The deceased left here some ten years ago, and has since lived in the west. While living here his principal occupation was that of a sailor. He was in the army during the rebellion and was injured by a gun shot wound in the hip. He was aged about 36 years, and it is reported that he had a wife and family in Michigan from whom he had separated, his wife refusing to go to Crookston with him. His family here understood that he was possessed of Crookston, and as he was of an adventuresome and reckless disposition, fear that he has met death by violence.

Losses by the Ph. Best Brewing Company's Fire.

Milwaukee Wisconsin, 10:—The adjusters of the insurance held upon the Empire brewery buildings recently burned, completed their labors at midnight last night, and report that the cost of new buildings required to replace those burned will be $36,967.84. The insurance held by the Best company on the portion of their buildings burned is $19,975, thus entailing on the company a loss on buildings of $6,992.84, less $4,638.80 depreciation on account of the age and wear of the buildings, thus leaving the net building loss $2,354.04. The loss on machinery and fixtures according to the adjustment is shown to be $18,630; the insurance, $6,355.60, the net loss on machinery, $12,274.40; the total net loss to the company above insurance, $14,628.44.

Charged With Embezzlement.

Syracuse Journal:—James Knowlton of Oswego county, a book canvasser in the employe of J. J. O'Brien, book publisher, was arrested in this city yesterday on a warrant sworn out by O'Brien, and locked up. Knowlton was arraigned charged with converting to his own use $169 coming into his hands as the agent of said O'Brien, with intent to cheat and defraud said O'Brien. He pleaded not guilty, and a settlement having been effected, the complainant was allowed to withdraw the complaint.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.

A Wedding That Did Not Take Place.

Utica Observer:—Yesterday afternoon, at three o'clock, George A. Vander Veer, of No. 88 Whitesboro street, was to have been married to a young lady in the Fourth ward. Rev. Mr. Humphrey, of the Court street Methodist church, was engaged to perform the ceremony. The bride was ready, and a large and happy party awaited the event, but the expected groom did not put in an appearance. After waiting some time, the wedding party was informed that Vander Veer attempted suicide at two o'clock by taking a dose of laudanum. Dr. Mc. Owen was called and arrived in time to saved the man's life. Mr. Vander Veer is a respectable young man. He became financially embarrassed and this led him to the attempt on his life. He is being carefully nursed by friends, who have reason to hope for his recovery.

Result of the Tug Suit.

Rochester Express:—The jury in the case of John Theiss, administrator, against the owners of the steam tug Barrows, came in shortly after 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon with a verdict of $1,000 for the plaintiff. This was a compromise between a majority of the jury on the one side who were in favor of rendering $3,000 damages, and the minority who were in favor of finding for the defendants. The minority based their proposed action on the charge of Judge Rumsey who held that rowboats like the one that William Theiss, the plaintiff's son, jumped from, must carry two lights under section 4,233 of the revised statutes of the United States. In not carrying such lights, persons injured in such boats sueing for damages, would naturally be charged with contributory negligence. The defendants in the present action will take an appeal and move for a new trial.
